fantastic in short fiction and other subjects The Art of Brevity Per Winther, Jakob Lothe, Hans H. Skei, 2004 The Art of Brevity gathers fresh ideas about the theory and writing of short fiction from around the globe to produce an international inclusive exploration of the steadily growing field of short story studies Though Anglo American scholars have served as the primary developers of contemporary short story theory since the field's inception in the 1960s this volume adds the contributions of scholars living in other parts of the world Such Anglo American pioneers as Mary Rohrberger Charles May Susan Lohafer and John Gerlach join with short fiction scholars at universities in Norway Denmark Sweden and Canada to build academic bridges and expand the field geographically as well as conceptually Contributors to the volume weave together themes of time space compression mystery reader response and narrative closure They discuss writers as varied as Edgar Allan Poe Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Sarah Orne Jewett James Joyce Franz Kafka Ernest Hemingway Mavis Gallant Flannery O'Connor Eudora Welty Margaret Atwood Alice Munro and Robert Olen Butler the nineteenth century queer short story and contemporary Danish short shorts Handbook of the American Short Story Erik Redling, Oliver Scheiding, 2022-01-19 The American short story has always been characterized by exciting aesthetic innovations and an immense range of topics This handbook offers students and researchers a comprehensive introduction to the multifaceted genre with a special focus on recent developments due to the rise of new media Part I provides systematic overviews of significant contexts ranging from historical political backgrounds short story theories developed by writers print and digital culture to current theoretical approaches and canon formation Part II consists of 35 paired readings of representative short stories by eminent authors charting major steps in the evolution of the American short story from its beginnings as an art form in the early nineteenth century up to the digital age The handbook examines historically methodologically and theoretically the coming together of the enduring narrative practice of compression and concision in American literature It offers fresh and original readings relevant to studying the American short story and shows how the genre performs American culture Postcolonial and Gender Perspectives in Irish Studies Marisol Morales Ladrón, 2007 This book represents an attempt to tackle questions related to fragmented and often conflicting ideologies within Irish studies Although a collective outcome with contributions in English and Spanish its unifying concern has been the appliance of postcolonial and gender perspectives to the analysis of Irish literature prose drama and verse and cinema as well as to the aesthetic production of both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland Along the volume while some authors have chosen to delve into the broad theoretical debate concerning the position of Irish studies within postcolonial and feminist theories others offer detailed examinations of specific literary pieces and authors that fit in this panorama All in all the chapters are wide and diverse enough to trace a spatial and temporal map of the evolution of these paradigms within contemporary Irish studies North and South of the border Locating Postcolonial Narrative Genres Walter Goebel, Saskia Schabio, 2013-01-17 This volume explores how postcolonial texts have determined the evolution or emergence of specific formal innovations in narrative genres While the prominence of questions of cultural identity in postcolonial studies has prevented due attention to concerns of literary form and aesthetics this book gives premium to the literary aiming to delineate the evolution of specific narrative techniques as part of an emerging postcolonial aesthetics Essays delineate elements of an emergent postcolonial narratology across a variety of seminal generic forms such as the epic the novel the short story the autobiography and the folk tale focusing on genre as a powerful tool for the historicizing of literature and orature within cultural discourses Investigating the heuristic value of concepts such as mimicry writing back translation negotiation or subversion the book considers the value of explanatory paradigms for postcolonial generic models It also explores the status of postcolonial comparative aesthetics versus globalization studies and liberal concepts of the transnational taking issue with the prominence of Western concepts of identity in discussions of postcolonial literature and the favoring of mimetic forms This volume offers a unique contribution to the study of narrative genre in postcolonial literatures and provides valuable insight into the field of postcolonial studies on the whole

Edith Wharton and the Conversations of Literary Modernism J. Haytock, 2008-04-28 This study imagines modernism as a series of conversations and locates Edith Wharton's voice in those debates

Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma Jessica Gildersleeve, 2014-02-15 Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma analyses the treatment of memory and the past in Bowen's writing through the lens of trauma theory It draws on the theories of Jacques Derrida H l ne Cixous Julia Kristeva Sigmund Freud and Cathy Caruth to propose that Bowen's work is best understood through the psychological narratological and linguistic effects of trauma in her fiction Bowen's writing complicates existing deconstructive and psychoanalytic models of trauma and literature and testifies to the responsibility of survival and the ethics of bearing witness

