Poussin's Paintings David Carrier,1993      Poussin's Painting. A Study in Art Historical Methodology David Carrier,1993      A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier,2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history      Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition      Representing Belief Michael Paul Driskel,2010-11-01 Representing Belief provides a detailed discussion and analysis of the forms and meanings in religious art of nineteenth century France This genre usually assigned minimal importance by writers on the period turns out to occupy a central place in the cultural history of the era touching the core of the century s conflict between tradition and modernity science and faith ultramontanist and naturalism Although it was generally assumed that this kind of art was of little importance in the evolution of modern painting Driskel demonstrates that in reality it played a crucial role Many of the artists discussed are firmly installed in the present canon Delacroix Ingres Manet Gauguin while others Flandrin Orsel Gleyre Cazin were major figures in their own time though largely forgotten today Writing from an interdisciplinary perspective and employing concepts derived from structuralist and poststructuralist theory Driskel moves beyond simple formalism to restore a category of once important works to a meaningful context thereby offering others a model by which to discuss and interpret these paintings Carefully charting the genealogies of hieraticism and naturalism he demonstrates that a dramatic shift occurred in the 1860s and 1870s as naturalism gained acceptance among ultramontanists and the hieratic mode began to attract the interest of adherents to the belief system of modernism Representing Belief is the first book to situate

this art in its social and historical contexts and to approach it from this point of view Poussin and Nature Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2008 The work of the great French painter Nicolas Poussin 1594-1665 is most often associated with classically inspired settings and figures depicting solemn scenes from mythology or the Bible Yet he also created some of the most influential landscapes in Western art endowing them with a poetic quality that has been admired by artists as different as Constable Turner and Cezanne As the British critic William Hazlitt noted in 1844 This great and learned man might be said to see nature through the glass of time This beautiful catalogue presents the first in depth examination of Poussin's landscapes Featured here are more than 40 paintings ranging from the artist's early Venetian inspired pastorals to his grandly structured and austere works designed as metaphors or allegories for the processes of nature Also included are approximately 60 drawings and essays by internationally renowned scholars who examine the painter's visual literary and philosophical influences as well as his relationships with his patrons and his place in the art historical canon Publisher description The Aesthete in the City: The Philosophy and Practice of American Abstract Painting in the 1980s ,1994 Space and Self in Early Modern European Cultures David Warren Sabean, Malina Stefanovska, 2012-01-01 The notion of selfhood conjures up images of self sufficiency integrity introspectiveness and autonomy characteristics typically associated with modernity The seventeenth century marks the crucial transition to a new form of bourgeois selfhood although the concept goes back to the pre modern and early modern period A richly interdisciplinary collection Space and Self integrates perspectives from history history of literature and history of art to link the issue of selfhood to the new and vital literature on space As Space and Self shows there have at all times been multiple paths and alternative possibilities for forming identities marking personhood and experiencing life as a concrete singular individual Positioning self and space as specific and evolving constructs a diverse group of contributors explore how persons become embodied in particular places or inscribed in concrete space Space and Self thus sets the terms for current discussion of these topics and provides new approaches to studying their cultural specificity Landscape and the Visual Hermeneutics of Place, 1500-1700 Karl A.E. Enenkel, Walter Melion, 2020-12-29 This volume examines the image based methods of interpretation that pictorial and literary landscapists employed between 1500 and 1700 The seventeen essays ask how landscape construed as the description of place in image and or text more than merely inviting close viewing was often seen to call for interpretation or better for the application of a method or principle of interpretation Contributors Boudewijn Bakker William M Barton Stijn Bussels Reindert Falkenburg Margaret Goehring Andrew Hui Sarah McPhee Luke Morgan Shelley Perlove Kathleen P Long Lukas Reddemann Denis Ribouillault Paul J Smith Troy Tower and Michel Weemans Painting as a Way of Life Richard Neer, 2025-03-19 Neer uncovers a key moment in the history of early modern art when painting was understood to be a tool for self transformation and for living a philosophical life In this wide ranging study Richard Neer shows how French painters of the seventeenth century developed radically new ways to connect art perception and ethics Cutting across traditional boundaries of classicism and realism Neer addresses four case studies Nicolas Poussin renowned for marrying ancient philosophy and narrative painting Louise Moillon who pioneered French still life in the 1630s Georges de La Tour a painter of intense and introspective nocturnes and the Brothers Le Nain specialists in genre and portraiture who inspired Courbet Manet and other painters of modern life Setting these artists in dialogue with Montaigne Descartes Pascal and others ranging from the studios of Rome to the streets of Paris this book provides fresh accounts of essential artworks some well known others neglected and new ways to approach the relation of art theory and daily life

The Patron's Payoff Jonathan K. Nelson, Richard J. Zeckhauser, 2014-03-10 An analysis of Italian Renaissance art from the perspective of the patrons who made conspicuous commissions this text builds on three concepts from the economics of information signaling signposting and stretching to develop a systematic methodology for assessing the meaning of patronage

