exhibition represents the complete holdings of Paul Signac's work in the Metropolitan Museum of Art the majority of which are in the Robert Lehman Collection Parallel to this show drawings and oil sketches of Seurat from New York collections are exhibited in the galleries of the Department of Drawings Robert Lehman was very fond of Signac's art He appreciated the dignified serenity and exact organization of the compositions and he admired the free flowing arabesques of line and the brilliance of the colors Mr Lehman acquired several oils and dozens of watercolors by Signac during the long years of his collecting Many of these were given to museums and friends but a considerable group of the artist's works remained in the collection at the time it entered the Metropolitan Museum Therefore it seemed natural that as part of our program of making available to the public larger segments of the Robert Lehman Collection an exhibition of Paul Signac's works should be organized Furthermore for the first time we have included in this exhibition the Signac holdings of other departments of the Museum The drawings and oils sketches of Georges Seurat from the Robert Lehman Collection are naturally all included in the Seurat exhibition

Signac Marina Bocquillon-Ferretti, 2016 Through a selection of over 140 works this catalog offers a first approach to Paul Signac's color harmonies along with an invitation to travel Paul Signac's career as a painter in love with color was just as intense as it was varied Starting from one of the largest private collections of the artist's works this publication illustrates his creative journey from his early impressionist paintings until his final watercolors from the Ports de France series also including the heroic years of neo impressionism the splendor of Saint Tropez and the shimmering images of Venice Rotterdam and Constantinople The virtuosity of the neo impressionist master is also reflected in the diverse techniques he used the ardor of Signac's impressionist debut is set off against the limpid polychromies of the divisionist paintings the daring Japonisme of his watercolors contrasts with the freedom of the sheets painted en plein air while his large Indian ink studies reveal the secrets of calm compositions contemplated at length in his studio