Desire for Love Marina Ragachewskaya, 2012-11-15 Desire for Love The Secret Longings of the Human Heart in D H Lawrence's Works is a collection of essays dedicated to several novels novellas short stories and non fiction by D H Lawrence one of the great 20th century English writers With the help of the psychoanalytic textual approach Marina Ragachewskaya analyses subtle expressions of the emotional sphere in Lawrence's characters and their desire for love which is realised linguistically stylistically and symbolically The discussion of the writer's textual subtleties suggests emotional education and intellectual delight The book offers an outline of Lawrence's own psychoanalytic theory and how it is implemented in his fiction Specific issues such as love discourse the unnamed eros a Jungian quest in search of love Doppelg ngers love of power and the power of love sublimation and the language of dance as well as love in the time of war pertain to the discovery of unconscious desires and a culture of feeling in Lawrence Comparisons with other authors are surprisingly rare in Lawrence studies To fill this gap the volume also contains an essay on Lawrence's war stories analysed alongside Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Pat Barker's Regeneration This inquiry into genuine human feeling will be equally attractive to literature scholars students and general readers

The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Shaffer, 2011-01-18

This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language. With nearly 500 contributors and over one million words, it is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language. Contains over 500 entries of 1000-3000 words written in lucid, jargon-free prose by an international cast of leading scholars. Arranged in three volumes covering British and Irish Fiction, American Fiction, and World Fiction, with each volume edited by a leading scholar in the field. Entries cover major writers such as Saul Bellow, Raymond Chandler, John Steinbeck, Virginia Woolf, A.S. Byatt, Samuel Beckett, D.H. Lawrence, Zadie Smith, Salman Rushdie, V.S. Naipaul, Nadine Gordimer, Alice Munro, Chinua Achebe, J.M. Coetzee, and Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o and their key works. Examines the genres and sub-genres of fiction in English across the twentieth century, including crime fiction, Sci-Fi, chick lit, the noir novel, and the avant-garde novel, as well as the major movements, debates, and rubrics within the field, such as censorship, globalization, modernist fiction, and the film industry, and the fiction of migration, diaspora, and exile.

The Turn of the Screw and Other Stories Henry James, 2010-05-07. In 1898 Henry James wrote a novella that would become one of the most famous and critically discussed ghost stories ever written. The Turn of the Screw. Three other examples of James's tales of the supernatural, The Altar of the Dead, The Beast in the Jungle, and The Jolly Corner, are included in this edition. These texts reveal on both the thematic and narrative levels James's deepest concerns as a writer. The texts in this edition are all drawn from the New York Edition of James's works. The introduction traces the extensive critical debate around The Turn of the Screw and situates the texts in contemporary discussions of the supernatural. Appendices include material on the tales' reception, James's writings on the supernatural, and the study of the supernatural in the nineteenth century.

Secreted Desires Michael Matthew Kaylor, 2006 Empirical Approaches to Literature Gebhard Rusch, 1995 Adopting America Carol J. Singley, 2012-01-01. American literature abounds with orphans who experience adoption or placements that resemble adoption. These stories do more than recount adventures of children living away from home. They tell an American story of family and national identity. In narratives from the seventeenth to the early twentieth century, adoption functions as narrative event and trope that describes the American migratory experience, the impact of Calvinist faith, and the growth of democratic individualism. The roots of literary adoption appear in the discourse of Puritan settlers who ambivalently took leave of their birth parent country and portrayed themselves as abandoned children. Believing they were chosen children of God, they also prayed for spiritual adoption and emulated God's grace by extending adoption to others. Nineteenth-century adoption literature develops from this notion of adoption as salvation and from simultaneous attachments to the Old World and the New. In domestic fiction of the mid-nineteenth century, adoption also reflects a focus on nurture in childrearing. Increased mobility in the nation and middle-class concerns over immigration and urbanization were assuaged when the orphan finds a proper loving home. Adoption signals fresh starts and the opportunity for success without genealogical constraints, especially for white males, but inflected by gender and racial biases, it often entails dependency for girls and children of color.

