intellectually creative and focused despite living in conditions that are adverse or hostile to thought In brief they are working on ideas under fire This book is a survey of several momentous cases of philosophers and scientists working under fire Each chapter of Ideas Under Fire explores a particular case or set of related cases For each case contributors consider two questions How did the individual at the center of a particular moment of discovery overcome such formidable obstacles to leisure and conceptually abstract thought And how did adversity shape their thinking under fire Each chapter has been written by a specialist on its respective subject and the book covers every period of Western history All the chapters are written in an accessible style that is intended to appeal to both specialists and generalists Aqedah Jean-Pierre

Fortin, Heiko Schulz, 2025-01-27 The Aqedah i e the story of the binding of Isaac by Abraham is a core text in all three Abrahamic religions and has been widely discussed in Judaism Christianity and Islam for centuries It still represents an intellectual moral and spiritual challenge for anyone who claims to be able to link morality and faith in God in a reasonably comprehensible way The contributions in this anthology address this challenge from philosophical theological and literary perspectives by considering exemplary problems epochs and authors pertaining to all three Abrahamic religions The first part contains seven contributions exploring the epistemic and or philosophical dimensions of the Aqedah The second part contains nine essays on the history of the interpretation of the Aqedah from Israelite Jewish Christian and Islamic perspectives The three texts in the third and final part discuss narratological issues and reflections of the problem within modern Hebrew literature The volume complements and expands the existing scholarship on the subject above all through its consistently interreligious approach and the inclusion of current philosophical and literary sources and debates The Fortnightly, 1866 The Fortnightly Review, 1866 The Fortnightly Review George Henry Lewes, 2022-01-19 Reprint of the original first published in 1866 The Cambridge Modern History Sir Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, 1934 The Reformation Sir Adolphus William Ward, 1904 The Cambridge Modern History Sir Adolphus William Ward, George Walter Prothero, Sir Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, 1907 A history of political and religious persecutions, by F. Garrido and C.B. Cayley Fernando GARRIDO (and CAYLEY (Charles Bagot)), 1876 Spinoza to Schleiermacher Otto Pflieger, 1886

The Importance of Non-Christian Religions in the Philosophy of Pierre Bayle Marta García-Alonso, John Christian Laursen, 2025-01-22 This book offers a fresh perspective on early modern philosophy by highlighting Pierre Bayle s engagement with non Christian sources If our major political ethical and epistemic doctrines were solely rooted in Christian genealogies it would seem necessary to include Christianity in the European Constitution However this book reveals a different story The anthropological insights gained from encounters with other lands not only enriched the ethical and political discussions of philosophers historians and literati but also paralleled the incorporation of empirical data from these regions into fields like medicine botany or navigation These accounts became the building blocks for ethical and political thought a wellspring of new ideas thereby making the understanding of other cultures and religions pivotal in reflecting upon the specificities of Europe Pierre Bayle's work exemplifies this transformative influence

The Life and Thought of Lev Karsavin Dominic Rubin, 2013 At last Russia has begun to speak in a truly original voice So said Anatoly Vaneev a Soviet dissident who became Karsavin's disciple in the Siberian gulag where the philosopher spent his last two years The book traces the unusual trajectory of this inspiring voice Karsavin started his career as Russia's brightest historian of Catholic mysticism however his radical methods which were far ahead of their time shocked his conservative colleagues The shock continued when Karsavin turned to philosophy writing flamboyant and dense essays in a polyphonic style which both Marxists and religious traditionalists found provocative There was no let up after he was expelled by Lenin from Soviet Russia in exile he became a leading theorist in the Eurasian political movement combining Orthodox theology with a left wing political orientation Finally Karsavin found stability when he was invited to teach history in Lithuania there he spent twenty years reworking his philosophy before suffering the German and Soviet invasions of his new homeland and then deportation and death Clearing away misunderstandings and putting the work and life in context this book shows how Karsavin made an original contribution to European philosophy inter religious dialogue Orthodox and Catholic theology and the understanding of history
