Dutch and Flemish section Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine Twenty five papers by experts in their particular period or area were selected for publication Covering almost five centuries they represent a wholly modern approach to the history of the book and publishing in a European context highlighting for the first time the crucial role of the Low Countries in transmitting the intellectual heritage of an area well beyond their own changing borders Jan Gossart and the Invention of Netherlandish Antiquity Marisa Bass,2016-03-29 This is the first in depth historical study of Jan Gossart ca 1478 1532 one of the most important painters of the Renaissance in northern Europe Providing a richly illustrated narrative of the Netherlandish artist s life and art Marisa Anne Bass shows how Gossart s paintings were part of a larger cultural effort in the Netherlands to assert the region s ancient heritage as distinct from the antiquity and presumed cultural hegemony of Rome Focusing on Gossart s vibrant monumental mythological nudes the book challenges previous interpretations by arguing that Gossart and his patrons did not slavishly imitate Italian Renaissance models but instead sought to contest the idea that the Roman past gave the Italians a monopoly on antiquity Drawing on many previously unused primary sources in Latin Dutch and French Jan Gossart and the Invention of Netherlandish Antiquity offers a fascinating new understanding of both the painter and the history of northern European art at large Silent Teachers Nil Ö. Palabıyık,2023-03-17 Silent Teachers considers for the first time the influence of Ottoman scholarly practices and reference tools on oriental learning in early modern Europe Telling the story of oriental studies through the annotations study notes and correspondence of European scholars it demonstrates the central but often overlooked role that Turkish language manuscripts played in the achievements of early orientalis Dispersing the myths and misunderstandings found in previous scholarship this book offers a fresh history of Turkish studies in Europe and new insights into how Renaissance intellectuals studied Arabic and Persian through contemporaneous Turkish sources This story hardly has any dull moments the reader will encounter many larger than life figures including an armchair expert who turned his alleged captivity under the Ottomans into bestselling books a drunken dragoman who preferred enjoying the fruits of the vine to his duties at the Sublime Porte and a curmudgeonly German physician whose pugnacious pamphlets led to the erasure of his name from history Taking its title from the celebrated humanist Joseph Scaliger s comment that books from the Muslim world are silent teachers and need to be explained orally to be understood this study gives voice to the many and varied Turkish language books that circulated in early modern Europe and proposes a paradigm shift in our understanding of early modern erudite culture Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1982 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1982 Mary of Nemmegen Raftery,2024-03-04 Mary of Nemmegen an early sixteenth century English prose incunabula vividly relates a woman s temptation by the devil and her ultimate redemption It is closely related to the famous Dutch drama Mariken von Nieumeghen This modern edition includes an introduction illustrations notes and commentary with comparison of the English and Dutch texts Universities,

Disruptive Technologies, and Continuity in Higher Education Gavin Moodie, 2016-10-05 This book seeks to understand the effects of the current information revolution on universities by examining the effects of two previous information revolutions Gutenberg's invention and proof of printing in 1450 and the Scientific Revolution from the mid-fifteenth to the end of the seventeenth century Moodie reviews significant changes since the early modern period in universities students libraries curriculum pedagogy lectures assessment research and the dissemination of these changes across the globe He argues that significant changes in the transmission and dissemination of disciplinary knowledge are shaped by the interaction of three factors financial technological and physical resources the nature structure and level of knowledge and the methods available for managing knowledge Seeing Faith, Printing Pictures: Religious Identity during the English Reformation

David J. Davis, 2013-03-27 Scholarship on religious printed images during the English Reformation 1535-1603 has generally focused on a few illustrated works and has portrayed this period in England as a predominantly non-visual religious culture The combination of iconoclasm and Calvinist doctrine have led to a misunderstanding as to the unique ways that English Protestants used religious printed images Building on recent work in the history of the book and print studies this book analyzes the widespread body of religious illustration such as images of God the Father and Christ in Reformation England assessing what religious beliefs they communicated and how their use evolved during the period The result is a unique analysis of how the Reformation in England both destroyed certain aspects of traditional imagery as well as embraced and reformulated others into expressions of its own character and identity Holbein Anne T.
