Postmodernity In Latin America The Argentine Paradigm Post Contemporary Interventions:

Postmodernity in Latin America Santiago Colás,1994-11-07 Postmodernity in Latin America contests the prevailing understanding of the relationship between postmodernity and Latin America by focusing on recent developments in Latin American and particularly Argentine political and literary culture While European and North American theorists of postmodernity generally view Latin American fiction without regard for its political and cultural context Latin Americanists often either uncritically apply the concept of postmodernity to Latin American literature and society or reject it in an equally uncritical fashion The result has been both a limited understanding of the literature and an impoverished notion of postmodernity Santiago Colás challenges both of these approaches and corrects their consequent distortions by locating Argentine postmodernity in the cultural dynamics of resistance as it operates within and against local expressions of late capitalism Focusing on literature Colás uses Julio Cortázar's Hopscotch to characterize modernity for Latin America as a whole Manuel Puig's Kiss of the Spider Woman to identify the transition to a more localized postmodernity and Ricardo Piglia's Artificial Respiration to exemplify the cultural coordinates of postmodernity in Argentina Informed by the cycle of political transformation beginning with the Cuban Revolution including its effects on Peronism to the period of dictatorship and finally to redemocratization Colás's examination of this literary progression leads to the reconstruction of three significant moments in the history of Argentina His analysis provokes both a revised understanding of that history and the recognition that multiple meanings of postmodernity must be understood in ways that incorporate the complexity of regional differences Offering a new voice in the debate over postmodernity one that challenges that debate's leading thinkers Postmodernity in Latin America will be of particular interest to students of Latin American literature and to scholars in all disciplines concerned with theories of the postmodern

The Trash Phenomenon Stacey Michele Olster,2003 The Trash Phenomenon looks at how writers of the late twentieth century not only have integrated the events artifacts and theories of popular culture into their works but also have used those works as windows into popular culture's role in the process of nation building Taking her cue from Donald Barthelme's 1967 portrayal of popular culture as trash and Don DeLillo's 1997 description of it as a subversive people's history Stacey Olster explores how literature recycles American popular culture so as to change the nationalistic imperative behind its inception The Trash Phenomenon begins with a look at the mass media's role in the United States emergence as the twentieth century's dominant power Olster discusses the works of three authors who collectively span the century bounded by the Spanish American War 1898 and the Persian Gulf War 1991 Gore Vidal's American Chronicle series John Updike's Rabbit tetralogy and Larry Beinhart's American Hero Olster then turns her attention to three non American writers whose works explore the imperial sway of American popular culture on their nation's value systems hierarchical class structure in Dennis Potter's England Peronism in Manuel Puig's Argentina and

Nihonjinron consensus in Haruki Murakami's Japan Finally Olster returns to American literature to look at the contemporary media spectacle and the representative figure as potential sources of national consolidation after November 1963 Olster first focuses on autobiographical historical and fictional accounts of three spectacles in which the formulae of popular culture are shown to bypass differences of class gender and race the John F Kennedy assassination the Scarsdale Diet Doctor murder and the O J Simpson trial She concludes with some thoughts about the nature of American consolidation after 9 11

Projections of Peronism in Argentine Autobiography, Biography and Fiction Lloyd Hughes Davies, 2007 As shown by the worldwide success of both the stage and film versions of Evita Eva Perón continues to arouse interest beyond the borders of Argentina Within the country she holds near mythic status yet the effect of Peronism on Argentine culture demands to be better understood Lloyd Hughes Davies opens a new dimension on Perón's impact by widening the traditional focus on her influence on literature to include autobiographies and biographies In the process he demonstrates how the boundaries between the novel life writing and historical writing have become increasingly blurred Angeles Mastretta Jane Elizabeth Lavery, 2005 The first major study on the works of the Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta demonstrating the rich complexity and range of the author's fiction and essays The Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta b 1949 has only recently received serious critical attention largely because her work has been seen as popular and therefore inappropriate for academic study This first major work to be published on Mastretta seeks to demonstrate the rich complexity and range of the author's fiction and essays In the tradition of Post Boom Latin American women's writing Mastretta's texts are motivated by a desire to speak primarily of the silenced experiences and voices of women Two of her novels referential and testimonial in style can be placed within the Mexican Revolutionary Novel tradition and explore the Revolutionary period and its consequences in the light of female experiences and perspectives The hitherto unexplored themes of female sexuality and bodily erotics in Mastretta's texts are also considered in this volume Her feminist works avoid facile simplifications heterogeneous and dialogical they interweave the historical and the fictional the everyday and the fantastic The originality of Mastretta's writing lies in its elusive postmodern ambiguities shimmering surfaces are often interrupted by unexpected depths and proliferating meanings cannot be fully circumscribed by critical analysis Jane Elizabeth Lavery lectures in Latin American Studies at the University of Kent *Latin American Studies Association ...
