The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a Modern First Editions, Private new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Press Books, Important Books in Literature and Art, Voyages and Travels Maggs Bros, 1929 The Portrait in Fiction of the Romantic Period Joe Bray, 2016-05-26 Beginning with the premise that the portrait was undergoing a shift in both form and function during the Romantic age Joe Bray examines how these changes are reflected in the fiction of writers such as Maria Edgeworth Jane Austen Sir Walter Scott Elizabeth Hamilton and Amelia Opie Bray considers portraiture in a broad sense as encompassing caricature and the miniature as well as the classic portraits of Sir Joshua Reynolds and others He argues that the portrait in fiction often functions not as a transparent index to character or as a means of producing a straightforward likeness but rather as a cue for misreading and a sign of the slipperiness and subjectivity of interpretation The book is concerned with more than simply the appearance of portraits in Romantic fiction however More broadly The Portrait in Fiction of the Romantic Period investigates how the language of portraiture pervades the novel in this period and how the two art forms exert mutual stylistic influence on each other Poole's Index to Periodical Literature: Rev. ed., pt. 1, Poole's Index to Periodical Literature: 1802-1881 William Frederick Poole, 1882 A-J, 1802-1881. pt. 2, K-Z ,1882 Poole's Index to Periodical Literature: pt. 2.
