Colonial Culture in France since the Revolution Pascal Blanchard, Sandrine Lemaire, Nicolas Bancel, Dominic Thomas, 2013-12-02 This landmark collection by an international group of scholars and public intellectuals represents a major reassessment of French colonial culture and how it continues to inform thinking about history memory and identity This reexamination of French colonial culture provides the basis for a revised understanding of its cultural political and social legacy and its lasting impact on postcolonial immigration the treatment of ethnic minorities and national identity

Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess, 2008-01-01 Despite being central to the project of postcolonialism the concept of resistance has received only limited theoretical examination Writers such as Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Homi K Bhabha have explored instances of revolt opposition or subversion but there has been insufficient critical analysis of the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to liberation or social and cultural transformation In Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess looks to redress this critical imbalance Jefferess argues that interpreting resistance as these critics have done as either acts of opposition or practices of subversion is insufficient He discerns in the existing critical literature an alternate paradigm for postcolonial politics and through close analyses of the work of Mohandas Gandhi and the South African reconciliation project Postcolonial Resistance seeks to redefine resistance to reconnect an analysis of colonial discourse to material structures of colonial exploitation and inequality Engaging works of postcolonial fiction literary criticism historiography and cultural theory Jefferess conceives of resistance and reconciliation as dependent upon the transformation of both the colonial subject and the antagonistic nature of colonial power In doing so he reframes postcolonial conceptions of resistance violence and liberation thus inviting future scholarship in the field to reconsider past conceptualizations of political power and opposition to that power
