Postcolonial Whiteness A Critical Reader On Race And Empire:

Postcolonial Whiteness Alfred J. López, 2022 Postcolonial Whiteness examines the interrelations between whiteness and the history of European colonialism as well as the status of whiteness in the contemporary postcolonial world It addresses two fundamental questions What happens to whiteness after empire and to what extent do white cultural norms or imperatives remain embedded in the postcolonial or postindependence state as a part acknowledged or not of the colonial legacy Jacket On Whiteness, 2020-05-18 The essays cover an astonishing range of subject matter from mental health and plastic surgery to literature music political philosophy performance popular culture and history They interrogate the dominance of whiteness exposing the underpinnings of white privilege and considering its global consequences

Unsettling Whiteness Lucy Michael, Samantha Schulz, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Unsettling Whiteness brings together an international collection that considers anew the politics practices and representations of whiteness at a time when nations worldwide continue to grapple with issues that are underwritten by whiteness

Liturgy in Postcolonial Perspectives C. Carvalhaes, 2015-06-10 This book brings Christian Jewish and Muslim scholars from different fields of knowledge and many places across the globe to introduce expand the dialogue between the field of liturgy and postcolonial decolonial thinking Connecting main themes in both fields this book shows what is at stake in this dialectical scholarship An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies including the articulation of African cultural studies the issue of Africa s diaspora s African identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies The first of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations especially from within Africa itself The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies Men in Color Josep M. Armengol,2011-01-18

Comprising seven different chapters the collection Men in Color attempts to analyze and revisit the representation of ethnic masculinities both white and non white in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema If most of the existing studies on masculinity and race have centered on one specific model of racialized masculinities Men in Color attempts to provide an introductory perspective on different racialized masculinities simultaneously including African American Asian American Chicano Arab American and also white masculinity which is analyzed as another ethnic and gendered construct rather than as a paradigm of normalcy and universality By exploring several ethnic masculinities in relation to each other the present volume aims to highlight both the differences and the similarities between different patterns of masculinity showing how even as gender is inflected by race certain aspects or features of masculinity remain unchanged across the ethnic board Ultimately the volume as a whole illustrates both the changing nature of masculinities as well as the recurrence of certain stereotypes such as the hypersexualization and or the feminization of ethnic males which recur in and across several ethnicities The constant tension and intersection between gender and race is the subject of this book which hopes to contribute some notes and reflections on ethnic masculinities to the much more complex and larger discussion about gender and racial identities in our increasingly multicultural and globalized 21st century world Locating Life Stories Maureen Perkins,2012-09-30 The thirteen essays in this volume come from Australia China India Indonesia Iraq Malaysia South Africa and Hawai i With a shared focus on the specific local conditions that influence the ways in which life narratives are told the authors engage with a variety of academic disciplines including anthropology history media studies and literature to challenge claims that life writing is an exclusively Western phenomenon Addressing the common desire to reflect on lived experience the authors enlist interdisciplinary perspectives to interrogate the range of cultural forms available for representing and understanding lives Contributors Maria Faini Kenneth George Philip Holden David T Hill Craig Howes Bryan Kuwada Kirin Narayan Maureen Perkins Peter Read Tony Simoes da Silva Mathilda Slabbert Gerry van Klinken Pei yi Wu White Freedom Tyler Stovall,2022-08-23 The racist legacy behind the Western idea of freedom The era of the Enlightenment which gave rise to our modern conceptions of freedom and democracy was also the height of the trans Atlantic slave trade America a nation founded on the principle of liberty is also a nation built on African slavery Native American genocide and systematic racial discrimination White Freedom traces the complex relationship between freedom and race from the eighteenth century to today revealing how being free has meant being white Tyler Stovall explores the intertwined histories of racism and freedom in France and the United States the two leading nations that have claimed liberty as the heart of their national identities He explores how French and American thinkers defined freedom in racial terms and conceived of liberty as an aspect and privilege of whiteness He discusses how the Statue of Liberty a gift from

France to the United States and perhaps the most famous symbol of freedom on Earth promised both freedom and whiteness to European immigrants Taking readers from the Age of Revolution to today Stovall challenges the notion that racism is somehow a paradox or contradiction within the democratic tradition demonstrating how white identity is intrinsic to Western ideas about liberty Throughout the history of modern Western liberal democracy freedom has long been white freedom A major work of scholarship that is certain to draw a wide readership and transform contemporary debates White Freedom provides vital new perspectives on the inherent racism behind our most cherished beliefs about freedom liberty and human rights

