Postmodern Rationality, Social Criticism, and Religion Henry L. Ruf, 2005-02 Ruf philosophy Florida Atlantic U and emeritus West Virginia U explains to undergraduate students some of the ways philosophers have been trying to make sense of things over the past 150 years He analyzes criticizes selectively appropriates and reconstructs writings of existentialists social and cultural critics pragmatists and postmodernists in order to find a coherent interpretation of the current human form of life and its future possibilities Public Relations as Activism Derina R. Holtzhausen, 2013-06-17 This volume applies postmodern theory to public relations providing an alternative lens to public relations theory and practice and developing public relations theory within the context of postmodernism Author Derina R Holtzhausen focuses on two key issues and their application to public relations theory and practice the postmodernization of society and the possibilities postmodern theories offer to explain and understand public relations practice in today s changing society Holtzhausen s argument is that existing theory should be evaluated from a postmodern perspective to determine its applicability to postmodernity Utilizing practitioner perspectives throughout the volume she explores the practice of public relations as a form of activism The volume is intended for scholars and students in public relations It may be used as a supplemental text in advanced courses on public relations theory PR management organizational communication and related areas The Pastor's Personal Friendships: Conflicts, Boundaries, and Benefits David Simmons, 2014-04-28 This book examines the pastor s friendships as they impact a pastor s effectiveness in ministry and his or her personal well being Because friendships require high levels of self disclosure friendships introduce potential conflict for the pastor as personal self disclosure may conflict with the pastor s expected role Taking a qualitative approach this study looks at how pastors navigate the areas of friendship both inside and outside their congregations The research involved interviews with ten congregational pastors and reports themes that emerged from the interviews The researcher developed four friendship types that assist the pastor in balancing pastoral role expectation with expression of vulnerability Gospel of the Absurd Robert Scot Miller, 2017-08-02 Gospel of the Absurd is a project that originates in the anarchic experiences of a crack cocaine addict who was knocked off his high horse by an experience of Jesus Having spent years as an enemy of the faith R Scot Miller came back to faith with the passion of a new convert infused with a subversive s heart for turning the world upside down In the process of stumbling every bit as much as he learned to walk in the light Miller begins to understand that the subversive claims of the gospel of Jesus as the Christ are not only the most meaningful response to the absurdity of the world but that such absurdity demands a community of action that makes the subversive Christ the credible response to a culture and Christendom run amok with power and greed Gospel of the Absurd is about an ethic informed by an absurd claim that being the claim that voluntary sacrifice of privilege is the proper response to human brokenness and the systems of domination that have lured the church into apostasy Miller then explores whether the church by prioritizing care ethics over legislative or coercive justice is the salvific experience Jesus is calling us to engage in Eating Identities Wenying Xu,2018-03-31 The French epicure and gastronome Brillat Savarin declared Tell me what you eat and I will tell you who you are Wenying Xu infuses this notion with cultural political energy by extending it to an ethnic group known for its cuisines Asian Americans She begins with the general argument that eating is a means of becoming not simply in the sense of nourishment but more importantly of what we choose to eat what we can afford to eat what we secretly crave but are ashamed to eat in front of others and how we eat Food as the most significant medium of traffic between the inside and outside of our bodies organizes signifies and legitimates our sense of self and distinguishes us from others who practice different foodways Narrowing her scope Xu reveals how cooking eating and food fashion Asian American identities in terms of race ethnicity gender class diaspora and sexuality She provides lucid and informed interpretations of seven Asian American writers John Okada Joy Kogawa Frank Chin Li Young Lee David Wong Louie Mei Ng and Monique Truong and places these identity issues in the fascinating spaces of food hunger consumption appetite desire and orality Asian American literature abounds in culinary metaphors and references but few scholars have made sense of them in a meaningful way Most literary critics perceive alimentary references as narrative strategies or part of the background Xu takes food as the central site of cultural and political struggles waged in the seemingly private domain of desire in the lives of Asian Americans Eating Identities is the first