Postcolonial Exotic Marketing The Margins:

The Postcolonial Exotic Graham Huggan, 2001 Graham Huggan examines some of the processes by which value is given to postcolonial works within their cultural field using both literary critical and sociological methods of analysis The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2006 Boasting new extracts from major works in the field as well as an impressive list of contributors this second edition of a bestselling Reader is an invaluable introduction to the most seminal texts in post colonial theory and criticism Translation of Cultures Petra Wittke-Rüdiger, Konrad Gross, 2009 The contributors to this collection approach the subject of the translation of cultures from various angles Translation refers to the rendering of texts from one language into another and the shift between languages under precolonial retelling transcreation colonial domestication and postcolonial multilingual trafficking conditions

Postliberalization Indian Novels in English Aysha Iqbal Viswamohan, 2013-04-15 Postliberalization Indian Novels in English Politics of Global Reception and Awards is a critical handbook that focuses on trends in contemporary Indian novels and discusses the global reception of these works The volume provides a systematic approach to the study of Indian novelists that have not been with certain exceptions extensively examined The Transnational in Literary Studies Kai Wiegandt, 2020-07-06 This volume clarifies the meanings and applications of the concept of the transnational and identifies areas in which the concept can be particularly useful The division of the volume into three parts reflects areas which seem particularly amenable to analysis through a transnational lens The chapters in Part 1 present case studies in which the concept replaces or complements traditionally dominant concepts in literary studies These chapters demonstrate for example why some dramatic texts and performances can better be described as transnational than as postcolonial and how the transnational underlies and complements concepts such as world literature Part 2 assesses the advantages and limitations of writing literary history with a transnational focus These chapters illustrate how such a perspective loosens the epistemic stranglehold of national historiographies but they also argue that the transnational and national agendas of literary historiography are frequently entangled The chapters in Part 3 identify transnational genres such as the transnational historical novel transnational migrant fiction and translinguistic theatre and analyse the specific poetics and politics of these genres Edinburgh Companion to the Critical Medical Humanities Anne Whitehead, 2016-06-14 In this landmark Companion expert contributors from around the world map out the field of the critical medical humanities This is the first volume to introduce comprehensively the ways in which interdisciplinary thinking across the humanities and social sciences might contribute to critique and develop medical understanding of the human individually and collectively The thirty six newly commissioned chapters range widely within and across disciplinary fields always alert to the intersections between medicine as broadly defined and critical thinking Each chapter offers suggestions for further reading on the issues raised and each section concludes with an Afterword written by a leading critic outlining future possibilities for cutting edge work in this area Topics covered in this volume include the affective body biomedicine blindness breath disability early modern medical practice fatness the genome language madness narrative race systems biology performance the postcolonial public health touch twins voice and wonder Together the chapters generate a body of new knowledge and make a decisive intervention into how health medicine and clinical care might address questions of individual subjective and embodied experience

Paradoxes of Postcolonial Culture Sandra Ponzanesi, 2012-02-01 This innovative contribution to understanding the promise and contradictions of contemporary postcolonial culture applies a wide array of theoretical tools to a large body of literature The author compares the work of established Indian writers including Bharati Mukherjee Meena Alexander Sara Suleri and Sunetra Gupta to new writings by such Afro Italian immigrant women as Ermina dell Oro Maria Abbeb Viarengo Ribka Sibhatu and Sirad Hassan Sandra Ponzanesi's analysis highlights a set of dissymmetrical relationships that are set in the context of different imperial linguistic and market policies By dealing with issues of representation linked to postcolonial literary genres to gender and ethnicity questions and to new cartographies of diaspora this book imbues the postcolonial debate with a new lan

The Planetary Clock Paul Giles, 2021-02-11 The theme of The Planetary Clock is the representation of time in postmodern culture and the way temporality as a global phenomenon manifests itself differently across an antipodean axis To trace postmodernism in an expansive spatial and temporal arc from its formal experimentation in the 1960s to environmental concerns in the twenty first century is to describe a richer and more complex version of this cultural phenomenon Exploring different scales of time from a Southern Hemisphere perspective with a special emphasis on issues of Indigeneity and the Anthropocene The Planetary Clock offers a wide ranging revisionist account of postmodernism reinterpreting literature film music and visual art of the post 1960 period within a planetary framework By bringing the culture of Australia and New Zealand into dialogue with other Western narratives it suggests how an antipodean impulse involving the transposition of the world into different spatial and temporal dimensions has long been an integral if generally occluded aspect of postmodernism Taking its title from a Florentine clock designed in 1510 to measure worldly time alongside the rotation of the planets The Planetary Clock ranges across well known American postmodernists John Barth Toni Morrison to more recent science fiction writers Octavia Butler Richard Powers while bringing the US tradition into juxtaposition with both its English Philip Larkin Ian McEwan and Australian Les Murray Alexis Wright counterparts By aligning cultural postmodernism with music Messiaen Ligeti Birtwistle the visual arts Hockney Blackman Fiona Hall and cinema Rohmer Haneke Tarantino this volume enlarges our understanding of global postmodernism for the twenty first century

