Postcard With 30 Postcards Postcards Bruno:

Postcards from the Trenches Irene Guenther, 2018-11-01 German art student Otto Schubert was 22 years old when he was drafted into the Great War. As the conflict unfolded, he painted a series of postcards that he sent to his sweetheart Irma. During the battles of Ypres and Verdun, Schubert filled dozens of military-issued 4 x 6 cards with vivid images depicting the daily realities and tragedies of war. Beautifully illustrated with full-color reproductions of his exquisite postcards as well as his wartime sketches, woodcuts, and two lithograph portfolios, Postcards from the Trenches is Schubert's war diary, love journal, and life story. His powerful artworks illuminate and document in a visual language the truths of war. Postcards from the Trenches offers the first full account of Otto Schubert, soldier-artist of the Great War, rising art star in the 1920s, prolific graphic artist and book illustrator, one of the degenerate artists defamed by the Nazis, and a man shattered by the Second World War and the Cold War. Created in the midst of enormous devastation, Schubert's haunting visual missives are as powerful and relevant today as they were a century ago. His postcards are both a young man's token of love and longing and a soldier's testimony of the Great War. Postcards from the Anthropocene. Benek Cincik, Tiago

Torres-Campos, 2022-04-22 Postcards from the Trenches Allyson Booth, 1996 She links for example the modernist representation of an unstable self to soldiers' familiarity with corpses, the modernist mistrust for fact to the competing nationalist discourses of August 1914, and the modernist description of buildings as having shaken off the past to a desire to forget the war. Booth argues that the dislocations of war often figure centrally in modernist forms even when the war itself seems peripheral to modernist content. We are Children Just the Same Marie Rút Křížková, Kurt Jiří Kotouč, Zdeněk

Ornest, 1995 An anthology of art, poetry, stories, and articles from Vedem, a weekly magazine secretly produced by young teenage Jewish boys incarcerated at the Czechoslovakian concentration camp Terezín during the years 1942-1944. Tahiti Beyond the Postcard Miriam Kahn, 2011-07-01 Winner of the 2013 ICAS Book Prize, Social Sciences. The Tahiti that most people imagine—white sand beaches, turquoise lagoons, and beautiful women—is a product of 18th-century European romanticism and persists today as the bedrock of Tahiti's tourism industry. This postcard image, however, masks a different reality. The dreams and desires that the tourism industry promotes distract from the medical nightmares and environmental destruction caused by France's 30-year nuclear testing program in French Polynesia. Tahitians see the burying of a bomb in their land as deeply offensive. For Tahitians, the land abounds with ancestral fertility and genealogical identity and is a source of physical and spiritual nourishment. These imagined and lived perspectives seem incompatible yet are intricately intertwined in the political economy of Tahiti. Beyond the Postcard engages with questions about the subtle but ubiquitous ways in which power entangles itself in place-related ways. Miriam Kahn uses interpretive frameworks of both Tahitian and European scholars, drawing upon ethnographic details that include ancient chants, picture postcards, antinuclear protests, popular song lyrics, and the legacy of Paul Gauguin's art to provide fresh perspectives on colonialism, tourism imagery, and the
