Postcolonial Imaginings Fictions Of A New World Order:

Postcolonial Imaginings David Punter, 2000 This deeply engaging historically and culturally informed book provides new perspectives on a wide range of writers and at the same time provides a radically new development of many of the most pertinent issues in the field of postcolonial writing and theory It constitutes a major new engagement between the postcolonial and a conception of the literary that is richly innovative in its deployment of psychoanalytic deconstructive and other approaches to the text The book begins with some brief background to the issue of decolonization and its contemporary effects It is informed throughout by a clear sense of literary and political context within which chosen texts by well known writers Derek Walcott Chinua Achebe Edward Kamau Brathwaite as well as less well known ones Joan Riley Susan Power Abdulrazak Gurnah and writers not often seen in a postcolonial context James Kelman Seamus Deane Hanif Kureishi can be situated The chapters that follow are based around themes such as violent geographics hallucination dream and the exotic mourning and melancholy diaspora and exile delocalization and the alibi This profoundly new approach to the complexities of the postcolonial allows the reader to appreciate some of the richness but at the same time the political and cultural ambivalence which underlies postcolonial writing Throughout the book David Punter continually questions as one would expect from his many previous books the definition and scope of the postcolonial It is seen throughout as a phenomenon not restricted to the ex or neo colonies but as a key characterisation of all our lives at the beginning of the twenty first century It is an indissoluble part of the development of national imaginings and at the same time an alibi for the emergence of a violently assertive new world order committed to the management and obliteration of difference By juxtaposing texts from different cultural traditions and topographies from Things Fall Apart to The Bone People from Anot Postcolonial Fiction and Disability C. Barker, 2012-01-06 This book is the first study of disability in postcolonial fiction Focusing on canonical novels it explores the metaphorical functions and material presence of disabled child characters Barker argues that progressive disability politics emerge from postcolonial concerns and establishes dialogues between postcolonialism and disability studies

The Postcolonial Novel Richard Lane, 2006-07-21 Richard Lane explores the themes surrounding the postcolonial novel written in English

The Fiction of Tim Winton Lyn McCredde, 2017-02-08 In The Fiction of Tim Winton Lyn McCredde explores the work of a major Australian author who bridges the literary popular divide Tim Winton has won the Miles Franklin Literary Award a record four times and has twice been shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize His novels and short stories are widely studied in schools and universities and have been lauded by critics both in Australia and internationally Unusually for an Australian literary author he is also one of the country's most enduringly popular writers Cloudstreet was voted Australia's favourite book in a poll conducted by the ABC his books regularly appear on bestseller lists and his stories have been adapted for the stage television cinema and opera In this wide ranging study of Winton's work and career McCredde considers how Winton has sustained a strong mainstream following while exploring complex themes and moving between genres Attending to both secular and sacred frames of reference she considers his treatment of class gender place landscape and belonging and shows how a compassion for human falling and redemption permeates his work She demonstrates how his engagement with these recurring ideas has deepened and changed over time and how he has moved between and challenged the categories of the popular and the literary The Routledge Handbook of Fiction and Belief Alison James,Akihiro Kubo,Françoise Lavocat,2023-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Fiction and Belief offers a fresh reevaluation of the relationship between fiction and belief surveying key debates and perspectives from a range of disciplines including narrative and cultural studies science religion and politics This volume draws on global cutting edge research and theory to investigate the historically variable understandings of fictionality and allows readers to grasp the role of fictions in our understanding of the world This interdisciplinary approach provides a thorough introduction to the fundamental themes of Theoretical and Philosophical Perspectives on Fiction Fiction Fact and Science Social Effects and Uses of Fiction Fiction and Politics Fiction and Religion Questioning how fictions in fact shape mediate or distort our beliefs about the real world essays in this volume outline the state of theoretical debates from the perspectives of literary theory philosophy sociology religious studies history and the cognitive sciences It aims to take stock of the real or supposed effects that fiction has on the world and to offer a wide reaching reflection on the implications of belief in fictions in the so called post truth era Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature Gina Wisker,2006-11-14 Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature provides an overview of the main themes issues and critical perspectives that have had the greatest effect on postcolonial literatures Discussing historical cultural and contextual background it contains selected work of some of the major writers from this period

