Postmodern Cartographies The Geographical Imagination In Contemporary American Culture:

Postmodern Cartographies Brian Jarvis, 1998 brilliantly original brings cultural and post colonial theory to bear on a wide range of authors with great skill and sensitivity Terry Eagleton Conceptualising the Global in the Wake of the Postmodern Joel Evans, 2019-03-28 Identifies a return to figurations of the totality in contemporary literature theory and culture Contemporary American Fiction Kenneth Millard, 2000 Millard leads the interpretation of post 1970 fiction by addressing particular authors and themes The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabrications that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates Surveillance, Architecture and Control Susan Flynn, Antonia Mackay, 2019-01-21 This edited collection examines the culture of surveillance as it is expressed in the built environment Expanding on discussions from previous collections Spaces of Surveillance States and Selves 2017 and Surveillance Race Culture 2018 this book seeks to explore instances of surveillance within and around specific architectural entities both historical and fictitious buildings with specific social purposes and those existing in fiction film photography performance and art Providing new readings of and expanding on Foucault's work on the panopticon these essays examine the role of surveillance via disparate fields of enquiry such as the humanities social sciences technological studies design and environmental disciplines Surveillance Architecture and Control seeks to engender new debates about the nature of the surveilled environment through detailed analyses of architectural structures and spaces examining how cultural geographical and built space buttress and produce power relations The various essays address the ongoing fascination with contemporary notions of surveillance and control Chinese Ecocinema Sheldon H. Lu, Jiayan Mi, 2009-12-01 This anthology is a book length study of China's ecosystem through the lens of cinema Proposing ecocinema as a new critical framework the volume collectively investigates a wide range of urgent topics in today s world Southscapes Thadious M. Davis,2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region Thomas Pynchon Simon Malpas,Andrew Taylor,2015-08-01 Now available in paperback this is a comprehensive study of the most influential figure in postwar American literature Over a writing career spanning more than fifty years Thomas Pynchon has been at the forefront of America s engagement with postmodern literary possibilities In chapters that address the full range of Pynchon s career from his earliest short stories and first novel V to his most recent work this book offers highly accessible and detailed readings of a writer whose work is indispensable to understanding how the American novel has met the challenges of postmodernity The authors discuss Pynchon s relationship to literary history his engagement with discourses of science and utopianism his interrogation of imperialism and his preoccupation with the paranoid sensibility Invaluable to Pynchon scholars and to everyone working in the field of contemporary American fiction this study explores how Pynchon s complex narratives work both as exuberant examples of formal experimentation and as serious interventions in the political health of the nation Iain Sinclair Brian Baker,2013-01-18 A clearly written comprehensive critical introduction to one of the most original contemporary British writers providing an overview of all of Sinclair s major works and an analysis of his vision of modern London This book places Sinclair in a range of contexts including the late 1960s counter culture and the British Poetry Revival London s underground histories the rise and fall of Thatcherism and Sinclair s writing about Britain under New Labour Sinclair s connection to other writers and artists such as J G Ballard Michael Moorcock and Marc Atkins This book makes a significant contribution to the growing scholarship surrounding Sinclair s work offering the first critical text that covers in detail all of Sinclair s work his poetry fiction non fiction including his book on John Clare Edge of the Orison and his film work Madness in Post-1945

British and American Fiction C. Baker, P. Crawford, Brian Brown, Maurice Lipsedge, R. Carter, 2010-10-14 A comprehensive and thematic exploration of representations of madness in postwar British and American Fiction this book is relevant to those with interests in literary studies and is a vital read for psychiatric clinicians and professionals who are interested in how literature can inform and enhance clinical practices

The Secret Country Sarah Robertson, 2007 The Secret Country is the first monograph on the work of the contemporary American novelist Jayne Anne Phillips Through detailed and innovative textual analysis this study considers the southern aspects of Phillips writing Robertson demonstrates the importance of Phillips place within the southern literary canon by identifying the echoes of William Faulkner Katherine Anne Porter and Edgar Allan Poe that permeate her work Phillips complex attachments to a regional past are explored through both psychoanalytical and historical materialist approaches revealing not only the writer's distinctly southern preoccupations but also her reflections on contemporary American society Tracing the family dynamics in Phillips work from the turn of the twentieth century to the present this book examines the effects of increased modernization and capitalization on everyday interactions and questions the nature of the author's backward glance to the past This volume is of interest for a wide audience particularly students and scholars of contemporary southern and American literature

Memoirs of Race, Color, and Belonging Nicole Stamat, 2022-06-23 Memoirs of Race Color and Belonging provides a fresh look at the complex dialogue of race and identity in memoir examining three generations of biracial African Americans experiences in their autobiographies Exploring writers from James McBride and Shirlee Taylor Haizlip to Barack Obama Toi Dericotte Natasha Tretheway Rebecca Walker and Emily Raboteau this volume explores the ways in which these memoirists refute terms regarding race and simple understandings of belonging using their contested embodied positions as sites for narration quest and protest Organized chronologically this volume will provide readers insight into memoirs from Jim Crow America to the Civil Rights period and finally those considering the post soul and post Loving v Virginia generation Memoirs of Race Color and Belonging interrogates these difficult spaces surrounding identity construction encouraging new conversations surrounding visibility of mixed race individuals and experiences for future generations Through archives and personal testimony this book provides a model for interweaving theoretical and personal accounts of color in American culture to encourage discussions that transgress disciplinary boundaries in the today's dialogue

