Postmodernism And Christian Philosophy:

Postmodernism and Christian Philosophy Roman Theodore Ciapalo, 1996-12-31 The contributors to Postmodernism and Christian Philosophy bring a wealth of philosophical insights and methodological approaches to bear on a common concern namely the possibility and extent of a fruitful dialogue between Christian philosophy and postmodern thought They tackle the timely question of how realism ought to respond to the threat to what Gilson called the Western Creed posed by modernity's heir apparent Enriched and invigorated by the insights of St Thomas Jacques Maritain Yves R Simon and others the articles assembled in this volume offer a provocative vision of the way in which a world bearing the imprint of modernity can nevertheless avoid succumbing to the false alternative proposed by postmodernism Contributors include Benedict M Ashley O P Don T Asselin Michael Baur David B Burrell C S C John Deely Curtis L Hancock Thomas S Hibbs Gregory J Kerr John F X Knasas Joseph W Koterski S J James L Marsh Matthew S Pugh Gregory M Reichberg Robert Royal James V Schall S J Rosalind Smith Edman Brendan Sweetman Joseph M de Torre Merold Westphal and Robert E Wood ABOUT THE EDITOR Roman T Ciapalo is associate professor of philosophy at Loras College in Dubuque Iowa

Christianity and the Postmodern Turn Myron B. Penner, 2005-07-01 In our post Cold War post colonial post Christian world Western culture is experiencing a dramatic shift Correspondingly says Myron Penner recent philosophy has taken a postmodern turn in which traditional concepts of reality truth language and knowledge have been radically altered if not discarded Here James K A Smith John Franke Merold Westphal Kevin Vanhoozer Douglas Geivett and R Scott Smith respond to the question What perils and or promises does the postmodern turn hold for the tasks of Christian thinkers Addressing topics such as the nature of rationality and biblical faith the relationship of language to reality and the impact of postmodern concerns on ethics this book presents a variety of positions in vigorous dialogue with each other

God, the Gift, and Postmodernism John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 1999-12-22 Pushing past the constraints of postmodernism which cast reason and religion in opposition God the Gift and Postmodernism seizes the opportunity to question the authority of the modern and open the limits of possible experience including the call to religious experience as a new millennium approaches Jacques Derrida the father of deconstruction engages with Jean Luc Marion and other religious philosophers to entertain questions about intention givenness and possibility which reveal the extent to which deconstruction is structured like religion New interpretations of Kant Heidegger Husserl and Derrida emerge from essays and discussions with distinguished philosophers and theologians from the United States and Europe The result is that God the Gift and Postmodernism elaborates a radical phenomenology that stretches the limits of its possibility and explores areas where philosophy and religion have become increasingly and surprisingly convergent Contributors include John D Caputo John Dominic Crossan Jacques Derrida Robert Dodaro Richard Kearney Jean Luc Marion Frangoise Meltzer Michael J Scanlon Mark C Taylor David Tracy Merold Westphal and Edith Wyschogrod stunning collection of essays by Merold Westphal one of America's leading continental philosophers of religion in which Westphal carefully explores the nature and the structure of a postmodern Christian philosophy. Written with characteristic clarity and charm Westphal offers masterful studies of Heidegger's early lectures on Paul and Augustine the idea of hermeneutics Schleiermacher Hegel Derrida and Nietzsche all in the service of building his argument that postmodern thinking offers an indispensable tool for rethinking Christian faith. A must read for every student and professor of continental philosophy and the philosophy of religion. Overcoming Onto-theology is an invaluable collection that brings together in one place fourteen provocative and lucid essays by one of the most important thinkers working in American philosophy today.

Postmodern Philosophy and Christian Thought Merold Westphal, 1999-11-22 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian thought so diametrically opposed that never the twain shall meet? Or are various postmodern philosophies in spite of their secular provenance open to religious appropriation? These thirteen lively original essays awaken secular postmodernisms and various modes of Christian thinking from their ideological complacency. An open space for passionate dialogue emerges from conversations that powerfully engage both intellectual and religious points of view. Truth Decay Douglas

Groothuis, 2009-09-20 A 2001 Christianity Today Award of Merit winner. The concept of truth as absolute, objective and universal has undergone serious deterioration in recent years. No longer is it a goal for all to pursue. Rather postmodernism sees truth as inseparable from culture, psychology, race and gender. Ultimately truth is what we make it to be. What factors have accelerated this decay of truth? Why are people willing to embrace such a devalued concept? How does this new view compare and contrast with a Christian understanding? While postmodernism contains some truthful insights despite its attempt to dethrone truth, Douglas Groothuis sees its basic tenets as intellectually flawed and hostile to Christian views. In this spirited presentation of a solid biblical and logical perspective Groothuis unveils how truth has come under attack and how it can be defended in the vital areas of theology, apologetics, ethics and the arts. How Postmodernism Serves (My)

Faith Crystal L. Downing, 2006-05-15 Crystal L. Downing introduces students especially those in the arts to postmodernism where it came from and how Christians can best understand critique and benefit from its insights. Postmodern

Christianity and the Reconstruction of the Christian Mind James P. Danaher, 2001 A philosophic critique of modernism in Christian thought, this monograph discusses the unrealistic and mechanistic excesses of modernism and seeks to define and defend a postmodern Christian intellectual paradigm. While this is the work of a Christian philosopher and not a theologian, a strong interest in Catholic hermeneutics and scripture is present in Danaher's thinking. Varieties of Postmodern Theology

David Ray Griffin, 1989-07-01 This book sorts out the confusion created by the use of the term postmodern in relation to widely divergent theological positions. Four different types of postmodern theology are distinguished in the preface: constructive, deconstructive, liberationist and conservative. Two forms of each type are discussed in the book. Writing from a constructive postmodern perspective, the authors enter into dialogue with the deconstructive postmodernism of Mark C.

