Authenticity in Culture, Self, and Society J. Patrick Williams, 2016-12-05 Across sociology and cultural studies in particular the concept of authenticity has begun to occupy a central role yet in spite of its popularity as an ideal and philosophical value authenticity notably suffers from a certain vagueness with work in this area tending to borrow ideas from outside of sociology whilst failing to present empirical studies which centre on the concept itself Authenticity in Culture Self and Society addresses the problems surrounding this concept offering a sociological analysis of it for the first time in order to provide readers in the social and cultural sciences with a clear conceptualization of authenticity and with a survey of original empirical studies focused on its experience negotiation and social relevance at the levels of self culture and specific social settings

Old Roots, New Routes Pamela Fox, Barbara Ching, 2025-10-01 Old Roots New Routes takes an in depth look at the many influences meanings and identities of this contemporary music form Because the definition of the term alt country changes continually even the genre s own mouthpiece the Web site nodepression com declared its terrain to be alternative country whatever that is Despite alt country s murky parameters its origins indeed its patron saints are generally acknowledged to range from the Carter Family and Hank Williams as interpreters of traditional American country to the country rock fusions of Gram Parsons and Steve Earle Just as other musical genres before it have distanced themselves from the popular and commercial center from the start alt country has positioned itself as a different kind of music than the slick country sounds emanating from Nashville hit machines such as Garth Brooks and Shania Twain

And yet alt country's embrace of authenticity and disdain for commercialism while simultaneously injecting into a traditional working class music form an often cosmopolitan flavor and Generation X values has resulted in a fascinating hybrid full of contradictions. In Old Roots New Routes Pamela Fox and Barbara Ching bring together a range of scholars to investigate as never before this significant contemporary music form providing in addition new ways to approach the worlds of country and alternative music more generally. Individual essays explore the work of a variety of artists including Neko Case, Jay Farrar, Justin Trevino and alt country hero Gram Parsons along with promotional rhetoric, album art, advertising and fan Web sites to offer readers a comprehensive understanding of how alt country functions as a distinct musical form. Pamela Fox is Associate Professor of English and currently the Director of the Women's and Gender Studies Program at Georgetown University. She is the author of Class Fictions: Shame and Resistance in the British Working Class Novel 1890-1945. Barbara Ching is Associate Professor at the University of Memphis. Her previous books include Wrong's What I Do Best: Hard Country Music and Contemporary Culture and Knowing Your Place: Rural Identity and Cultural Hierarchy, coedited with Gerald Creed. The Consumption and Representation of Lifestyle Sports Belinda Wheaton, 2014-06-11 Since their emergence in the 1960s, lifestyle sports also referred to as action sport, extreme sports, adventure sports, have experienced unprecedented growth both in terms of participation and in their increased visibility across public and private space. This book seeks to explore the changing representation and consumption of lifestyle sport in the twenty-first century. The essays, which cover a range of sports and geographical contexts including Brazil, Europe, North America and Australasia, focus on three themes. First, essays scrutinise aspects of the commercialisation process and impact of the media, reviewing and reconsidering theoretical frameworks to understand these processes. The scholars here emphasise the need to move beyond simplistic understandings of commercialisation as co-optation and resistance to capture the complexity and messiness of the process and of the relationships between the cultural industries, participants and consumers. The second theme examines gender identity and representations, exploring the potential of lifestyle sport to be a politically transformative space in relation to gender, sexuality and race. The last theme explores new theoretical directions in research on lifestyle sport, including insights from philosophy, sociology and cultural geography. The themes the monograph addresses are wide-reaching and centrally concerned with the changing meaning of sport and sporting identity in the twenty-first century. This book was previously published as a Special Issue of Sport in Society. Shane Meadows Martin Fradley, 2013-07-31 Explores the full range of Shane Meadows' work from its origins in local, no-budget, D.I.Y. media through to international festival acclaim and multiple award wins. The Berg Companion to Fashion Valerie Steele, 2015-08-01 An essential reference for students, curators and scholars of fashion, cultural studies and the expanding range of disciplines that see fashion as imbued with meaning far beyond the material. Over 300 in-depth entries covering designers, articles of clothing, key concepts and styles. Metal on Merseyside Nedim Hassan, 2021-09-14 This is the first book to examine the partially hidden history of metal music scenes within the city of Liverpool and the surrounding region of Merseyside in the North West of England It reveals that while Liverpool has historically been portrayed as a certain kind of music city metal has been marginalized within its music heritage narratives This marginality was not inevitable The book illustrates how it is not merely the product of historical representation but the result of forces of urban change and regional shifts in the economy of live music Nor is this marginality inconsequential Drawing on ethnographic research Nedim Hassan demonstrates that it has influenced how the region's metal scenes are perceived and how people feel towards them Metal on Merseyside reveals how various people involved with such scenes work within often challenging circumstances to sustain the production of metal music and events It also reveals the tensions that arise as scene members' desires for an ideal metal community collide with forces of change Metal on Merseyside is therefore a fascinating barometer for the contradictions apparent when people engage in creative labour to produce music that they love
