Paul Durcan's Diary:

Paul Durcan's Diary Paul Durcan, 2003 Walking alone in the streets of the world Paul Durcan has taken the listener on an exhilarating journey From Enniscorthy to New York from Irishtown to Iraq the news of the day that s in it is distilled through the poet s eye at times deeply personal at times reflective at times abundant and sensual his ailing mother a small spilt sea wooing moon a passing ship at Ringsend like a vast crate floating in the middle of a raindrop the hawthorn trees of the midlands blossoming baking powder white over all the meadows Broadcast on RT Radio 1 s Today with Pat Kenny over the last three years Paul Durcan s Diary speaks weekly to the nation Part autobiography part opinion and reflection defence and accusation Paul Durcan s Diary is collected here for the very first time The Art of the Caveman John Mc

Donagh, 2016-09-23 The first monograph on the poetry of Paul Durcan this book deals thematically with the dominant concerns evident from his first solo collection O Westport in the Light of Asia Minor published in 1975 up to and including The Days of Surprise published in 2015 His work is marked by an unnerving emotional honesty and a recurring desire to undermine the pomposity of an Ireland struggling under the weight of inherited inconsistencies One of the central arguments here is that Durcan has captured more than any other poet of his generation the complexities and contradictions inherent in Ireland s emergence from the early difficult decades of independence The complex relationship between the public and private in his poetry is also explored as well as the poet s unflinching examination of his deepest personal relationships

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 Forty chapters written by leading scholars across the world describe the latest thinking on modern Irish poetry The Handbook begins with a consideration of Yeats s early work and the legacy of the 19th century The broadly chronological areas which follow covering the period from the 1910s through to the 21st century allow scope for coverage of key poetic voices in Ireland in their historical and political context From the experimentalism of Beckett MacGreevy and others of the modernist generation to the refashioning of Yeats s Ireland on the part of poets such as MacNeice Kavanagh and Clarke mid century through to the controversially titled post 1969 Northern Renaissance of poetry this volume will provide extensive coverage of the key movements of the modern period The Handbook covers the work of among others Paul Durcan Thomas Kinsella Brendan Kennelly Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Michael Longley Medbh McGuckian and Ciaran Carson The thematic sections interspersed throughout chapters on women s poetry religion translation painting music stylistics allow for comparative studies of poets north and south across the century Central to the guiding spirit of this project is the Handbook s consideration of poetic forms and a number of essays explore the generic diversity of poetry in Ireland its various manipulations reinventions and sometimes repudiations of traditional forms The last essays in the book examine the work of a new generation of poets from Ireland concentrating on work published in the last two decades by Justin Quinn Leontia Flynn Sinead Morrissey David Wheatley Vona Groarke and others A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry, 1960 - 2015 Wolfgang Gortschacher, David

Malcolm, 2020-12-10 A comprehensive and scholarly review of contemporary British and Irish Poetry With contributions from noted scholars in the field A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960-2015 offers a collection of writings from a diverse group of experts They explore the richness of individual poets genres forms techniques traditions concerns and institutions that comprise these two distinct but interrelated national poetries Part of the acclaimed Blackwell Companion to Literature and Culture series this book contains a comprehensive survey of the most important contemporary Irish and British poetry The contributors provide new perspectives and positions on the topic This important book Explores the institutions histories and receptions of contemporary Irish and British poetry Contains contributions from leading scholars of British and Irish poetry Includes an analysis of the most prominent Irish and British poets Puts contemporary Irish and British poetry in context Written for students and academics of contemporary poetry A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960-2015 offers a comprehensive review of contemporary poetry from a wide range of diverse contributors

Praise in Which I Live and Move and Have my Being Paul Durcan, 2012-03-29 Paul Durcan's twenty second collection finds Monsieur le Poète on the road in Paris New York City Chicago Brisbane and Achill Island meditating upon the sanctuary of home and what it means to feel truly at home Regarded by many as the great poet of contemporary Ireland Durcan is on top form here as he contemplates the fall of the Celtic Tiger while railing against bankers and bonus boys There are poems of love lost and won and poems in memory of friends and relatives who have passed on but there is also joy to be found in the birth of a grandson and there is praise too for the modest heroism of truckers air traffic controllers and nurses those slim sturdy buxom nourishers of fallen mankind If for Sartre hell is other people for Durcan heaven is other people especially women