Teaching the Gothic A. Powell,A. Smith,2006-03-21 Teaching the Gothic provides a clear and accessible account of how scholarship on the Gothic has influenced the way in which the Gothic is taught The book examines a range of topics including Gothic criticism Theory Romantic Gothic Victorian Gothic Female Gothic Gothic Sexualities Gothic Film and Postgraduate developments South Asian Gothic Katarzyna Ancuta,2021-11-15 South Asian Gothic engages key debates in the study of an area that is seriously overlooked within the field of Gothic studies It widens and deepens the critical analysis of the gothic themes and conventions in the texts produced outside the Anglo American context usually associated with gothic This book pays attention to various political historical and aesthetical configurations in South Asia and is the first attempt to theorise South Asia and its Gothic production as a common cultural landscape Therefore the volume will be relevant to scholars and students in the field of South Asian studies The volume investigates a wide range of different cultural media and therefore is also relevant to media studies and related disciplines including literary criticism film studies postcolonial studies and world cinema studies David Mitchell Sarah Dillon,2011 The outcome of the first international conference on David Mitchell s writing this collection of critical essays focuses on his first three novels Ghostwritten number9dream and Cloud Atlas to provide an analysis of Mitchell s complex narrative techniques and the literary political and cultural implications of his work

Gothic Cinema Katharina Rein, 2023-06-29 Gothic Cinema closes a gap in German language film discourse for the first time the volume sheds light on a hitherto little discussed film context It considers Gothic Cinema as a form of unofficial historiography that allows a look not only at the history of film and its technique but also at moral concepts gender relations collective fears or aesthetic currents A delimitation and definition of the term and the central elements of the Gothic are followed by a comprehensive historical overview from 1896 to the present day Three in depth analyses of individual post 2015 gothic films and television series round out the review On the one hand the examples examined are representative in terms of typical elements motifs or topoi and on the other hand they exhibit peculiarities and breaks that prove fruitful for a cultural and media studies investigation

Genres of Modernity Dirk Wiemann, 2008 Genres of Modernity maps the conjunctures of critical theory and literary production in contemporary India The volume situates a sample of representative novels in the discursive environment of the ongoing critical debate on modernity in India and offers for the first time a rigorous attempt to hold together the stimulating impulses of postcolonial theory subaltern studies and the boom of Indian fiction in English Combining close readings of literary texts from Salman Rushdie to Kiran Nagarkar with a wide range of philosophical sociological and historiographic reflections Genres of Modernity is of interest not only for students of postcolonial literatures but for academics in the fields of Cultural Studies at large BOOK JACKET E.M. Forster's A Passage to India Reena Mitra, 2008 The 1990s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble, Philip Tew, Leigh Wilson, 2015-05-21 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 1990s shape contemporary British Fiction From the fall of the Berlin Wall to the turn of the millennium the 1990s witnessed a realignment of global politics Against the changing international scene this volume uses events abroad and in Britain to examine and explain the changes taking place in British fiction including the celebration of national identities fuelled by the move toward political devolution in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales the literary optimism in urban ethnic fictions written by a new generation of authors born and raised in Britain the popularity of neo Victorian fiction Critical surveys are balanced by in depth readings of work by the authors who defined the decade including A S Byatt Hanif Kureishi Will Self Caryl Phillips and Irvine Welsh an approach that illustrates exactly how their key themes and concerns fit within the social and political circumstances of the decade

Tropical Gothic in Literature and Culture Justin D. Edwards, Sandra G.T. Vasconcelos, 2016-01-13 Tropical Gothic examines Gothic within a specific geographical area of the South of the Americas In so doing we structure the book around geographical coordinates from North to South and move between various national traditions of the gothic Mexico Argentina Brazil etc alongside regional manifestations of the Gothic the US south and the Caribbean as well as transnational movements of the Gothic within the Americas The reflections on national traditions of the Gothic in this volume add to the critical body of literature on specific languages or particular nations such as Scottish Gothic American Gothic Canadian Gothic German Gothic Kiwi Gothic etc This is significant because while the Southern Gothic in the US has been thoroughly explored there is a gap in the critical literature about the Gothic in the larger context of region of the South in the Americas This volume does not pretend to be a comprehensive examination of tropical Gothic in the Americas rather it pinpoints a variety of locations where this form of the Gothic emerges In so doing the transnational interventions of the Gothic in this book read the flows of Gothic forms across borders and geographical regions to tease out the complexities of Gothic cultural production within cultural and linguistic translations Tropical Gothic includes but is by no means limited to a reflection on a region where European colonial powers fought intensively against indigenous populations and against each other for control of land and resources In other cases the vast populations of African slaves were transported endowing these regions with a cultural inheritance that all the nations involved are still trying to comprehend The volume reflects on how these histories influence the Gothic in this region