Exoticizing the Past in Contemporary Neo-Historical Fiction E. Rousselot, 2014-11-13 This collection of essays is dedicated to examining the recent literary phenomenon of the neo historical novel a sub genre of contemporary historical fiction which critically re imagines specific periods of history Marketing Literature C. Squires, 2007-10-11 This is an important study of the publishing of contemporary writing in Britain It analyzes the changing social economic and cultural environment of the publishing industry in the 1990s 2000s and investigates its impact on genre authorship and reading It includes case studies of Trainspotting and the His Dark Materials trilogy Arundhati Roy's *The God of Small Things

Alex Tickell, 2007-05-07 On publication Arundhati Roy's first novel The God of Small Things 1997 rapidly became an international bestseller winning the Booker Prize and creating a new space for Indian literature and culture within the arts even as it courted controversy and divided critical opinion This guide to Roy's ground breaking novel offers an accessible introduction to the text and contexts of The God of Small Things a critical history surveying the many interpretations of the text from publication to the present a selection of new essays and reprinted critical essays by Padmini Mongia Aijaz Ahmad Brinda Bose Anna Clarke milienne Baneth Nouailhetas and Alex Tickell on The God of Small Things providing a range of perspectives on the novel and extending the coverage of key critical approaches identified in the survey section cross references between sections of the guide in order to suggest links between texts contexts and criticism suggestions for further reading Part of the Routledge Guides to Literature series this volume is essential reading for all those beginning detailed study of The God of Small Things and seeking not only a guide to the novel but a way through the wealth of contextual and critical material that surrounds Roy's text Postcolonial Poetics Patrick Crowley, Jane

Hiddleston, 2011-01-01 Responding to calls to focus on postcolonial literature's literary qualities instead of merely its political content this volume investigates the idiosyncrasies of postcolonial poetics However rather than privileging the literary at the expense of the political the essays collected here analyze how texts use genre and form to offer multiple and distinct ways of responding to political and historical questions By probing how different kinds of literary writing can blur with other discourses the contributors offer key insights into postcolonial literature's power to imagine alternative identities and societies Discourses of Postcolonialism in Contemporary British Children's Literature Blanka Grzegorzczuk, 2014-10-03

This book considers how contemporary British children's books engage with some of the major cultural debates of recent years and how they resonate with the current preoccupations and tastes of the white mainstream British reading public A central assumption of this volume is that Britain's imperial past continues to play a key role in its representations of race identity and history The insistent inclusion of questions relating to colonialism and power structures in recent children's novels exposes the complexities and contradictions surrounding the fictional treatment of race relations and ethnicity Postcolonial children's literature in Britain has been inherently ambivalent since its cautious beginnings it is both transgressive and authorizing both undercutting and excluding Grzegorzczuk considers the ways in which children's fictions have worked with and against particular ideologies of race The texts analyzed in this collection portray ethnic minorities as complex hybrid products of colonialism global migrations and the ideology of multiculturalism By examining the ideological content of these novels Grzegorzczuk demonstrates the centrality of the colonial past to contemporary British writing for the young Representing Multiculturalism in Comics and Graphic Novels Carolene Ayaka, Ian Hague, 2014-11-20

Multiculturalism and its representation has long presented challenges for the medium of comics This book presents a wide ranging survey of the ways in which comics have dealt with the diversity of creators and characters and the lack of visibility for characters who don t conform to particular cultural stereotypes Contributors engage with ethnicity and other cultural forms from Israel Romania North America South Africa Germany Spain U S Latino and Canada and consider the ways in which comics are able to represent multiculturalism through a focus on the formal elements of the medium Discussion themes include education countercultures monstrosity the quotidian the notion of the other anthropomorphism and colonialism Taking a truly international perspective the book brings into dialogue a broad range of comics traditions

Fiction after the Fatwa Madelena Gonzalez,2021-11-22 Fiction after the Fatwa Salman Rushdie and the Charm of Catastrophe proposes for the first time an examination of what Rushdie has achieved as a writer since the fourteenth of February 1989 the date of the fatwa This study argues that his constant questioning of fictional form and the language used to articulate it have opened up new opportunities and further possibilities for writing in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Through close readings and intensive textual analysis arranged chronologically Fiction after the Fatwa provides a thought provoking reflection on the writer s achievements over the last thirteen years Aimed principally at academics and students but also of interest to the general reader it engages with the specific nature of the post fatwa fiction as it moves from the fairy tale world of Haroun and the Sea of Stories to the heartbreaking post realism of Fury

