African Pottery Roulettes Past and Present Anne Haour, K. Manning, N. Arazi, O. Gosselain, 2010-07-10 African Pottery Roulettes Past and Present considers ethnographic museological and archaeological approaches to pottery decorating tools called roulettes that is to say short lengths of fibre or wood that are rolled over the surface of a vessel for decoration This book sets out for the first time a solid typology for the classification of African pottery decorated with such tools and forges a consensus on common methodology and standards It gives an overview of history of research into roulette decoration in Africa and elsewhere Jomon Japan Neolithic Europe Siberia and New York among others outlines the contemporary distribution of roulette usage in sub Saharan Africa today a success story from Senegal to Tanzania and proposes methodologies for the identification of selected roulette decoration types in the archaeological record By achieving standardisation in pottery analysis this book will help researchers make meaningful comparisons between different sites of West Africa and thus guide further research on the West African past As roulette decoration has been such a global phenomenon in the past the book will also be of interest to all researchers with an interest in ceramics from different parts of the world

Historical Dictionary of Ghana David Owusu-Ansah, 2014-02-27 Ghana the former British colony of the Gold Coast is historically known for being the first country to the south of the Sahara to attain political independence from colonial rule It is known for its exports of cocoa and a variety of minerals especially gold and it is now an oil exporting country But Ghana's importance to the African continent is not only seen in its natural resources or its potential to expand its agricultural output Rather the nation's political history of nationalism the history of military engagement in politics record of economic depression and the ability to rise from the ashes of political and economic decay is the most unique character of the country This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Ghana covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 900 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ghana

Global Plantations in the Modern World Colette Le Petitcorps, Marta Macedo, Irene Peano, 2023-02-02 Taking a multidisciplinary and global approach this edited book examines the dynamic role of plantations as productive socio political and ecological forms throughout imperial and post colonial worlds spanning multiple and broad temporalities Showcasing an expansive range of case studies across different geographies the collection sheds light on the heterogeneity of plantations and offers insights into the afterlives spectres and remnants of systems that have been analysed as schemes of production extraction and authority

Focusing on the expansion of plantation systems throughout various political economic and ecological projects and across the modern and post modern period allows the authors to move beyond analyses that often deal with individual empires through human centered lenses The contributors explore resistance to the mechanisms of extraction and control that plantations and their afterlives demanded shedding light on their excesses contradictions failures and deviations Offering a comprehensive treatment of global plantations this book provides valuable reading for researchers with an interest in the socio political and environmental effects of colonialism and imperialism in their various guises Chapters 1 8 and 11 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Current Perspectives in the Archaeology of Ghana Anquandah, James, Kankpeyeng, Benjamin, 2015-04-26 This collection of essays on archaeology and heritage studies is authored by local and expatriate scholars who are either past or current practitioners in archaeological work in Ghana They are from Ghana UK US and Canada The subject matter covered includes the history and evolution of the discipline in Ghana the method and theory or how to do it in archaeology field research reports and syntheses on findings from past and recent investigations The eclectic or multidisciplinary strategy has been the research vogue in Ghanaian archaeology recently and this is reflected in the various chapters The essays engage with current theoretical trends in global archaeology and also focus on the role and status of archaeology as a discipline in Ghanaian society today Archaeology is a relatively novel subject to many in Ghana This Reader will therefore be a huge asset to local students and experts alike Foreign scholars will also find it very useful

The Akan Diaspora in the Americas Kwasi Konadu, 2010-05-12 In his groundbreaking study of the Akan diaspora Konadu demonstrates how this cultural group originating in West Africa both engaged in and went beyond the familiar diasporic themes of maroonage resistance and freedom Between the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries the Akan never formed a majority among other Africans in the Americas But their leadership skills in war and political organization efficacy in medicinal plant use and spiritual practice and culture archived in the musical traditions language and patterns of African diasporic life far outweighed their sheer numbers Konadu argues that a composite Akan culture calibrated between the Gold Coast and forest fringe made the contributions of the Akan diaspora possible The book examines the Akan experience in Guyana Jamaica Antigua Barbados former Danish and Dutch colonies and North America and how those early experiences foreground the modern engagement and movement of diasporic Africans and Akan people between Ghana and North America Locating the Akan variable in the African diasporic equation allows scholars and students of the Americas to better understand how the diasporic quilt came to be and is still evolving

Historical Archaeology in Nigeria Kit W. Wesler, 1998 The case studies included in this collection range from the coast of Lagos State through the Yoruba inland once dominated by Oyo and Ibadan to Benin City seat of the great pre colonial empire north to Zungeru seat of colonial administration under Lord Lugard and the Jos Plateau homeland of the Ron and south again to the Niger Delta where the Nigerian people first began their historic interaction with Portuguese explorers

