Strategic Excellence in Post-Digital Ecosystems: A B2C

Perspective Edin Güçlü sözer, Mustafa Emre Civelek, Murat Çemberci, 2018-01-31 The basic production of the digital economy is knowledge As it becomes more important traditional factors like labor and capital become less so As technological innovation changes the nature of employment the conversion of labor to consumption becomes increasingly difficult E commerce is the most important driving force of the digital economy Using technology and information networks effectively allows brands or companies to effect rapid changes in competitive markets The emergence of neo consumers calls for a higher order of information exchange and interaction Companies must reassess their complete business processes in a holistic way to ensure market prominence in an economy driven by social networks and communication This book deals with the new concepts determining the future path of the digital economy and aims at providing a new perspective to the field

Postdigital Play and Global Education Kerry Dixon, Karin Murris, Joanne Peers, Theresa Giorza, Chonique Lawrence, 2024-09-24 Postdigital Play and Global Education Reconfiguring Research is a re turn to a large scale international project on children s digital play Adopting postqualitative and posthumanist theories research practices are reconfigured all the way down from what counts as data tools instruments transcription research sites researchers to notions of responsibility and accountability in qualitative research Through a series of vignettes involving complex human and more than human collaborators e g GoPros octopus avatars diaries sackball LEGO bricks the authors challenge who and what can be playful and creative across contexts in the global north and global south The diffractive methodology enacted interrupts Western developmental notions of agency that are dominant in research involving young children The concept of postdigital offers fresh opportunities to disrupt dominant understandings of children s play Play emerges as an enigmatic and shape shifting human and more than human agentic force that operates beyond digital non digital online offline binaries By attuning to race gender age and language invisible and colonising aspects of postdigital worldings the authors show how global education research can be reimaged through a posthumanist decentering of children without erasure Postdigital Play and Global Education puts into practice Karen Barad s agential realism but also a range of postdevelopmental and posthumanist writings from diverse fields The book will be of particular interest to researchers looking for guidance to enact agential realist and posthumanist philosophies in research involving young children Post-digital Electronics Francis R. Pettit, 1982

Constructing Postdigital Research Petar Jandrić, Alison MacKenzie, Jeremy Knox, 2023-08-01 This book delves into the various methods of constructing postdigital research with a particular focus on the postdigital dynamic of inclusion and exclusion as well as the interplay between method and emancipation By answering three fundamental questions the relationship between postdigital theory and research practice the relationship between method and emancipation and how to construct emancipatory postdigital research the book serves as a comprehensive resource for those interested in conducting postdigital research Constructing Postdigital Research Method and Emancipation is complemented by Postdigital Research Genealogies Challenges and Future Perspectives also edited by Petar Jandrić Alison MacKenzie and Jeremy Knox which explores these questions in theory Postdigital Storytelling Spencer Jordan, 2019-10-16 Postdigital Storytelling offers a groundbreaking re evaluation of one of the most dynamic and innovative areas of creativity today digital storytelling Central to this reassessment is the emergence of metamodernism as our dominant cultural condition This volume argues that metamodernism has brought with it a new kind of creative modality in which the divide between the digital and non digital is no longer binary and oppositional Jordan explores the emerging poetics of this inherently transmedial and hybridic postdigital condition through a detailed analysis of hypertextual locative mobile and collaborative storytelling With a focus on twenty first century storytelling including print based and nondigital art forms the book ultimately widens our understanding of the modes and forms of metamodernist creativity Postdigital Storytelling is of value to anyone engaged in creative writing within the arts and humanities This includes scholars students and practitioners of both physical and digital texts as well as those engaged in interdisciplinary practice based research in which storytelling remains a primary approach

Reinventing the Postal Sector in an Electronic Age Michael A. Crew, Paul R. Kleindorfer, 2011-01-01 This compilation of original essays by an international cast of economists regulators and industry practitioners analyzes some of the major issues now facing postal and delivery services throughout the world as competition from information and communication technologies ICT has increased Competition has become increasingly important in the postal sector for some time in the form of alternative entrants providing mail delivery However the competition from ICT in the form of email and instant messaging the Internet Facebook and other forms of social networking and portable wireless devices such as the iPad and Kindle may be even more significant Mail volumes are falling and the economies of scale that have made possible daily deliveries to every address are being eroded This book assesses volume these declines resulting from this so called eSubstitution and looks at the ways the postal sector can adapt to the rapid changes resulting from ICT The impact of electronic invoicing on transactions mail and the impact on bulk mail of electronic forms of advertising are examined Strategies including pricing and access policies are discussed in the context of the increasing impact of ICT A rethinking of the role of mail in an electronic age is taking place and this book provides the cutting edge of this rethinking and the attempts of POs to reinvent themselves while continuing to meet the public's expectation of continuing ubiquitous daily deliveries of traditional mail products

Undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers in regulation competition law innovation and public sector economics along with institutional libraries and industry professionals will find this volume informative and useful

Metamodernism and the Postdigital in the Contemporary Novel Spencer Jordan, 2024-10-03 Drawing on a range of authors that includes Zadie Smith Sally Rooney Ben Lerner Ali Smith Tom McCarthy Jennifer Egan and Kazuo Ishiguro this book provides an innovative and original analysis of the interdependencies between digital technology and metamodernism through a detailed study of the contemporary novel We are currently living through a period of profound rupture in which the way the world is perceived is undergoing significant change Just as the interplay between capitalism and technology hastened the evolution of modernism and postmodernism then so too are those same forces now taking us into uncharted waters In an increasingly fragile world in which the very existence of humankind is threatened it is vital that we begin to understand this new landscape

Bioinformational Philosophy and Postdigital Knowledge Ecologies Michael A. Peters, Petar Jandrić, Sarah Hayes, 2022-04-22 The book presents a cross disciplinary overview of critical issues at the intersections of biology information and society Based on theories of bioinformationalism viral modernity the postdigital condition and others this book explores two inter related questions Which new knowledge ecologies are emerging Which philosophies and research approaches do they require The book argues that the 20th century focus on machinery needs to be replaced at least partially by a focus on a better understanding of living systems and their interactions with technology at all scales from viruses through to human beings to the Earth's ecosystem This change of direction cannot be made by a simple relocation of focus and or funding from one discipline to another In our age of the Anthropocene human and planetary biology cannot be thought of without digital technology and society Today's curious bioinformational mix of blurred and messy relationships between physics and biology old and new media humanism and posthumanism knowledge capitalism and bio informational capitalism defines the postdigital condition and creates new knowledge ecologies The book presents scholarly research defining new knowledge ecologies built upon emerging forms of scientific communication big data deluge and opacity of algorithmic operations Many of these developments can be approached using the concept of viral modernity which applies to viral technologies codes and ecosystems in information publishing education and emerging knowledge journal systems It is within these overlapping theories and contexts that this book explores new bioinformational philosophies and postdigital knowledge ecologies The Bloomsbury Handbook of Electronic Literature Joseph Tabbi, 2017-11-30 Winner of the 2017 N Katherine Hayles Award for Criticism of Electronic Literature A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2018 The digital age has had a profound impact on literary culture with new technologies opening up opportunities for new forms of literary art from hyperfiction to multi media poetry and narrative driven games Bringing together leading scholars and artists from across the world The Bloomsbury Handbook of Electronic Literature is the first authoritative reference handbook to the field Crossing disciplinary boundaries this book explores the foundational theories of the field contemporary artistic practices debates and controversies surrounding such key concepts as canonicity world systems narrative and the digital humanities and historical developments and new media contexts of contemporary electronic literature Including guides to major publications in the field The Bloomsbury Handbook of Electronic Literature is an essential resource for scholars of contemporary culture in the digital era District 9: Johannesburg as Nostalgic Dystopia Landi Raubenheimer, 2024-12-23

The film District 9 made waves as an allegory of apartheid on the big screen but it has not yet been given its rightful place as a landmark depiction within broader visual cultural studies of Johannesburg and cities in the Global South In this book Landi Raubenheimer argues that District 9's portrayal of Johannesburg reverberates within a larger body of representations of the city collectively shaping a unique visual idiom for the post apartheid city as nostalgic dystopia Delving deeply into District 9 Raubenheimer brings to light the fascination that images of the city as nostalgic dystopia has held for filmmakers photographers viewers and lovers of Johannesburg alike Electronic Literature in Latin America Claire Taylor, 2019-11-22 This book explores one of the most exciting new developments in the literary field to emerge over recent decades the growing body of work known as electronic literature comprising literary works that take advantage of the capabilities of digital technologies in their enactment Focussing on six leading authors within Latin America whose works have proved pioneering in the development of these new literary forms the book proposes a three fold approach of aesthetics technologic and ethics as a framework for analyzing digital literature