Contemporary Fiction, Celebrity Culture, and the Market for Modernism Carey Mickalites,2022-01-13 Arguing that contemporary celebrity authors like Zadie Smith Ian McEwan Martin Amis Kazuo Ishiguro Salman Rushdie Eimear McBride and Anna Burns position their work and public personae within a received modernist canon to claim and monetize its cultural capital in the lucrative market for literary fiction this book also shows how the corporate conditions of marketing and branding have redefined older models of literary influence and innovation It contributes to a growing body of criticism focused on contemporary literature as a field in which the formal and stylistic experimentation that came to define a canon of early 20th century modernism has been renewed contested and revised Other critics have celebrated these renewals variously arguing that contemporary literature picks up on modernism s unfinished aesthetic revolutions in ways that have expanded the imaginative possibilities for fiction and revived questions of literary autonomy in the wake of postmodern nihilism While this is a compelling thesis and one that rightly questions an artificial and problematic periodization that still lingers in academic criticism those approaches generally fail to address the material conditions that structure literary production and the generation of cultural capital whether in the historical development of modernism or its contemporary permutations This book addresses this absence by proposing a materialist history of modernism s afterlives Architecture and the Late Ottoman Historical Imaginary AhmetA. Ersoy,2017-07-05 While European eclecticism is examined as a critical and experimental moment in western art history little research has been conducted to provide an intellectual depth of field to the historicist pursuits of late Ottoman architects as they maneuvered through the nineteenth century's vast inventory of available styles and embarked on a revivalist Orientalist program they identified as the Ottoman Renaissance Ahmet A Ersoy's book examines the complex historicist discourse underlying this belated renaissance through a close reading of a text conceived as the movement's canonizing manifesto the Usul i Mi mari i Osmani The Fundamentals of Ottoman Architecture Istanbul 1873 In its translocal cross disciplinary scope Ersoy's work explores the creative ways in which the Ottoman authors straddled the art historical mainstream and their new self orientalizing aesthetics of locality The study reveals how Orientalism was embraced by its very objects the self styled Orientals of the modern world as a marker of authenticity and a strategically located aesthetic tool to project universally recognizable images of cultural difference Rejecting the lesser subsidiary status ascribed to non western Orientalisms Ersoy's work contributes to recent post Saidian directions in the study of cultural representation that resituate the field of Orientalism beyond its polaristic core recognizing its cross cultural potential as a polyvalent discourse

World Editors Gustavo Guerrero, Benjamin Loy, Gesine Müller, 2020-12-16 The existence of World Literature depends on specific processes institutions and actors involved in the global circulation of literary works The contributions of this volume aim to pay attention to these multiple material dimensions of Latin American 20th and 21st century literatures From perspectives informed by materialism sociology book studies and digital humanities the articles of this volume analyze the role of publishing houses politics of translation mediators and gatekeepers allowing insights into the processes that enable books to cross borders and to be transformed into globally circulating commodities The book focusses both on material resources of literary archives key actors in literary and cultural markets prizes and book fairs as well as on recent dimension of the digital age Statements of some of the leading representatives of the global publishing world complement these analyses of the operations of selection and aggregation of value to literary texts

Traveling Heritages Saskia Wieringa, 2008 In the context of our increasingly globalized and digitalized world libraries and archives are experiencing major changes The methods used internationally to collect cultural heritage and other historical material are shifting as new media have added important innovative tools for gathering preserving and sharing information around the globe In light of our increasingly multicultural societies and the expanding digital divide we need new and more inclusive approaches to the collection of cultural heritage This means that critical reflection on both the contents of collections and methods of acquisition is crucial The International Information Center and Archives for the Women's Movement IIAV in Amsterdam provides a case study in how to approach these issues It considered such questions as how to make optimal use of new media and whose histories should be represented in its archives In Traveling Heritages international and national heritage experts from academic library and archival professions reflect upon these questions offering new perspectives on documenting women's histories

Maryse Conde and the Space of Literature Eva Sansavio, 2017-12-02 The Guadeloupean writer and critic Maryse Conde has for the last twenty five years divided her time between her native Guadeloupe and the United States. If the author's work has attracted much critical attention in the United States, it is the fictional works that have been the focus of this attention, with these predominantly read in the light of political themes such as identity and resistance. In these intelligent and sensitive readings, Eva Sansavior argues in favour of adopting a broader thematic and generic approach to the author's work. Sansavior accounts for the multiple and oblique uses of literature in the Conde's literary and critical work, tracking its complex interactions with tradition, reception, politics, and autobiography, and also the singular possibilities that these interactions present for reimagining the ideas of politics, literature, identity, and ultimately the nature of critical practice itself.