Two Thousand Years in Dendi, Northern Benin, 2018-10-16 In Two Thousand Years in Dendi Northern Benin an international team examines a little known part of the Niger River valley West Africa over the longue dur e This area known as Dendi has often been portrayed as the crossroads of major West African medieval empires but this understanding has been based on a small number of very patchy historical sources Working from the ground up from the archaeological sites standing remains oral traditions and craft industries of Dendi Haour and her team offer the first in depth account of the area Contributors are Paul Adderley Mardjoua Barpougouni Victor Brunfaut Louis Champion Annalisa Christie Barbara Eichhorn Anne Filippini Dorian Fuller Olivier Gosselain David Kay Nadia Khalaf Nestor Labiyi Raoul Laibi Richard Lee Veerle Linseele Alexandre Livingstone Smith Carlos Magnavita Sonja Magnavita Didier N Dah Nicolas Nikis Sam Nixon Franck N Po Takpara Jean Fran ois Pinet Ronika Power Caroline Robion Brunner Lucie Smolderen Abubakar Sule Sani Romuald Tchibozo Jennifer Wexler Wim

Wouters      Outsiders and Strangers Anne Haour, 2013-07-25 Asking what archaeology can bring to the debate on liminal peoples in West African societies and drawing together for the first time the extensive literature on the subject of outsiders this volume looks in detail at the role outsiders played in the past 1000 years of the West African past in particular in the construction of great empires      Ghana Robert A. Myers, 1991      Working the Diaspora Frederick C. Knight, 2012-08-22 From the sixteenth to early nineteenth century four times more Africans than Europeans crossed the Atlantic Ocean to the Americas While this forced migration stripped slaves of their liberty it failed to destroy many of their cultural practices which came with Africans to the New World In Working the Diaspora Frederick Knight examines work cultures on both sides of the Atlantic from West and West Central Africa to British North America and the Caribbean Knight demonstrates that the knowledge that Africans carried across the Atlantic shaped Anglo American agricultural development and made particularly important contributions to cotton indigo tobacco and staple food cultivation The book also compellingly argues that the work experience of slaves shaped their views of the natural world Broad in scope clearly written and at the center of current scholarly debates Working the Diaspora challenges readers to alter their conceptual frameworks about Africans by looking at them as workers who through the course of the Atlantic slave trade and plantation labor shaped the development of the Americas in significant ways      Revelations of Dominance and Resilience Apoh, Wazi, 2019-07-25 Chinua Achebe The art of fiction famously observed that until lions have their own historians the history of the hunt will always glorify the hunter In this volume chronicling the complex imperial and colonial entanglements of the Kpando region in eastern Ghana over recent centuries the lions have found their proverbial historian Drawing on an array of sources archaeological oral historical and documentary Wazi Apoh brings locally nuanced perspective to the complex social political economic entanglements among Akpini German and British actors His illumination of previously silenced histories provides a rich platform from which to provoke us to imagine and act on the possibilities for restorative repatriation in the present Its novel combination of historical study with analysis of ongoing dialogues over repatriation is a unique contribution to African studies      Africa and the African Diaspora E. Kofi Agorsah and G. Tucker Childs, 2005-12-29 Africa and the African Diaspora is the outcome of a symposium held at Portland State University in Portland Oregon February 2002 entitled Symposium on Freedom in Black History designed to celebrate Black History Month The major themes of the conference were how Africans both at home on the continent and dispersed abroad often by forces beyond their control reacted to oppression and subjugation in seeking freedom from slavery colonialism and discrimination The volume documents the many forms that oppression has taken the many forms that resistance has taken and the cultural developments that have allowed Africans to adapt to the new and changing economic social and environmental conditions to win back their freedom Oppressive strategies as divide and rule could be based on any one of a number of features such as skin color place of origin culture or social or economic status People drawn into the vortex of the Atlantic trade and funneled into the sugar fields the swampy rice lands or the cotton coffee or tobacco plantations of the new world and elsewhere had no alternative but to risk their lives for freedom The plantation provided the context for the dehumanization of disadvantaged groups subjected to exhausting work frequent punishment and personal injustice of every kind This book demonstrates that the history and interpretation of these struggles of the oppressed peoples to free themselves have not received proportionate attention and analysis as have other aspects of that history

Gendered Labor in Specialized Economies Sophia E. Kelly, Traci Ardren, 2016-12-01 Prehistoric economic relationships are often presented as genderless yet mounting research highlights the critical role gendered identities play in the division of work tasks and the development of specialized production in pre modern economic systems In Gendered Labor in Specialized Economies contributors combine the study of gender in the archaeological record with the examination of intensified craft production in prehistory to reassess the connection between craft specialization and the types and amount of work that men and women performed in ancient communities Chapters are organized by four interrelated themes crucial for understanding the implications of gender in the organization of craft production craft specialization and the political economy combined effort in specialized production the organization of female and male specialists and flexibility and rigidity in the gendered division of labor Contributors consider how changes to the gendered division of labor in craft manufacture altered other types of production or resulted from modifications in the organization of production elsewhere in the economic system Striking a balance between theoretical and methodological approaches and presenting case studies from sites around the world Gendered Labor in Specialized Economies offers a guide to the major issues that will frame future research on how men's and women's work changes predisposes and structures the course of economic development in various societies Contributors Alejandra Alonso Olvera Traci Ardren Michael G Callaghan Nigel Chang Cathy Lynne Costin Pilar Margarita Hernandez Escontras A Halliwell Sue Harrington James M Heidke Sophia E Kelly Brigitte Kovacevich T Kam Manahan Ann Brower Stahl Laura Swantek Rita Wright Andrea Yankowski
