A Postcard History of the Passenger Liner Christopher Deakes, 2023-10-01 From around 1880 for almost a hundred years shipowners commissioned a wealth of paintings that depicted their magnificent liners as well as the routes they travelled their exotic destinations and life onboard These paintings rich in imagination and atmosphere appeared on postcards and posters of the day and were used to advertise the companies and their ships and so was born a whole genre that produced tens of thousands of paintings which formed a wonderful record of the great era of the passenger liner In 1900 there were over thirty shipping companies operating passenger liners across the North Atlantic Other oceans were similarly served But now with just a few exceptions the companies and their liners have disappeared along with the art they once inspired Little remains to recall this aspect of our maritime past except the postcards and they tell an evocative story of the vanished world of elegant ships and leisurely travel of social and political times much changed by the history of the past century Here brought vividly to life in more than 500 colourful postcards are the ships on which so many of our predecessors sailed as emigrants soldiers administrators or simply as tourists in days long past These cards which are now highly collectable show how steamships developed over the years but they are also a fine tribute to the artists who painted them This volume also includes a glossary of some 170 illustrators which forms an important reference section and advice on collecting

Postcards Lydia Pyne, 2021-10-13 A global exploration of postcards as artifacts at the intersection of history science technology art and culture Postcards are usually associated with banal holiday pleasantries but they are made possible by sophisticated industries and institutions from printers to postal services When they were invented postcards established what is now taken for granted in modern times the ability to send and receive messages around the world easily and inexpensively Fundamentally they are about creating personal connections links between people places and beliefs Lydia Pyne examines postcards on a global scale to understand them as artifacts that are at the intersection of history science technology art and culture In doing so she shows how postcards were the first global social network and also here in the twenty first century how postcards are not yet extinct Sea Breezes, 2007 Boat Trains: The English Channel & Ocean Liner Specials Martyn Pring, 2021-01-18 A study of the specialty train including its history development and operation beginning at the end of the nineteenth century In many ways this title featuring the evolution of cross channel boat trains and the many dedicated services responsible for moving international passengers to and from trans Atlantic steamers is an extension of luxury railway travel But that s not the full story as it encapsulates more than 125 years of independent and organised tourism development At the end of the nineteenth century faster and more stable twin screw vessels replaced cross channel paddlers resulting in a significant expansion in the numbers of day excursionists and short stay visitors heading to Belgium France and the Channel Islands Continental Europe as it had done since the end of the Napoleonic Wars beckoned introducing ideas of modern day mass tourism Numerous liners bestriding the globe were British domiciled Major ports became hives of commercial activity involving moving freight and mail as well as transporting all manner of travellers Not only was there intense competition for passenger traffic between the Old and New World and Britain's imperial interests greater numbers of well-heeled tourists headed off to warmer winter climes and also experimented with the novel idea of using ocean steamers as hotels to visit an array of diverse destinations Cruise tourism and the itinerary had arrived as Ocean Special boat trains became essential components of railway and port procedures Whilst some railway operations were dedicated to emigrant traffic continental and ocean liner boat trains were also synonymous with the most glamorous travel services ever choreographed by shipping lines and railway companies working closely in tandem This well-illustrated book explores the many functions of boat train travel This book should appeal to the rail fan the ship enthusiast the connoisseur of travel posters and those interested in the business of transportation I know of nowhere else one can find so much information on boat train operation in one book Well worth a read by anyone interested in the interconnectivity of different means of public transportation Charles H Bogart Steamship Historical Society of America The Mariner's Mirror Leonard George Carr Laughton, Roger Charles Anderson, William Gordon Perrin, 2006 Penang Postcard Collection 1899-1930s Salma Nasution Khoo, Malcolm Wade, 2003  Lydia Pyne, 2022-11-01 3 100 2021 IG 19 20 21 21 IG 19 20 19 20 A Century of Sea Travel Christopher Deakes, Tom Stanley, 2013-12-19 This handsome volume offers a lavishly illustrated journey back to the golden age of steam travel through first-hand accounts and images of the passengers Bruce Peter author of Ship Style A Century of Sea Travel is an eye-opening voyage through the golden years of the passenger steamship a voyage described by the very travelers who sailed on these magnificent engineering marvels In memoirs and letters home diaries and the backs of postcards the recorded experiences of every aspect of steamship travel are here relived from details of the ships the crew and fellow passengers to the food and entertainment on board to tales of romance accidents and disasters and of being dreadfully sick during storms at sea The writers were emigrants or colonial rulers men of letters young men seeking their fortune wives on their way to new homes abroad some were rich many were poor and escaping the hardship of downtrodden lives All had in common the experience of voyaging at sea Vividly brought to life by full color and black and white postcards travel posters promotional brochures fine art photographs maps luggage labels health inspection certificates and itineraries the authors have woven together word and image into a page-turning narrative that evocatively describes an age 1840-1950 now lost to time Ocean Liner Postcards in Marine Art, 1900-1945 Robert Wall, 1998 The cards provide an enduring record of the great age of intercontinental travel by sea This book gives a fascinating picture of a more leisured age before the advent of the jet airliner The Wildwoods: 1920-1970 Vincent Martino, 2007 The Wildwoods 1920-1970 follows a path of progress and preservation in a beach community situated along the Atlantic Ocean in historic Cape May County Starting out in the 1920s vintage postcards illustrate this shore town's transformation from a sleepy seaside resort into a summer vacation hot spot Look through a window into the past and see
