from Surfers Helen Garner, 1995 Helen Garner's short stories tease out life's dailiness to show the darkness underneath but also the possibilities of joy Postcards from Surfers Helen Garner, 1990-02 Postcards from Surfers by Helen Garner Pam Baker, 1986 The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years This is an throughout history Andrew Kahn explores the key characteristics of the short story He shows how its rise was intertwined with international print culture and discusses the essential techniques within this thriving literary genre as well as the ways in which it is constantly innovated even today By the Book Patrick Buckridge, Belinda McKay, 2007 By the Book is an indispensable history of the literature of Queensland from its establishment as a separate colony in the mid-nineteenth century through major economic political and cultural transformations to the beginning of the twenty first century Queensland figures in the Australian imagination as a frontier a place of wild landscapes and wilder politics but also as Australia's playground a soft tourist paradise of warm weather and golden beaches Based partly on real historical divergences from the rest of Australia these contradictory images have been questioned and scrutinised

A Writing Life

Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner's work Bernadette Brennan's A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner's forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner's archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books journals and correspondence of one of Australia's most beloved women of letters Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing literature and ethics She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections Just Words Australian Authors Writing for Justice UQP 2008 and Ethical Investigations Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics Vagabond 2008 She lives in Sydney Garner has always been a boundary crosser Refusing the constrictions of literary genre she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them She readily admits to a 'me' character in all her work That character is a carefully constructed self In her fiction she unsettles her readers' assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters most blatantly in Little Helen's Sunday Afternoon Habe Dank and The Spare Room In so doing she demonstrates the complexity of a constructed fictional self Billed as the first full length study of Garner's 40 years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Well who wouldn't want to read that Australian Bernadette Brennan's ingenious A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which gets around the subject's resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing as Garner herself does Susan Wyndham Best Books of 2017 Australian Book Review Brennan's depiction of Garner's fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone Joe Cinque's Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully Books Publishing Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice It is not a biography Garner was quite clear that she didn't want that but because Garner is so often present in her own writing it's inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book Mark Rubbo Readings Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner's work Big Issue The writing is clear measured and graceful throughout

The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward tracing Garner's development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push me pull you vagaries of love and junk through the perfection of The Children's Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room Sydney Morning Herald This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner's boundary crossing work Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner's work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned Australian Absorbing informative and engaging read Conversation Brennan examines both assumptions by tracing Garner's steps to becoming a full time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable Australian Book Review Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner's life literature and impact on Australia's cultural and socio political landscape She draws a more complex picture of one of our best known and most skilled writers than we've enjoyed in a full length volume before A Bigger Brighter World Probably my favourite book so far this year A marvellous tribute to one of Australia's great writers Mark Rubbo The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings Bernadette Brennan's first full length study of Helen Garner's work A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner's books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings A remarkably shrewd study of Garner's work knitted with a tender representation of her personal life Mascara Literary Review Brennan performs a kind of call for literature its criticism as well as creation Sydney Review of Books You might also include academic Bernadette Brennan's superb literary portrait of Garner A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which combines a close analysis of Garner's work with illuminating insights into her life Garner gave Brennan unprecedented access to her archives and spent long hours in conversation with her It shows Sydney Morning Herald Can't Put Down Titles for Summer A book for those who want to understand Garner's work more But it is also a book which makes clear the significant contribution Garner has made to Australian literature And in doing that it is itself a significant book Whispering Gums Sand In Our Souls Leone Huntsman, 2013-05-09 Images of the beach pervade Australian popular culture However the deeper significance of the experience of the beach and its influence on Australian culture generally have not yet been seriously explored How why and when did the beach become part of the Australian way of life In Sand in our Souls Leone Huntsman describes the forces and pressures that encouraged or impeded Australians enjoyment of sand and surf from early enjoyment of bathing through nearly a century of repressive restrictions to freedom won in the face of drawn out opposition The ways in which artists writers film makers and the advertising industry have depicted the beach are examined for the light they throw on the beach's significance She traces the development of a distinctively Australian way of being at the beach suggesting that the beach experience has been absorbed into our emerging culture and continues to shape it in subtle ways Huntsman's provocative arguments will stimulate debate on the concept of national identity appropriate for a new Australian century and promote a deeper understanding of an aspect of life in Australia that is cherished by many of those who live here

Australian Voices Ray Willbanks, 2014-05-02 Contemporary Australian fiction is attracting a world audience particularly in the United States where a growing readership eagerly awaits new works In Australian Voices Ray Willbanks goes beyond the books to their authors using sixteen interviews to reveal the state of fiction writing in Australia what nags from the past what engages the imagination for the future Willbanks engages the writers in lively discussions of their own work as well as topics of collective interest such as the past including convict times the nature of the land the treatment of Aborigines national identity and national flaws Australian British antipathy sexuality and feminism drama and film writing publishing and criticism in Australia and the continuous and pervasive influence of the United States on Australia The interviews in Australian Voices are gossipy often funny and always informative as Willbanks builds a structured conversation that reveals biography personality and significant insight into the works of each writer They will be important for both scholars and the reading public in these books and make them a real joy to read Age As I leaf through the volumes having just re read both of them I am still brought up short by another revelatory insight of the everyday I could go on and on but I am out of words Many happy returns Helen Garner Adelaide Advertiser Her prose is wiry stark precise but to find her equal for the tone of generous humanity one has to call up writers like Isaac Babel and Anton Chekhov Wall Street Journal Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W.
