Postmodern Music, Postmodern Listening

Jonathan D. Kramer, 2016-08-11 Kramer was one of the most visionary musical thinkers of the second half of the 20th century In his The Time of Music he approached the idea of the many different ways that time itself is articulated musically This book has become influential among composers theorists and aestheticians Now in his almost completed text written before his untimely death in 2004 he examines the concept of postmodernism in music Kramer created a series of markers by which we can identify postmodern works He suggests that the postmodern project actually creates a radically different relationship between the composer and listener Written with wit precision and at times playfully subverting traditional tropes to make a very serious point about this difference Postmodern Music Postmodern Listening leads us to a strongly grounded intellectual basis for stylistic description and an intuitive sensibility of what postmodernism in music entails Postmodern Music Postmodern Listening is an examination of how musical postmodernism is not just a style or movement but a fundamental shift in the relationship between composer and listener The result is a multifaceted and provocative look at a critical turning point in music history one whose implications we are only just beginning to understand

A Primer on Postmodernism

Stanley J. Grenz, 1996-02-06 From the academy to pop culture our society is in the throes of change rivaling the birth of modernity out of the decay of the Middle Ages We are now moving from the modern to the postmodern era But what is postmodernism How did it arise What characterizes the postmodern ethos What is the postmodern mind and how does it differ from the modern mind Who are its leading advocates Most important of all what challenges does this cultural shift present to the church which must proclaim the gospel to the emerging postmodern generation Stanley Grenz here charts the postmodern landscape He shows the threads that link art and architecture philosophy and fiction literary theory and television He shows how the postmodern phenomenon has actually been in the making for a century and then introduces readers to the gurus of the postmodern mind set What he offers here is truly an indispensable guide for understanding today's culture

21st Century Perspectives on Music, Technology, and Culture R. Purcell, R. Randall, 2016-04-08 This collection

presents a contemporary evaluation of the changing structures of music delivery and enjoyment Exploring the confluence of music consumption burgeoning technology and contemporary culture this volume focuses on issues of musical communities and the politics of media From Text to Hypertext Silvio Gaggi, 2015-07-27 It is a tenet of postmodern writing that the subject the self is unstable fragmented and decentered One useful way to examine this principle is to look at how the subject has been treated in various media in the premodern modern and postmodern eras Silvio Gaggi pursues this strategy in From Text to Hypertext analyzing the issue of subject construction and deconstruction in selected examples of visual art literature film and electronic media Gaggi concentrates on a few paradigmatic works in each chapter he contrasts van Eyck's Wedding of Arnolfini with the photography of Cindy Sherman and Barbara Kruger examines fiction that centers on an elusive subject in works by Conrad Faulkner and Calvino and explores the ability of such films as Coppola's One from the Heart and Altman's The Player to emancipate the subject through cinematography and editing In considering electronic media Gaggi takes his argument to an entirely new level He focuses on computer controlled media specifically examples of hypertextual fiction by Michael Joyce and Stuart Moulthrop Besides recognizing how the computer has enabled artists to create works of fiction in which readers themselves become decentered Gaggi also observes the impact of literature created on computer networks where even the limitations of CD ROM are lifted and the notion of individual authorship may for all practical purposes be lost

American Graffiti Margo Thompson, 2012-05-08 The first appearances of graffiti tags signatures on New York City subway trains in the early 1970s were discarded as incidents of vandalism or the rough violent cries of the ignorant and impoverished However as the graffiti movement progressed and tags became more elaborate and ubiquitous genuine artists emerged whose unique creativity and unconventional media captured the attention of the world Featuring gallery and street works by several contributors to the graffiti scene this book offers insight into the lives of urban artists describes their relationship with the bourgeois art world and discusses their artistic motivation with unprecedented sensitivity

Between Transcendence and Historicism Brian K. Etter, 2006-06-01 Between Transcendence and Historicism explores Hegel s aesthetics within the larger context of the tradition of theoretical reflection to emphasize its unique ability to account for traditional artistic practice Arguing that the concept of the ethical is central to Hegel s philosophy of art Brian K Etter examines the poverty of modernist aesthetic theories in contrast to the affirmation by Hegel of the necessity of art He focuses on the individual arts in greater detail than is normally done for Hegel s aesthetics and considers how the dual constitution of the ethical nature of art can be justified both within Hegel s own philosophical system and in terms of its relevance to the dilemmas of modern social life Etter concludes that the arts have a responsibility to represent the goodness of existence the ideal and the ethical life in dignifying the metaxological realm through their beauty Reaffirming the Importance of Beauty Sonja Zuba, 2023-08-03 This book argues that beauty challenges us to find meaning in its object to make critical comparisons and to examine our own lives and emotions in the light of what we find. The book examines the importance of beauty not only in terms of art and aesthetics but also within the context of the current post religious age. It engages with the philosophical works of Roger Scruton and William Desmond and endorses and addresses many important discussions surrounding art and beauty found in the works of Plato Kant Hegel Schopenhauer Nietzsche and Heidegger. It also takes seriously the role of poetry and painting to explore the theme that runs through this research: the idea that beauty is rationally found. Meditations on the art of Manet Van Gogh Delacroix Rembrandt and other artists together with the voices of several poets show us that beauty cannot be reduced to aesthetics only. Irreducible to philosophy religion or aesthetics the notion of beauty is deeply examined in all its forms and spiritual meaning. Teaching Art in a Postmodern World Lee Emery, 2002 Collection of essays by Australian and English art educators discussing the transition from modernist to postmodernist art education. Teachers reflect on changes in their own teaching and discuss how they introduce students to contemporary art and plan a curriculum. Includes photos and references. Simultaneously published in PDF and paperback formats. Editor is Associate Professor in arts education at the University of Melbourne and is an honorary life member of the Australian Institute for Art Education. "Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939" Linda Steer, 2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation. This study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s: La Révolution surréaliste edited by André Breton, Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others. The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re contextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate. The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot's clinic at the Salpêtrière hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper's last victim radically transformed into a work of art. Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical. Her study shows that the act of removal and re framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning: an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s. Cultures of Commerce E. Brown, C. Gudis, M. Moskowitz, 2016-10-19 While historians have explored the impact on workers of changes in American business the broader impact on other cultural forms and vice versa has not been widely studied. This anthology contributes to the debate at the intersection of business history and the study of cultural forms ranging from material to visual culture to literature.
