Great Pianists on Piano Playing Study Talks With Foremost Virtuosos James Francis Cooke, 2015-06-24 Excerpt from Great Pianists on Piano Playing Study Talks With Foremost Virtuosos The father of a young woman who was preparing to become a virtuoso once applied to a famous musical educator for advice regarding the future career of his daughter I want her to become one of the greatest pianists America has ever produced he said She has talent good health unlimited ambition a good general education and she is industrious The educator thought for awhile and then said It is very likely that your daughter will be successful in her chosen field but the amount of grinding study she will be obliged to undergo to meet the towering standards of modern pianism is awful to contemplate In the end she will have the flattery of the multitude and let us hope some of their dollars as well In return she may have to sacrifice many of the comforts and pleasures which women covet The more successful she is the more of a nomad she must become She will know but few days for years when she will not be compelled to practice for hours She becomes a kind of chattel of the musical public She will be harassed by ignorant critics and perhaps annoyed by unreliable managers About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Great Pianists Speak for Themselves Elyse Mach,1980 Great Pianists on Piano Playing James Francis Cooke,1917