book to link food to a wide range of Asian American concerns such as race and sexuality Unlike most sociological studies which center on empirical analyses of the relationship between food and society it focuses on how food practices influence psychological and ontological formations and thus contributes significantly to the growing field of food studies For students of literature this tantalizing work offers an illuminating lesson on how to read the multivalent meanings of food and eating in literary texts Zen Skin, Zen Marrow Steven Heine,2008 Since Zen Buddhism first captivated the attention of Western seekers the dominant discourse about this sect has been romantic idealistic and utopian Some scholars have begun to examine Zen through the lenses of historical and cultural criticism producing a sharp challenge to the traditional view This text investigates Explorations in Classical Sociological Theory: Seeing the Social World Kenneth Allan,2012-04-30 Kenneth Allan emphasizes theory as a constructive thinking enterprise by including chapters devoted to teaching students how to think theoretically Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 28 Andrew Village,Ralph W. Hood,2017-07-10 This volume of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion includes a wide range of papers from a social science perspective The special section gives a unique insight into the rapidly growing field of psychological studies of religion in China It draws on experts from China and the USA who met for a conference at Fuller Theological Seminary and have together compiled a collection of original research and reviews that helps to locate the current state of the discipline from a specifically Chinese perspective Other papers in the volume examine intergenerational religious transmission and religious problem solving styles in the USA Durkheim and Postmodern Culture Stjepan Mestrovic,2017-09-29 The present work is an elaboration of the author s previous efforts in Emile Durkheim and the Reformation of Sociology 1988 and The Coming of Age of the Secular 1991 to demonstrate Durkheim's neglected relevance to the postmodern discourse. The aims include finding affinities between our fin de siècle and Durkheim's fin de siècle and connecting the contemporary themes of rebellion against Enlightenment narratives found in postmodern culture with similar concerns found in Durkheim's sociology as well as in his fin de siècle culture contributing to Durkheimian scholarship as well as to the postmodern discourse. The distinctive aspects of the present study flow from the focus on culture, communication, and the feminine voice in culture. Durkheim is approached as a fin de siècle student of culture and his insights applied to our fin de siècle culture. Furthermore, because Durkheim claimed that culture is comprised primarily of collective representations, he was a forerunner of the current postmodern concerns with communication. Because Durkheim shall be read in the context of his fin de siècle, this book shall lead to the conclusion that Durkheim was a kind of psychoanalyst such that society is the patient, culture comprises the symptoms, and the sociologist must decipher, decode, and even deconstruct collective representations. Yet the Durkheimian deconstruction proposed here is unlike the postmodern deconstructions which criticize and tear apart a text without substituting a better meaning or interpretation. Postmodern discourse has made respectable again the synthesis of multidisciplinary insights that was fashionable in Durkheim's fin de siècle. In following this postmodern strategy, this book is more than a book about Durkheim. It is also a book about his contemporaries among them Carl Gustav Jung, Thorstein Veblen, Henry Adams, Georg Simmel, and Max Weber. The author does not follow the postmodern strategy completely because he f

Philosophy of Sex and Love

Alan Soble, 2008-09. This introductory textbook is an overview of the nature and the ethics of the many aspects of sex and love. Provided by publisher. Rationality, Humility, and Spirituality in Christian Life. Dennis Hiebert, 2020-02-27. As Euro-American culture turns resolutely away from religiosity toward spirituality and becomes increasingly post-Christian, the ordinary everyday practice of Christian life is ever more questioned and in need of scrutiny. In this interdisciplinary analysis, Christians are first called to comprehend the excessive rationality that modernity has built into both the cognitive and organizational structure of contemporary Christian life. They are then summoned to personify an authentic attitude of humility and, in particular, the virtue of intellectual humility that is most challenged and tested by religious convictions. Going forward, Christians are subsequently invited to live their faith more as an internally differentiated and open spirituality rather than an externally determined and regulated religiosity. When we exhaust our rationality and are confronted with its limitations, we are humbled by our finitude and animated by our spirituality. The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism. and the performing arts The concepts section too has been enhanced with new topics ranging from hypermedia to global warming Students interested in any aspect of postmodernism will continue to find this an indispensable resource