A complex signifier of difference adoption gives voice to sometimes contradictory calls to origins and fresh beginning to feelings of worthiness and unworthiness In writings from Cotton Mather to Edith Wharton it both replicates and offers an alternative to the genealogical norm evoking ambivalence as it shapes national mythologies Saffron Shadows and Salvaged Scripts Ellen Wiles,2015-09-15 This book tells an ethnographic story of a secret literary culture that has recently emerged from its cocoon Until 2012 Myanmar also known as Burma was ruled for fifty years by one of the most paranoid and repressive censorship regimes in history The military junta enforced strict reading and writing restrictions in line with their ideology feared writers potential to trigger change and did their best to keep Western books and influences out of the country As part of an unexpected move toward democracy the government has recently lifted the worst restrictions on reading and writing giving rise to a new era in the country s literature and literary culture While living in Myanmar in 2013 Ellen Wiles sought out the best of its contemporary writers and writing to begin uncovering the country s remarkable literary life and history This book contains the experiences and recent output of nine Myanmar writers spanning three generations featuring interviews and English language translations of their work along with political legal and artistic explorations It includes men and women fiction and poetry reflecting the ripples of political and cultural change as they have moved across different groups and genres A rare portrait of a people and place in transition Wiles s work contributes both to the study of literature and culture in Myanmar and to the general study of art under censorship Commemorative Modernisms Kelly Alice Kelly,2020-07-06 Reconsiders the relationship between the Great War and modernism through women s literary representations of deathProvides the first sustained study of death and commemoration in women s literature in the wartime and postwar periodOffers a reconsideration of the relationship between the First World War and literary modernism through the lens of women s writing Considers the literary impact of the vast mortality of the First World War and the culture of war commemoration on British and American women s writingOne of the key questions of modern literature was the problem of what to do with the war dead Through a series of case studies focusing on nurse narratives Edith Wharton Katherine Mansfield H D and Virginia Woolf as well as visual and material culture this book provides the first sustained study of women s literary representations of death and the culture of war commemoration that underlie British and American literary modernism Considering previously neglected writing by women in the war zones and at home as well as the marginalised writings of well known modernist authors and drawing on international archival research this book demonstrates the intertwining of modernist war and memorial culture and broadens the canon of war writing The SAGE Encyclopedia of Social Science Research Methods Michael Lewis-Beck,Alan E Bryman,Tim Futing Liao,2003-12-15 This defining work will be valuable to readers and researchers in social sciences and humanities at all academic levels As a teaching resource it will be useful to instructors and students alike and will become a standard reference source Essential for general and academic collections CHOICE This Encyclopedia provides readers with authoritative essays on virtually all social science methods topics quantitative and qualitative by an international collection of experts Organized alphabetically the Encyclopedia of Social Science Research Methods covers research terms ranging from different methodological approaches to epistemological issues and specific statistical techniques Written to be accessible to general readers the Encyclopedia entries do not require advanced knowledge of mathematics or statistics to understand the purposes or basic principles of any of the methods To accomplish this goal there are two major types of entries definitions consisting of a paragraph or two to provide a quick explanation of a methodological term and topical treatments or essays that discuss the nature history applications and implications of using a certain method including suggested readings and references Readers are directed to related topics via cross referenced terms that appear in small capital letters By assembling entries of varied origins and serving different research purposes readers will be able to benefit from this immense source of methodological expertise in advancing their understanding of research With three volumes and more than 900 signed entries the Encyclopedia of Social Science Research Methods will be a critical addition to any social science library

Postmodernism and Organizations

John Hassard Martin Parker,1993-07-13 Essential reading for all those concerned with contemporary theorizing of organization this important and thought provoking volume explores the implications of postmodernist poststructuralist thinking for organizations and organizational analysis The book introduces the concepts underpinning a postmodern organizational analysis contrasting modern and postmodern forms of explanation and addressing the distinctions between postmodernity and postmodernism Succeeding chapters then examine and assess the interplay of major postmodernist themes such as deconstruction desire difference pluralism and relativism with key topics of organizational analysis and research The final section is one of critique as its authors variously argue that postmodernism fails adequately to address the realities of power control and change in a globalizing world

Writing Speculative Fiction

Eugen Bacon,2019-04-24 In this engaging and accessible guide Eugen Bacon explores writing speculative fiction as a creative practice drawing from her own work and the work of other writers and theorists to interrogate its various subgenres Through analysis of writers such as Stephen King J R R Tolkien and J K Rowling this book scrutinises the characteristics of speculative fiction considers the potential of writing cross genre and covers the challenges of targeting young adults It connects critical and cultural theories to the practice of creative writing examining how they might apply to the process of writing speculative fiction Both practical and critical in its evaluative gaze it also looks at e publishing as a promising publishing medium for speculative fiction This is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of creative writing looking to develop a critical awareness of and practical skills for the writing of speculative fiction It is also a valuable resource for creators commentators and consumers of contemporary speculative fiction Chapter 8 Horror and the Paranormal was shortlisted for the Australasian Horror Writers Association AHWA s 2019 Australian Shadows Awards

The Feminist Architecture of Postmodern

Anti-Tales Kendra Reynolds,2019-10-23 This monograph aims to counter the assumption that the anti tale is a subversive

twin or dark side of the fairy tale coin instead it argues that the anti tale is a genre rich in complexity and radical potential that fundamentally challenges the damaging ideologies and socializing influence of fairy tales The Feminist Architecture of Postmodern Anti Tales Space Time and Bodies highlights how anti tales take up timely debates about revising old structures opening our minds up to a broader spectrum of experience or ways of viewing the world and its inhabitants They show us alternative architectures for the future by deconstructing established spatio temporal laws and structures as well as limited ideas surrounding the body and ultimately liberate us from the shackles of a single minded and simplistic masculine reality currently upheld by dominant social forces and patriarchal fairy tales themselves It is only when these masculine fairy tales and social architectures are deconstructed that new more inclusive feminine realities and futures can be brought into being

Adopting the Tune of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Postmodern Approaches To The Short Story

In some sort of eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instant transmission, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony created by the written word frequently diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the relentless noise and interruptions that permeate our lives.