History and Narration Marialuisa Bignami, 2011-07-12 The relation between narration and history from the perspective of the twentieth century the century of criticisms suggests a new outlook fit for the new millennium We can no longer look at history and historiography naively but must be aware of the rhetorical strategies that are at work in the writing A research group based in Milan has been working on this topic for a few years discussing authors and texts from different genres and epochs The essays presented here deal with texts chosen because of their intrinsic relevance to the history of English speaking cultures and recent critical perspectives largely but not exclusively indebted to Hayden White Thus the volume considers instances of narrativity and historical discourse in authors as diverse as S Johnson E Chambers C Hill J Raban V Woolf N Mitchison V S Naipaul S Rushdie J M Coetzee A Ghosh Beginning Ethnic American Literatures Helena Grice, 2001-06-23 This text is designed to introduce students not only to ethnic American writers but also to the cultural contexts and literary traditions in which their work is situated Disrupting Early Childhood Education Research Will Parnell, Jeanne Marie Iorio, 2015-12-22 Recent and increasing efforts to standardize young children's academic performance have shifted the emphases of education toward normative practices and away from qualitative substantive intentions Connection to human experience compassion for societal ailments and the joys of learning are straining under the pressure of quantitative research competition and test scores exemplified by federal funding competitions and policymaking Disrupting Early Childhood Education Research critically interrogates the traditional foundations of early childhood research practices to disrupt the status quo through imaginative cutting edge research in diverse U S and international contexts Its chapters are driven by empirical data derived from unique research projects and a variety of contemporary methodologies that include phenomenological studies auto ethnographic writings action oriented studies arts based methodologies and other innovative approaches By giving voice to marginalized social science researchers who are active in learning school and early education sectors this volume explores the meanings of actionable and everyday approaches based on the experiences of young children their families and educators

New Directions in Radical Cartography Phil Cohen, Mike Duggan, 2021-12-17 New Directions in Radical Cartography looks at the contemporary debates about the role of maps in society It explores the emergence of counter mapping as a distinctive field of practice and the impact that digital mapping technologies have had on cartographic practice and theory It includes original research accounts of mapping projects and detailed readings of maps The contributors explore how digital mapping technologies have sponsored a new wave of practices that seek to challenge the power that maps are commonly assumed to have They document the continued vitality of analogue maps in the hands of artists and activists who are pushing the boundaries of what is mappable in different ways New Directions in Radical Cartography draws on a rich body of mapping work that exists as part of community action urban ethnography environmental activism humanitarianism and public engagement Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater A History of Spaces John Pickles, 2012-11-12 This book provides an essential insight into the practices and ideas of maps and map making It draws on a wide range of social theorists and theorists of maps and cartography to show how maps and map making have shaped the spaces in which we live Going beyond the focus of traditional cartography the book draws on examples of the use of maps from the sixteenth century to the present including their role in projects of the national and colonial state emergent capitalism and the planetary consciousness of the natural sciences It also considers the use of maps for military purposes maps that have coded modern conceptions of health disease and social character and maps of the transparent human body and the transparent earth The English Literature Companion Julian Wolfreys, 2017-09-16 What does it mean to study English Literature Have can you navigate and get the most from your degree The English Literature Companion is your comprehensive introduction to and exploration of the discipline of English and Literary Studies It is your advisor on key decisions and your one stop reference source throughout the course It combines A wide ranging introduction to the nature breadth and key components of the study of English Literature Essays by experts in the field on key topics periods and critical approaches A glossary of critical terms and a chronology of literary history Guidance about study skills from using your time effectively to the practical mechanics of writing essays Extensive signposting to wider reading and further sources of information Advice on key decisions taken during a degree and on subsequent career direction and further study Giving you the foundation and resources you need for success in English Literature this book is essential pre course reading and will be an invaluable reference resource throughout your degree Entertainment Theology (Cultural Exegesis) Barry Taylor, 2008-03-01 It s the end of the church as we know it In a digitally connected world people are seeking spiritual answers through pop culture Instead of retreating Christians must rethink the sacred and enter global conversations about God in film literature TV and music or face extinction argues Barry Taylor in Entertainment Theology Taking snapshots from theology cultural studies sociology and pop culture Taylor explores a myriad of factors affecting religious life since the 1970s including technology fashion celebrity and global communications He exhorts a move away from traditional Christian religion proposing instead a manifestation of Christianity as a religion not of the past but of the present and the future For scholars seminary students culture watchers and emerging church readers Entertainment Theology offers thought provoking hope for Christianity s future
