Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 Susan Sarandon Betty Jo Tucker, 2004 Susan Sarandon s memorable performances have made her an American icon Passionate and outspoken she s often controversial Why did Sarandon choose acting as a career What is her acting philosophy How does she select roles What motivates her to promote social and political causes Why do some people object to this How do critics rate her work and her movies Betty Jo Tucker answers these questions and more in an analysis of Sarandon s achievements from a film critic s perspective Tucker s book also includes an annotated filmography of Sarandon s movies and selected reviews of her key films Who the Hell's in It Peter Bogdanovich, 2010-12-22 Peter Bogdanovich known primarily as a director film historian and critic has been working with professional actors all his life He started out as an actor he debuted on the stage in his sixth grade production of Finian s Rainbow he watched actors work he went to the theater every week from the age of thirteen and saw every important show on or off Broadway for the next decade he studied acting starting at sixteen with Stella Adler his work with her became the foundation for all he would ever do as an actor and a director Now in his new book Who the Hell s in It Bogdanovich draws upon a lifetime of experience observation and understanding of the art to write about the actors he came to know along the way actors he admired from afar actors he worked with directed befriended Among them Lauren Bacall Humphrey Bogart James Cagney John Cassavetes Charlie Chaplin Montgomery Clift Marlene Dietrich Henry Fonda Ben Gazzara Audrey Hepburn Boris Karloff Dean Martin Marilyn Monroe River Phoenix Sidney Poitier Frank Sinatra and James Stewart Bogdanovich captures in their words and his their work their individual styles what made them who they were what gave them their appeal and why they ve continued to be America s iconic actors On Lillian Gish the first virgin hearth goddess of the screen a valiant and courageous symbol of fortitude and love through all distress On Marlon Brando He challenged himself never to be the same from picture to picture refusing to become the kind of film star the studio system had invented and thrived upon the recognizable human commodity each new film was built around The funny thing is that Brando s charismatic screen persona was vividly apparent despite the multiplicity of his guises Brando always remains recognizable a star actor in spite of himself Jerry Lewis to Bogdanovich on the first laugh Lewis ever got onstage I was five years old My mom and dad had a tux made I worked in the borscht circuit with them and I came out and I sang Brother Can You Spare a Dime the big hit at the time It was 1931 and I stopped the show naturally a five year old in a tuxedo is not going to stop the show And I took a bow and my foot slipped and hit one of the floodlights and it exploded and the smoke and the sound scared me so I started to cry The audience laughed they were hysterical So I knew I had to get the rest of my laughs the rest of my life breaking sitting falling spinning John Wayne to Bogdanovich on the early years of Wayne s career when he was working as a prop man Well I ve naturally studied John Ford professionally as well as loving the man Ever since the first time I walked down his set as a goose herder in 1927 They needed somebody from the prop department to keep the geese from getting under a fake hill they had for Mother Machree at Fox I d been hired because Tom Mix wanted a box seat for the USC football games and so they promised jobs to Don Williams and myself and a couple of the players They buried us over in the properties department and Mr Ford s need for a goose herder just seemed to fit my pistol These twenty six portraits and conversations are unsurpassed in their evocation of a certain kind of great movie star that has vanished Bogdanovich s book is a celebration and a farewell

Paul on Mazursky Sam Wasson,2012-01-01 Paul Mazursky s nearly twenty films as writer director represent Hollywood s most sustained comic expression of the 1970s and 1980s But they have not been given their due perhaps because Mazursky s films both sincere and ridiculous realistic and romantic are pure emotion This makes films like Bob Carol Ted Alice An Unmarried Woman and Enemies A Love Story difficult to classify but that s what makes a human comedy human In the first ever book length examination of one of America s most important and least appreciated filmmakers Sam Wasson sits down with Mazursky himself to talk about his movies and how he makes them Going over Mazursky s oeuvre one film at a time interviewer and interviewee delve into the director s life in and out of Hollywood laughing talking and above all else feeling like Mazursky s people always do The book includes a filmography and never before seen photos
