

Dissertation - Pourquoi travailler ?

Dans notre société, nous applaudissons les personnes pour leur travail, nous jugeons notre économie par sa productivité et nous honorons même le travail par une fête nationale. Cependant, il y a une ambivalence sous-jacente — nous célébrons la fête du travail en ne travaillant pas, beaucoup de travailleurs comptent les jours jusqu'aux prochaines vacances et ne voient le travail qu'en tant que moyen pour une retraite heureuse. Étymologiquement, le terme "travail" vient du latin tripalium, un appareil de torture constitué de trois pieux, auxquels les condamnés, ou les animaux difficiles à ferrer, étaient attachés. Le travail est donc associé à la souffrance, la torture et la pénitence. Cette notion n'est pas nouvelle, remontant à la Bible, dans laquelle le travail est représenté comme un châtiment issu du péché originel — "Tu gagneras ton pain à la sueur de ton front". Le travail serait donc une contrainte, et l'Homme en dépendrait pour pouvoir survivre. Mais le travail ne pourrait-il pas être considéré comme quelque chose de positif, comme un moyen par lequel nous appliquons et développons nos capacités, un élément indispensable dans la construction de la personne et, par conséquent, essentiel à la réalisation de son bonheur ? Ne peut cette activité, par laquelle l'Homme transforme la nature, générer du plaisir ? Ou bien l'Homme ne travaille-t-il que par nécessité et sous la menace de pouvoir s'éteindre s'il ne travaille pas ?

Nous verrons, dans un premier temps, que le travail peut être vu comme une contrainte. Ensuite, nous l'aborderons en tant que source de libération. Enfin, nous nous demanderons si la solution ne serait d'arrêter de travailler.

I - Le travail est une contrainte

A- Une nécessité pour satisfaire ses besoins naturels

- Le travail est une nécessité pour l'Homme, car il a des besoins qu'il ne peut pas satisfaire immédiatement -> l'Homme est un être naturellement fragile, confronté à une nature hostile
- Platon, Protagoras - Mythe de Prométhée - deux Titans, Epiméthée et Prométhée avaient eu pour tâche de donner à toutes les espèces les attributs nécessaires à leur survie. Epiméthée, après avoir donné tous les attributs dont il disposait aux autres animaux, laisse l'homme nu, sans moyens pour se protéger.
- Prométhée vole donc la flamme à Zeus pour la donner aux hommes et leur donner un moyen de survie: le feu, la technique, et donc le travail. L'homme peut désormais fabriquer ce dont il a besoin.
- Il serait promis à la disparition biologique s'il n'était pas capable de transformer la nature par son activité technique, de la plier à ses besoins.
