Care sunt soluțiile pe care Tradiția Bisericii le mai are la îndemână pentru a mântui adevărul kerigmei apostolice într-o lume culturală care îi face pierdute rădăcinile sale spirituale creștine. Cum pot fi înțepinate subiectivismul hermeneutic și relativismul postmodern aplicate religioasă. Ce anse mai are creștinul în fața culturii de astăzi și de ce secularizarea nu reprezintă împlinirea creștinismului. Volumul de față încearcă să răspundă la toate aceste întrebări prin apelul la teologia apofatică și arată că în definitiv teza depășirii metafizicii susținută de gândirea slabă este printre altele consecință teologică și nu înseamnă renunțarea la morală dogmatică. Biserica și Tradiția poate fi la răscrucea ei depășită.

METAMORFOZELE OVIDIENE ÎN DIALOG CU LITERATURA ROMÂNĂ MODERNĂ ȘI POSTMODERNĂ VALENTINA PETCU VELICU, 2018-01-01. Această lucrare își propune să realizeze un studiu de literatură comparată care are ca scop evidențierea valorificării temelor antice prin interpretarea analitică a elementelor comune identificate în Metamorfozele lui Ovidius și în literatura română modernă și postmodernă.

The 1980s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Philip Tew, Emily Horton, Leigh Wilson, 2014-02-27. How did social, cultural and political events in Britain during the 1980s shape contemporary British fiction? Setting the fiction squarely within the context of Conservative politics and questions about culture and national identity, this volume reveals how the decade associated with Thatcherism frames the work of Kazuo Ishiguro, Martin Amis and Graham Swift of Scottish novelists and new diasporic writers. How and why 1980s fiction is a response to particular psychological, social and economic pressures is explored in detail. Drawing on the rise of individualism and the birth of neo-liberalism, contributors reflect on the tense relations between 1980s politics and realism and between elegy and satire. Noting the creation of a heritage industry during the decade, the rise of the historical novel is also considered against broader cultural changes. Viewed from the perspective of more recent theorisations of crisis following both 9/11 and the 21st century financial crash, this study makes sense of why and how writers of the 1980s constructed fictions in response to this decade's own set of fundamental crises.

Postcolonial Perspectives on Postcommunism in Central and Eastern Europe Dorota Kołodziejczyk, Cristina Șandru, 2017-10-02. A quarter of a century after the fall of the Berlin Wall and from the vantage point of a post-Cold War globalised world, there is a need to address the relative neglect of postcommunism in analysis of postcolonial and neo-colonial configurations of power and influence. This book proposes new critical perspectives on several themes and concepts that have emerged within or been propagated by postcolonial studies. These themes include structures of exclusion/inclusion, formations of nationalism, structures of othering and representations of difference, forms and historical realisations of anti-colonial/anti-imperial struggle, the experience of trauma involving issues of collective memory, amnesia and the re-writing of history, resistance as a complex of cultural practices and concepts such as alterity, ambivalence, self-colonisation, dislocation, hegemonic discourse, minority and subaltern cultures. Taken together, this volume suggests that some of the methodological instruments of postcolonial criticism can be fruitfully applied to the study of postcommunist cultures and conversely that the experience of the Soviet brand of imperialist rule in the form of communism in East-Central Europe can function as an ideological moderator in Third World-oriented Marxist-inspired postcolonial

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe: Types and stereotypes Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800-1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region's literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature's participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region's literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region
