Hahn,2009-11-23 Integrating the history of Paris with the history of consumption the press publicity advertising and spectacle this book traces the evolution of the urban core districts of consumption and explores elements of consumer culture such as the print media publishing retail techniques tourism city marketing fashion illustrated posters and Montmartre culture in the nineteenth century Hahn emphasizes the tension between art and industry and between culture and commerce a dynamic that significantly marked urban commercial modernity that spread new imaginary about consumption She argues that Parisian consumer culture arose earlier than generally thought and explores the intense commercialization Paris underwent

Posters of the Belle Epoque Jack Rennert, 1990 A perfect introduction to poster collecting this is the cream of poster art more than 200 of the world's best classic designs from the golden era of posters the 1890s to about WWI all reproduced in color and annotated in great detail The neophyte can find out the what who where and why of posters the knowledgeable collector will marvel at the depth and scope of this particular collection any reader who likes art can uncover new pleasures in this rich but comparatively little explored field The posters come from the collection of the Wine Spectator part of M Shanken Communications Inc it was Marvin R Shanken founder and president who personally assembled this poster treasure already one of the best in the world His publications deal primarily with wine and spirits one of them The Wine Spectator is the largest selling publication of its kind in the world Among his other publications are Impact Impact International Market Watch and Food Arts The only way his bias shows is that the wine and liquor posters are provided with interesting background on the companies involved but the overall criterion for the choices is quality and posters on all imaginable subjects are included Both the text and the pictures tell a great deal about the nostalgically evoked time a century ago which was called la belle epoque the era of Toulouse Lautrec Sarah Bernhardt art nouveau Victorian prudery alongside the naughty cancan the images in these posters recreate it for us in terms of popular culture of the time amusingly entertainingly and informatively Among the most memorable impressions are Toulouse Lautrec's immortal Moulin Rouge Mucha's Gismonda Chret's Loie Fuller two delectably impudent posters for the humor magazine Frou Frou plus the works of Ibels Steinlen Pal Lobel Villon and some 50 designs by Cappiello the founder of the modern poster style Inside jacket flap The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1992