Nayantara Sahgal Maninder Sidhu, 2022-12-30 This book is a comprehensive critical re-reading of Nayantara Sahgal's oeuvre One of the most significant Indian English writers her fictional and non-fictional engagement with historical events and political dilemmas inextricably links her to the colonial anti-colonial and post-colonial discourse in India Drawing transcontinental connections with the ideas of Fanon Foucault Said Beauvoir White Beck and Habermas the monograph juxtaposes recurring themes in her writing with the ideas of significant Indian post-colonial commentators Tracing the subliminal tendencies in her writing to Gandhian humanity and Nehruvian pragmatism the book moves beyond clichés of feminist criticism and genealogical ties to unveil a unique artist who has folded nearly a century of Indian experience in her work Drawing on novels essays speeches journalism and interviews by Nayantara Sahgal this volume will be of great interest to scholars of South Asian literature post-colonialism politics and contemporary history culture change

Assia Djebar Jane Hiddleston, 2006-01-01 For more than fifty years Assia Djebar has used the tools of poetry fiction drama and film to vividly portray the complex world of Muslim women In the process she has become one of the most important figures in North African literature In Assia Djebar Jane Hiddleston traces Djebar's development as a writer against the backdrop of North Africa's tumultuous history Djebar's early writings were largely an attempt to delineate the experience of being a woman an intellectual and an Algerian but her more recent work evinces a growing sense that the influence of French culture on Algerian letters may make such a project impossible The first book-length study of this indispensable writer Assia Djebar will interest scholars of post-colonial literature women's studies or Francophone culture

Critical Identities in Contemporary Anglophone Diasporic Literature Françoise Kral, 2009-06-25 The figure of the migrant has been celebrated by some as an icon of postmodernity an emblematic figure in a world increasingly characterized by transnationalism globalization and mass migrations Kral takes issue with this view of the migrant experience through in-depth analyses of writers including Salman Rushdie Zadie Smith and Monica Ali

Literature and Culture in the Black Atlantic K. Campbell, 2016-04-30 This book extends our understanding of the black Atlantic a term coined by Paul Gilroy to describe the political cultural and creative interrelations among blacks living in Africa the Americas and Europe This study focuses on pre colonial English literary constructions and their effects on post Independence Caribbean literature

Salman Rushdie and Translation Jenni Ramone, 2013-09-12 Salman Rushdie's writing is engaged with translation in many ways translator figures tell and retell stories in his novels while acts of translation are catalysts for climactic events Covering his major novels as well as his often neglected short stories and writing for children Salman Rushdie and Translation explores the role of translation in Rushdie's work In this book Jenni Ramone draws on contemporary translation theory to analyse the part translation plays in Rushdie's appropriation of historical and contemporary Indian narratives of independence and migration

EcoGothic Andrew Smith, William Hughes, 2015-11-01 This book will provide the first study of how the Gothic engages with ecocritical ideas Ecocriticism has frequently explored images of environmental catastrophe the wilderness the idea of home constructions of nature and images of the post apocalypse images which are also central to a certain type of Gothic literature By exploring the relationship between the ecocritical aspects of the Gothic and the Gothic elements of the ecocritical this book provides a new way of looking at both the Gothic and ecocriticism Writers discussed include Ann Radcliffe Mary Shelley Ambrose Bierce Algernon Blackwood Margaret Atwood Cormac McCarthy Dan Simmons and Rana Dasgupta The volume thus explores writing and film across various national contexts including Britain America and Canada as well as giving due consideration to how such issues might be discussed within a global context
