Postcards from the Ledge Greg Child, 2012-10-02 Reflections and humorous pieces plus insights into some of mountaineering's more controversial events Revealing portraits of other Himalayan climbers Peeling back the layers to reveal the gritty truth about the elite climbing world is Greg Child's specialty With clever wit sharp observations and insightful reflections Child's writing covers the full spectrum of the mountaineering experience Entertaining even to those who have never been above sea level Child's stories reveal climbing's other face His description of the daily habits of mountaineers on expedition who don't bathe for months is both disgusting and horrifyingly funny A post climb fiasco in the offices of petty Pakistani bureaucrats proves that not all epics take place on high mountain faces Falling of a rock climb in front of his mother is an exercise in humility Child takes up climbing controversy with the same keen insight His investigation of Tomo Cesen's claimed first ascent of Lhotse's south wall is considered the definitive report on this controversial event A hard look at the media frenzy around the death of Alison Hargreaves on K2 evolves into a brilliant impassioned defense of a friend He also speaks out on the money and media driven expeditions that now crowd Everest But Child never preaches Whether contrasting his clumsy performance with Lynn Hill's elegant moves on a climb in the remote mountains of Kyrgyzstan or reflecting upon artifacts from crucifixes to pink flamingos that decorate the world's highest peaks he writes it as he sees it with a dose of wit A true insider Greg Child draws us deep into the world of climbing but never denies its dark side
