To succeed in such an undertaking, and to do it without any belittling of theory or practice in either system discussed, is to accomplish a truly great intellectual feat. The Anglo-American system seems to emerge somewhat better than the Latin-American from these pages, but no ardent partisan of the latter system could take exception to any comments which are here presented. In fact, the adoption in Latin-American countries of some phases of Anglo-American legal practice, would make partisanship absurd.