Eastern Europeans in Contemporary Literature and Culture Vedrana Veličković, 2019-04-08 Eastern Europeans in Contemporary Literature and Culture Imagining New Europe provides a comprehensive study of the way in which contemporary writers filmmakers and the media have represented the recent phenomenon of Eastern European migration to the UK and Western Europe following the enlargement of the EU in the 21st century the social and political changes after the fall of communism and the Brexit vote Exploring the recurring figures of Eastern Europeans as a new reservoir of cheap labour the author engages with a wide range of both mainstream and neglected authors films and programmes including Rose Tremain John Lanchester Marina Lewycka Polly Courtney Dubravka Ugrešić Kapka Kassabova Kwame Kwei Armah Mike Phillips It s a Free World Gypsy Britain s Hardest Workers The Poles are Coming and Czech Dream Analyzing the treatment of Eastern Europeans as builders fruit pickers nannies and victims of sex trafficking and ways of resisting the stereotypes this is an important intervention into debates about Europe migration and postcommunist transition to capitalism as represented in multiple contemporary cultural texts

Roma Migrants in the European Union Can Yıldız, Nicholas De Genova, 2020-05-21 This book situates Roma mobility as a critical

vantage point for migration studies in Europe focusing on questions about Europe European ness and EU ropean citizenship through the critical lens of Roma racialisation marginalisation securitisation and criminalisation and the dynamics of Roma mobility within and across the space of Europe Enabled primarily through ethnographic research with diverse Roma communities across the heterogeneous geography of Europe the contributions to this collection are concerned with the larger politics of mobility as a constitutive feature of the socio political formation of the EU Foregrounding the experiences and perspectives of Roma living and working outside of their nation states of origin or ostensible citizenship the book seeks to elucidate wider inequalities and hierarchies at stake in the ongoing re racialisation of both Roma migrants and migrants in general Showcasing political economic legal and socio historical criticism this book will be of interest to those studying race and racialisation in Europe mobility and migration into and within Europe and those studying the mobility of the Roma people in particular This book was originally published as a special issue of the Social Identities journal Colonial Extractions

Paula Butler, 2015-05-27 Challenging Canada s image as a humane enlightened global actor Colonial Extractions examines the troubling racial logic that underpins Canadian mining operations in several African countries Drawing on colonial postcolonial and critical race theory Paula Butler investigates Canadian mining activities and the discourses which serve to legitimate this work Through a series of interviews with senior personnel of businesses with mining operations in Africa Butler identifies a continuation of the same colonialist mindset that saw resource ownership and racial dominance over Indigenous peoples in Canada as part of Canada s nation building project Financially culturally and psychologically Canadians are invested in extracting resource based wealth in the Global South and as Butler s analysis of Canada s influence over South Africa s first post apartheid mining legislation shows they look to legitimize that extraction through neoliberal legal frameworks and a powerful national myth of benevolence Complementing analyses of the industry through political economy or critical development studies Colonial Extractions is a powerful and unsettling critique of the cultural dimension of Canada s mining industry overseas Balkan Transnationalism at the Time of Neoliberal Catastrophe Dušan I. Bjelić, 2019-03-27 Offering a fresh look at the ways in which neoliberalism has claimed to cure the Balkan region of its ethnic particularities under the pretext of Europeanization this book shows how the reconfiguration of the economic political and cultural landscape of the region has resulted in its functioning as Europe s neocolony The contributors to this volume engage in postcolonial analysis of the Balkans past and present coloniality by way of interrogating race racism trauma film and global capitalism They challenge the idea of a United Europe that rests on the assumption that the European Union s newness represents both a clean slate and the right to shift ownership of its colonial histories to former colonial subjects and their national histories Taken as a whole the volume seeks to transform Europe s colonial amnesia into postcolonial awareness and to speak from within the Balkans as a site of Europe s neocolony As it critically interrogates a neocolonial reconfiguration of the Balkans as a massive social overhaul which includes at once global integration and local social disintegration this book will be of interest to those studying the region as well as postcolonialism in general This book was originally published as a special issue of Interventions Journal of Postcolonial Studies

Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa Elmarie Costandius, 2018-09-07 Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa is the first book of its kind to appear in post apartheid South Africa and it is therefore both overdue and extremely welcome The book aims at sharing critical citizenship design teaching and learning pedagogies by including contributions from a range of design educators and one student who work in different design disciplines such as architecture graphic and product design Critical citizenship education is explicated in relation to a range of theories and new and existing models Numerous contemporary case studies and examples of design projects from a range of South African Higher Education Institutions are included As such a variety of perspectives emerge including the consensual where the aim of critical citizenship education is viewed as promoting social justice shared values and critical thinking to the conflicting where critiques are levelled against conceptions of critical citizenship education Contentious contesting and contradictory views are inevitable and necessary given the South African context as it is only in open debate that the one point of agreement among the authors the need for social change can be worked towards Prof Deirdre Pretorius University of Johannesburg