'To Banish Ghost and Goblin' David Clark, Rubén Jarazo Álvarez, 2010-07-16 This book presents a series of essays on some of the most challenging issues which are facing Irish Studies scholars in the twenty first century It aims to provide a variety of views on topics such as gender media the North and the revision of traditional approaches to Irish studies as seen by a number of scholars at the end of the first decade of the third millennium The breadth of scope is justified by the dynamic growth of the field over the last decade and points to the diverse academic and national backgrounds of the authors of the chapters and the enthusiasm with which the cultural concerns of the island of Ireland are tackled in other countries Writers from Austria Brazil Canada Germany and Spain provide original viewpoints on Irish topics which are as bold as they are refreshing The awareness of the unique situation of Ireland and her cultural practices has provided a scenario in which interest in the literature art film and other cultural manifestations is great and it is hoped that this volume will play a part in stimulating debate about some of the fascinating areas of Irish cultural matters discussed herein and will provide a useful work of reference for anyone interested in the rich and ample field of Irish Studies

Sub-versions Ciaran Ross, 2010 From Swift's repulsive shit flinging Yahoos to Beckett's dying but never quite dead moribunds Irish literature has long been perceived as being synonymous with subversion and all forms of subversiveness But what constitutes a subversive text or a subversive writer in twenty first century Ireland The essays in this volume set out to redefine and rethink the subversive potential of modern Irish literature Crossing three central genres one common denominator running through these essays whether dealing with canonical writers like Yeats Beckett and Flann O'Brien or lesser known contemporary writers like Sebastian Barry or Robert McLiam Wilson is the continual questioning of Irish identity Irishness going from its colonial paradigm and stereotype of the subaltern in MacGill to its uneasy implications for gender representation in the contemporary novel and the contemporary drama A subsidiary theme inextricably linked to the identity problematic is that of exile and its radical heritage for all Irish writing irrespective of its different genres Sub Versions offers a cross cultural and trans national response to the expanding interest in Irish and postcolonial studies by bringing together specialists from different national cultures and scholarly contexts Ireland Britain France and Central Europe The order of the essays is by genre This study is aimed both at the general literary reader and anyone particularly interested in Irish Studies The Art

Of Life Paul Durcan, 2011-01-18 In The Art of Life Paul Durcan takes us around County Mayo in his filthy two door bottle green Opel Astra stopping off at Westport and Achill Island where he declares himself to be globally sad but locally glad Next he travels east to Dublin to hold in his arms his newborn granddaughter and thence to Tuscany Poland and Japan Along the way he reflects upon parental pride the aches and pains of old age the trim bottoms of snooker players the wisdom of ex wives and dogs on Sandymount Strand while introducing us to a host of colourful characters including a bishop a roofer a milkman a priest and an unmarried mother Is there an art of living or is life a work of art This magnificent collection originally published on Paul Durcan's sixtieth birthday reveals one of Ireland's most successful and popular poets at the height of his powers and continuing to challenge amuse and delight The Laughter of Mothers Paul Durcan, 2011-01-18

Thank you O golden mother For giving me a life says Paul Durcan in this brilliant new collection a poignant tribute to the first woman I ever knew Sheila MacBride came from a political family her uncle John MacBride was executed in 1916 for his part in the Easter Uprising but when Sheila married into the black red roaring fighting Durcans of Mayo she was obliged to give up a promising legal career These poems commemorate his mother as Paul Durcan remembers her playing golf reading Tolstoy and initiating him in the magic of the cinema He recalls her compassion and loyalty when he was committed to a mental hospital in adolescence and how she endured the ordeal of her old age Durcan also muses upon the beauty of Greek women and questions our need for newspapers and the new religion of golf He is beguiled by a beggar woman enraged by a young man picking his nose on the Dublin Sligo commuter train and gets into difficulty at the security gate of Dublin airport

John MacBride Donal Fallon, 2015-10-12 Major John MacBride who was Born in Westport County Mayo in 1868 was a household name in Ireland when many of the leaders of the Easter Rising were still relatively unknown figures As part of the Irish Brigade a band of nationalists fighting against the British in the Second Boer War MacBride's name featured in stories in the Freeman's Journal and Arthur Griffith's United Irishman The Major went on to travel across the United States

lecturing audiences on the blow struck against the British Empire in South Africa His marriage to Maud Gonne described as Ireland's Joan of Arc led to further notoriety Their subsequent bitter separation involved some of the most senior figures in Irish nationalism MacBride was dismissed by William Butler Yeats as a drunken vainglorious lout Donal Fallon attempts to unravel the complexities of the man and his life and what led him to fight in Jacob's factory in 1916 John MacBride was executed in Kilmainham Gaol on 5 May 1916 two days before his forty eighth birthday
