Portraits Of Those I Love:

The Poetical Works of Thomas Moore, Etc. [With a Portrait.] Thomas Moore, 1853 A Portrait of Love Barbara Cartland, 2015-01-01 How can beautiful young Fedora Colwyn and her ailing father be on the verge of starvation when the walls of their run down home are hung with a magnificent collection of paintings by the great Masters Alexander Colwyn is renowned as the nation s greatest restorer of pictures and his valuable works of art are in trust for future generations and so cannot be sold Fedora is desperate not knowing where to turn or how to restore her beloved father to health with virtually no money but she has a loyal ally in Jim who has looked after the family for many years So when the Earl of Heversham invites her father to restore the pictures in his famous collection at Heversham Castle but knows that her father is too proud to accept payment and that he is too ill to do very much she will undertake most of the restoration work herself She takes him to Heversham Castle intending to accept payment without telling him about it There she meets the handsome Earl and falls helplessly in love only to find that a conceited and treacherous Society beauty and a dark family secret stand in the way of their love But when she is embroiled in a sinister murder plot her life as well as her love is at stake Love's Portrait Anna Lerner, 2019-04-16 Newly appointed art curator Molly Goode is committed to diversifying her museum s collection When Georgina Wright the museum s aloof benefactor asks for Molly s help in identifying the provenance of a 19th century portrait of social activist Josephine Brancaster Molly welcomes the opportunity even if it means spending time with the standoffish financier But passions soon flare as the women uncover the heartbreaking story of doomed lesbian love behind the watercolor painted by Josephine s lover Edith Hewitt As their love blossoms Molly is determined to display Edith s portrait of Josephine and to tell their story in the museum but she needs the influential Georgina to help convince the board When an unforeseen twist in the painting s provenance forces Georgina to confront her own painful past will history repeat itself or can Molly and Georgina s love prevail Portraits of God Allan Coppedge, 2009-09-20 What is God like Answering this is the great quest of human existence Because God is so different from us we struggle to describe him While doctrinal statements about God certainly have their place in Christian understanding the Bible more often uses God s actions and roles to help us know him better Indeed some of the most helpful insights in Scripture arise when God is compared to something else a rock an eagle or a tower And many human metaphors metaphors taken from the world of actions and relationships bring us even closer to understanding of God In Portraits of God Allan Coppedge suggests we look carefully at God as our Father Redeemer King Judge Priest and Creator These portraits taken together give us an understanding of the Holy One for which no single category is adequate These images work their way through the whole of Scripture They are the doorway allowing us into the mysteries of God s very being In Portraits of God Coppedge offers a comprehensive survey picturing a God who wants to be known personally and who has profoundly communicated himself Coppedge finds the inexhaustible nature of God to be one of holiness reflected in and best described by the language of diverse roles Approaching God in this way transforms us as churches and individuals to reflect God's own holy character. This is a book for students, pastors, and churchgoers alike. Anyone desiring to know more deeply and wholly the Christian God revealed in the Bible will find in Portraits of God a treasure of scholarship and truth. How can we find out the truth hidden in the Tabernacle? Only by knowing the gospel of the water and the Spirit, the real substance of the Tabernacle, can we correctly understand and know the answer to this question. In fact, the blue, purple, and scarlet thread and the fine woven linen manifested in the gate of the Tabernacle's court show us the works of Jesus Christ in the New Testament's time that have saved the mankind. In this way, the Old Testament's Word of the Tabernacle and the Word of the New Testament are closely and definitely related to each other, like fine woven linen. But unfortunately, this truth has been hidden for a long time to every truth seeker in Christianity. Coming to this earth, Jesus Christ was baptized by John and shed His blood on the Cross. Without understanding and believing in the gospel of the water and the Spirit, none of us can ever find out the truth revealed in the Tabernacle. We must now learn this truth of the Tabernacle and believe in it. We all need to realize and believe in the truth manifested in the blue, purple, and scarlet thread and the fine woven linen of the gate of the Tabernacle's court.

The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser Connie Houser, 2007-10-05

The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a book about Connie and Jim Houser's passion for art and each other, as well as for living and family. It is a dialogue about their adventures in pursuing those loves and achieving recognition for their accomplishments. In 2008, the book garnered FIRST PLACE in the DIY California Book Fest and HONORABLE MENTIONS in A DOZEN BOOK FESTS, including the New England Book Fest and the LONDON ENGLAND book fest. It is a readable visual delight. There is a profound degree of suchness or Zen quality in Jim Houser's paintings, as well as a lyricism not unlike the clear, concise resonance of Robert Frost's shorter verse. Those essentials are shown in the almost forty paintings photographed for The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser.

The imagined and inventive device and use of letters or messages in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser swiftly conveys the actual events in Jim and Connie Houser's lives. The creative partners are portrayed in a rapidly moving dialogue that involves the reader in artist's competitions, art gallery shows, foreign and domestic travel, family life, and an understanding of the profession of producing a fine work of art in modern times. The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser explains that a fine work of art is very different from the remainder of artistic endeavor. Fine art engages the viewer in a visual dialogue that distinguishes it and bonds the viewer in love or hate but never mediocrity. Not a run-of-the-mill coffee-table book, The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser is a charming and accurate account of the modern-day artist's life while creating works of art and bringing them to the public's attention. The story encompasses the tragedies and the successes in the Houser's lives and their interaction with others. Written by the artist's wife, Connie Houser herself, an awarded artist and writer, it spans the artists' relationship thus far and offers insights into their creative work. The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser follows the artists' creative work accomplished during their hectic everyday existence. The same full lives of having a family, a home, and a job to pay bills necessary today to most people. Although the letters themselves are an imaginative artistic device to enliven the book, the events are true. Not satisfied to just get by, they made career choices that would eventually make them both candidates for inclusion in the prestigious Marquis Who's Who editions of art literature. America and the World. Jim has been represented in those volumes for fifteen years, and Connie joined the ranks in 2004. Photographs of his paintings will also appear in the 2008-2009 Who's Who in American Art. Artist's gallery. Their ability to continue to work under conditions that might discourage others is made clear in The Letters Portrait of an Artist Jim Houser. Jim's profession is painting, and Connie's is writing and painting. The rest of their work, although they contributed much, enjoyed it, and performed with excellence, was done to pay the bills. Jim was a 30-year college professor and full-time family man. Connie organized family matters, taught part-time while writing for various publications and magazines, plus painting. The carousing hours were the working hours for their creative efforts because silence reigned. Their many travel adventures in the states and abroad guaranteed they played hard with the same energy and enthusiasms. When Jim began winning countless awards for his painting, he was invited to show at numerous exhibitions and in New York City galleries. They added these events, plus art show openings, to their already hectic schedule. Through it all, they managed a fulfilling family life while taking creative care of their parents and allowing them their desired home life.