The 'Postmodern Turn' in the Social Sciences Simon Susen, 2015-07-23 Simon Susen examines the impact of the postmodern turn on the contemporary social sciences On the basis of an innovative five dimensional approach this study provides a systematic comprehensive and critical account of the legacy of the postmodern turn notably in terms of its continuing relevance in the twenty first century The Postmodernist Critique of the Project of Enlightenment Sven-Eric Liedman, 2023-12-14 The principal task of the book series Pozna Studies in the Philosophy of the Sciences and the Humanities is to promote those developments in philosophy that respect the tradition of great philosophical ideas on the one hand and the manner of philosophical thinking introduced by analytical philosophy on the other One of the standing aims of the series in the past has been to provide a forum of exchange of ideas between philosophers of both sides of the Iron Curtain The series publishes guest edited volumes devoted to the philosophy of the natural sciences the social sciences and the humanities as well as to foundational topics in metaphysics epistemology and social philosophy Jewish Philosophy and Psychoanalysis Michael D. Oppenheim, 2006-01-01 What distinguishes one human from another What exactly does it mean to discover your true self In Jewish Philosophy and Psychoanalysis Michael Oppenheim added a modern twist to the age old theories of psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud with the interjection of Jewish Philosophy The Illusion of Psychotherapy William M. Epstein, 2011-12-31 In The Illusion of Psychotherapy William Epstein asserts that psychotherapy is probably ineffective and possibly harmful He maintains that there is no credible clinical evidence that psychotherapy is effective in handling personal or social problems or that it is more effective than other modes of treatment The theories that underpin clinical practice remain speculative and their influence over social policy are more ideological than scientific A skeptical public and its government would be better served Epstein says by credible evidence of outcomes His analysis focuses on whether psychotherapy is effective against a variety of unwanted behaviors such as drug addiction and depression The nation's social problems are due to the inadequacies of its core social institutions families communities education and jobs Social problems emerge because many people are brought up in deficient families live in dangerous communities lack education and jobs and have few or no routes out of poverty Poor people are exposed to unrelenting risks to their physical and mental health It is possible to remedy most deficiencies through human services that compensate for these failed social institutions This position is inevitably unpopular in psychotherapeutic circles and in light of current political preferences since it requires massive new resources and extensive redistribution of existing resources The extent of society's problems reflects the degree to which deficits in basic social institutions have been tolerated Basic services have been lacking while psychotherapy diverts our impulse to address poverty into ineffective strategies In a challenging conclusion Epstein urges society to solve its problems by confronting the reality implied by the failure of psychotherapy's minimal interventions to acknowledge that more is necessary to resolve social need This leads to general theoretical concerns about theory as such The Illusion of Psychotherapy will be compelling reading for psychologists psychotherapists social scientists and policymakers

Postmodernism, Literature, and the Future of Theology David Jasper, 2009-06-16 These essays set out to consider the possible future of theology in the light of the so called postmodern condition They are necessarily deeply interdisciplinary since it is a characteristic of post Enlightenment thought to disintegrate the lines of definition which separate areas of reflection in the human sciences Theology we believe must be exposed to the consequences of what has happened in literature and critical theory if it is to have any future outside the protected and isolated environment of ecclesia and the communities of the faithful The authors represent a great diversity of opinion and discipline Not all of us would agree with one another and certainly there is no agreement as to what constitutes postmodernity Yet this very diversity forms the strength and importance of the book for there are no simple answers or straightforward definitions Theology must recognize the pluralism within which it now must carry out its task and which alone defines its future The keynote of the discussion is the tragic Tragedy takes us back to the Greeks and to Nietzsche Both feature centrally in this presentation It also suggests a future a return perhaps through literature to theology and not merely an end of the story as it has been traditionally sold
