Paul Kane Artist:

Paul Kane's Great Nor-West Diane F. Eaton, Sheila Urbanek, 1997-03 This beautifully designed and richly illustrated book recreates Paul Kane's heroic 1845-48 journey from the Great Lakes to the Pacific coast and brings to life the people, places and events he encountered. He returned to Toronto with some 500 field sketches which he used as the basis for oil paintings depicting scenes of Indian life. Illustrated with a wide selection of the field sketches as well as his oil paintings, this book reintroduces a remarkable artist to a modern audience. This fascinating text helps us to understand a world now lost to us. It helps to preserve cultures and peoples swallowed up in the western migrations in both the United States and Canada. It takes us into the soul of its subject. Salem Statesman Journal Paul Kane, Paul Kane, the Artist Kenneth R. Lister, 2010 This study of the ROM's Paul Kane collection has been complemented by Kane images from other collections including those of the Stark Museum of Art, Library and Archives Canada and the Art Gallery of Ontario and by artifacts from the Manitoba Museum where such images and artifacts relate to the ROM paintings. Foreword Paul Kane's Frontier ; Including Wanderings of an Artist Among the Indians of North America by Paul Kane Paul Kane, 1971 Paul Kane Mary Lile Benham, 1977 Paul Kane's Frontier Paul Kane, Amon Carter Museum of Western Art, National Gallery of Canada, 1971 In the 1840s Paul Kane travelled the far reaches of the North American West from the Great Lakes along the fur trade routes to the coast, sketching a visual record of the Indian cultures of that vast area. With the publication of this study of his life and career, Kane emerges as a major figure among North American artists of the 19th century. Hundreds of his sketches are examined together for the first time. The range of his subjects offers important visual documentation for the story of the North American West. Paul Kane's Great Nor-West Sheila Urbanek, 2011-11-01 In this beautifully designed and richly illustrated book, Diane Eaton and Sheila Urbanek recreate Paul Kane's heroic journey across Canada and bring to life the people, places and events he experienced. Determined to document the lives and customs of the Indians of the Northwest, Paul Kane set out in 1845 to cross the continent with no companions but his portfolio and a box of paints, his gun and a stock of ammunition. Travelling via the Hudson's Bay Company fur brigade routes, he made his way from the Great Lakes to the Pacific coast and back again. When he returned to Toronto in the fall of 1848, he brought back some 500 field sketches as well as a remarkable collection of Indian curiosities which he used as raw material for one hundred oil paintings depicting scenes of Indian life. While the carefully executed oil paintings are deliberately romanticized images of the west, the original field sketches convey Kane's immediate impressions and offer tantalizing glimpses of what he describes as the wild scenes amongst which he strayed almost alone. A fascinating complement to the sketches is contained in a small diary Kane kept while on his journey: brief and plainspoken, these entries were jotted down in his own idiosyncratic spelling and punctuation. Illustrated with a wide selection of the field sketches as well as his better known oil paintings, this book reintroduces this remarkable artist to a modern audience. Paul Kane's frontier John Russell Harper, 1971 Paul Kane, Artist Bruce
