A Posthumous Confession Marcellus Emants,2011-02-22 Termeer the narrator of A Posthumous Confession is a twisted man and a troubled one The emotionally stunted son of a cold forbidding and hypocritical father Termeer has only succeeded in living up to his parents low expectations when to his own and others astonishment he finds himself wooing a beautiful and gifted woman a woman whose love he wins But instead of finding happiness in marriage Termeer discovers it to be a new source of self hatred hatred that he turns upon his wife and child And when he becomes caught up in an affair with a woman as demanding as his own self loathing he is driven to murder What is the self and how does it evade or come to terms with itself What can make it go permanently lethally wrong Marcellus Emants s grueling and gripping novel a late nineteenth century tour de force of psychological penetration is a lacerating exposition of the logic of identity that looks backward to Dostoyevsky forward to Simenon and beyond to the confessional literature whether fiction or fact of our own day