Esthetics of the Moment Thomas M. Kavanagh, 2015-11-16 The literature and art of the French Enlightenment is everywhere marked by an intense awareness of the moment The parallel projects of living in representing and learning from the moment run through the Enlightenment's endeavors as tokens of an ambition and a heritage imposing its only and ultimately impossible cohesion In this illuminating study Thomas M Kavanagh argues that Enlightenment culture and its tensions contradictions and achievements flow from a subversive attention to the present as present freed from the weight of past and future Examining a wide sweep of literary and artistic culture Kavanagh argues against the traditional view of the Age of Reason as one of coherent recognizable ideology expressed in a structured narrative form In literature he analyzes the moment at work in the inebriating lightness of Marivaux's repartee the new found freedom of Lahontan's and Rousseau's ideals of a consciousness limited to the present Diderot's championing of Epicurean epistemology Graffigny's portrayal of abrupt cultural displacement and Casanova's penchant for chance's redefining moment The moment in art theory and practice is explored in such forms as de Piles's defense of color Du Bos's foregrounding of perception Watteau's indulgence in a corporeal present Chardin's dismantling of mimesis and Boucher's and Fragonard's thematics of desire

Aesthetic Theory, Abstract Art, and Lawrence Carroll David Carrier, 2018-09-06 Boldly developing the central traditions of American modernist abstraction Lawrence Carroll's paintings engage with a fundamental issue of aesthetic theory the nature of the medium of painting in highly original frequently extraordinarily successful ways Aesthetic Theory Abstract Art and Lawrence Carroll explains how he understands the medium of painting shows what his art says about the identity of painting as an art discusses the place of his paintings in the development of abstraction and finally offers an interpretation of his art The first monograph devoted to him this philosophical commentary employs the resources of analytic aesthetics Art historians trace the development of art explaining how what came earlier yields to what comes later Taking for granted that the artifacts they describe are artworks art historians place them within the history of art Philosophical art writers define art explain why it has a history and identify its meaning Pursuing that goal Aesthetic Theory Abstract Art and Lawrence Carroll roams freely across art history focused at some points on the story of old master painting and sometimes on the history of modernism but looking also to contemporary art in order to provide the fullest possible philosophical perspective on Carroll's work

Space, Image, and Reform in Early Modern Art Arthur J. DiFuria, Ian Verstegen, 2021-11-08 The essays in Space Image and Reform in Early Modern Art build on Marcia Hall's seminal contributions in several categories crucial for Renaissance studies especially the spatiality of the church interior the altarpiece's facture and affectivity the notion of artistic style and the controversy over images in the era of Counter Reform Accruing the advantage of critical engagement with a single paradigm this volume better assesses its applicability and range The book works cumulatively to provide blocks of theoretical and empirical research on issues spanning the function and role of images in their contexts over two centuries Relating Hall's investigations of Renaissance art to new fields Space Image and Reform expands the ideas at the center of her work further back in time further afield and deeper into familiar topics thus achieving a cohesion not usually seen in edited volumes honoring a single scholar

The Muse Adele Tutter, 2016-08-12 Psychoanalysts have long been fascinated with creative artists but have paid far less attention to the men and women who motivate stimulate and captivate them The Muse counters this trend with nine original contributions from distinguished psychoanalysts art historians and literary scholars one for each of the nine muses of classical mythology that explore the muses of disparate artists from Nicholas Poussin to Alison Bechdel The Muse breaks new ground pushing the traditional conceptualization of muses by considering the roles of spouse friend rival patron therapist even a late psychoanalytic theorist in facilitating creativity Moreover they do so not only by providing inspiration but also by offering the artist needed material and emotional support tolerating competitive aggression promoting reflection and insight and eliciting awe anxiety and gratitude Integrating art history and literary criticism with a wide spectrum of contemporary psychoanalytic perspectives The Muse is essential reading for psychoanalysts and psychotherapists interested in the relationships that enhance and support creative work Fully interdisciplinary it is also accessible to readers in the fields of art art history literature memoir and film The Muse sheds new light on that most mysterious dyad the artist and muse and thus on the creative process itself

Matthew's Account of the Massacre of the Innocents in Light of its Reception History Sung J. Cho, 2021-10-21 Sung Cho addresses the seeming contradiction of Herod the Great's massacre in Matthew 2:16-18 questioning why such a tragedy had to occur why it was included in the good news of Jesus and what connection it has to ancient prophecies In creating a reception history of the Massacre of the Innocents Cho progresses through two millennia worth of interpretation and depiction to highlight key works for discussion Beginning with a close reading of Matthew 2:16-18 Cho moves to analyse depictions of the tragedy in the Early Patristic Tradition from the sixth century to the early modern period and thus to the present day complete with an examination of visual interpretations of the massacre Cho's examination provides a positive step to understanding the depths of human suffering with the help of many diverse perspectives