Taylor and Jean Fran ois Lyotard with the liberationist postmodernism of Harvey Cox and Cornel West and with the conservative postmodernism of George William Rutler and John Paul II      Postmodernism 101 Heath White,2006-07 An accessible introduction to the ideas of postmodernism and postmodernism s relationship to Christianity      Christianity and the Postmodern Turn Myron B. Penner,2005-07 Addresses the promises and perils of postmodernity for the church today

The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer,2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without      Christian Worldview Vs. Postmodernism Dave Armstrong,2007-04-27 Examination and rational comparison of the Christian and postmodernist philosophies with in depth treatment of such important topics as the problem of evil the problem of good and meaningfulness in atheism miracles the relationship of Christianity to science and scientific method atheist unproven axioms and premises and the cosmological and teleological arguments for God s existence      Who's Afraid of the Unmoved Mover? Andrew I. Shephardson,2019-02-12 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian theology compatible A surprising number of Christian philosophers and theologians think so However these same thinkers argue that postmodern insights entail the rejection of natural theology the ability to discover knowledge about the existence and nature of God in the natural world Postmodernism they claim shows that appealing to nature to demonstrate or infer the existence of God is foolish because these appeals rely on modernity s outmoded grounds for knowledge Moreover natural theology and apologetics are often hindrances to authentic Christian faith Notions like objectivity and rationality are forms of idolatry from which Christians should repent This book carefully examines the nature of truth rationality general revelation and evangelism to show that the postmodern objections fail and that Christians ought to lovingly and faithfully use natural theology and apologetics to defend and commend the Christian faith to a world in need of the knowledge of God      God and Post-modern Thought Józef Życiński,2010      The Logic of Incarnation Neal DeRoo,Brian Lightbody,2009-01-01 With his Logic of Incarnation James K A Smith has provided a compelling critique of the universalizing tendencies in some strands of postmodern philosophy of religion A truly postmodern account of religion must take seriously the preference for particularity first evidenced in the Christian account of the incarnation of God Moving beyond the urge to universalize which characterizes modern thought Smith argues that it is only by taking seriously particular differences historical religious and doctrinal that we can be authentically religious and authentically postmodern Smith remains hugely influential in both academic discourse and church movements This book is the first organized attempt to bring both of these aspects of Smith s work into conversation with each other and with him With articles from an internationally respected group of philosophers theologians pastors and laypeople the entire range of Smith s considerable influence is represented here Discussing questions of embodiment eschatology inter religious dialogue dogma and difference this book opens all the most relevant issues in postmodern religious life to a unique and penetrating critique

Who's Afraid of Postmodernism? (The Church and Postmodern Culture) James K. A. Smith, 2006-04-01 The philosophies of French thinkers Derrida Lyotard and Foucault form the basis for postmodern thought and are seemingly at odds with the Christian faith However James K A Smith claims that their ideas have been misinterpreted and actually have a deep affinity with central Christian claims Each chapter opens with an illustration from a recent movie and concludes with a case study considering recent developments in the church that have attempted to respond to the postmodern condition such as the emerging church movement These case studies provide a concrete picture of how postmodern ideas can influence the way Christians think and worship This significant book winner of a Christianity Today 2007 Book Award avoids philosophical jargon and offers fuller explanation where needed It is the first book in the Church and Postmodern Culture series which provides practical applications for Christians engaged in ministry in a postmodern world

Postmodernism and the Ethics of Theological Knowledge Justin Thacker, 2016-04-08 This book establishes the necessary integration of theological knowledge with theological ethics It does this as a response to the postmodern critique of Christianity as exemplified in Rorty and Lyotard They argue that any claim to know God is necessarily tyrannical Contemporary responses to such postmodern thinking often fail to address adequately the ethical critique that is made This book redresses that balance by suggesting that our knowledge of God and love of the Other are so intimately connected that we cannot have one without the other In the absence of love then we simply do not know God Justin Thacker proposes that an effective theological response to postmodernity must address both knowledge and ethics in an integrated fashion as presented in this book

Truth Considered and Applied Stewart E. Kelly, 2011-07-05 A classroom text for philosophy and theology students learning to defend Christianity with love and truth in the context of history and against the challenges of postmodernist thought

What Would Jesus Deconstruct? (The Church and Postmodern Culture) John D. Caputo, 2007-11-01 This provocative addition to The Church and Postmodern Culture series offers a lively rereading of Charles Sheldon s In His Steps as a constructive way forward John D Caputo introduces the notion of why the church needs deconstruction positively defines deconstruction s role in renewal deconstructs idols of the church and imagines the future of the church in addressing the practical implications of this for the church s life through liturgy worship preaching and teaching Students of philosophy theology religion and ministry as well as others interested in engaging postmodernism and the emerging church phenomenon
