Kato, Ana Maria Martins, Jairo Nunes, 2023-04-06 Portuguese is the second most spoken Romance language in the world and due to recent interest in comparative syntax the literature on its syntax has increased exponentially resulting in exciting discoveries of a range of aspects that have hitherto been overlooked. This book provides a theoretically grounded overview of the major syntactic properties of Portuguese focusing on the differences between European and Brazilian Portuguese. It shows from a theoretical point of view how different syntactic properties are interconnected by comparing and contrasting the variances between pronominal and agreement systems null subjects null complements and word order. It also highlights how small differences in the specification of syntactic properties may yield quite different dialects. It introduces key theoretical points without technical jargon making the content accessible to specialist and non specialists alike. It is essential reading for both academic researchers and students of Portuguese language comparative syntax Romance linguistics and theoretical syntax. Minimalist Essays on Brazilian Portuguese Syntax Jairo

Nunes,2009 This collection of papers discusses some of the major syntactic properties of Brazilian Portuguese from a minimalist perspective The volume focuses on movement and empty category issues and brings new empirical material on a variety of topics null subjects and finite control possessive and existential constructions factive constructions relative clauses null objects and stress shift preposition duplication VP topicalization and ellipsis The book is of interest to a wide spectrum of linguists working on theoretical and comparative syntax
