Poverty And Migration Slums Of Dhaka City The Realities:

Poverty and Migration A. K. M. Ahsan Ullah,1999 Urban Poverty in Bangladesh Shahadat Hossain,2010-11-30

The analysis of urban poverty has traditionally been dominated by economic approaches often neglecting the social questions arising from poverty This book seeks to redress the balance and is based on both quantitative and qualitative data collected from different slums in Dhaka City Bangladesh Shahadat Hossain shows that the slum communities experience the highest level of poverty and marginality in the city They remain very much dependent on their families and social networking in their struggle to adapt to urban life This book will be invaluable for those working in the areas of urban studies development studies Asian studies sociology and social policy studies Migration of Rural Poor to Urban Slums and Their Poverty Situation Alauddin Ahmed,2004

Rationalizing Migration Decisions Dr A K M Ahsan Ullah,2012-11-28 While decisions for working overseas are often based on expectations and promises of better jobs opportunities economic gains and eventually a better future such assumptions may not always be realized Focusing on the question of why migrants despite not realizing their earlier aspirations continue to remain as migrants rather than return home this book provides a unified understanding of the rationalization of the migration decision making It does so by empirically situating the study in the experiences of Bangladeshi migrant workers in Hong Kong and Malaysia Asian Immigrants in North America with HIV/AIDS AKM Ahsan Ullah,Ahmed Shafiqul Huque,2014-08-31

This book explores a number of issues related to the stigma arising from HIV AIDS infection perceived or actual discrimination from the community and society and the extent of vulnerabilities for infected Asian refugees and immigrants It assesses the health care and treatment regimen for HIV AIDS accessed by immigrants and refugee claimants in North America including treatments offered by the health care system and ethnic communities and their perceptions and biases relating to HIV AIDS issues On another level the book identifies the ways in which HIV sufferer immigrants and refugees refugee claimants from Asia are vulnerable to discrimination due to 1 lack of information about HIV AIDS incidence in the community 2 inability of the health system to respond appropriately and 3 the community's need for introspection on their own health issues This book reveals the dynamics that influence choice behavior and lifestyle of HIV sufferer immigrants adds to the existing knowledge about refugees and migrants and proposes a unified theory of discrimination and stigmatization within the context of human rights In addition the book presents a number of policy recommendations based on empirical findings with a view to helping reshape policies regarding refugee HIV sufferers and their social ramifications This book will be of interest to researchers and students in any field from social sciences health and psychology as well as practitioners in the field of development and public policy The book will be beneficial to policy formulators and implementers engaged in addressing the serious threat emanating from the HIV AIDS pandemic Migrant Remittances in South Asia M. Rahman,T. Yong,A. Ullah,2014-11-25

This volume provides theoretical treatments of remittance on how its development potential is translated into reality The authors meticulously delve into diverse mechanisms through which migrant communities remit investigating how recipients engage in the development process in South Asia The Migration Myth in Policy and Practice AKM Ahsan Ullah, Md Shahidul Haque, 2020-01-01 This book investigates the long term impact of migration on development engaging in a thorough analysis of the pertinent factors in migration Migration scholars and stakeholders have long placed emphasis on the necessity of migration for development At the heart of this book is the question Has migration made development necessary or is it the other way around While existing literature is predominantly occupied with positive impressions about the migration development nexus this book challenges associated pervasive generalizations about the impact of migration indicating that migration has not impacted all regions equally This volume thus grapples with the different extents to which migration has impacted development by delving into the social costs that migrants often pay in the long run With empirical support this book proffers that some countries are becoming over dependent on migration An excellent resource for both policymakers working on migration policy and scholars in international relations migration and development studies this book presents a range of innovative ideas in relation to the remittance development nexus The Journal of the Institute of Bangladesh Studies Rajshahi University. Institute of Bangladesh Studies, 2008 BRAC University Journal , 2005 The Horror A. K. M. Ahsan Ullah, 2000 Asian Urbanization in the New Millennium Gayl D. Ness, Prem P. Talwar, 2005 This book brings together a concise statement of the process of urbanisation in 19 Asian countries from Pakistan through Japan It will present data on urbanisation for the past half century with projections for the next quarter century Each chapter is written by a recognised scholar on Asian urban and population dynamics Since the book will provide a basic set of comparable data for all countries and reflections on both the benefits and problems of urbanisation written by some of the region s best analysts the editors believe it will be of wide interest to scholars and urban administrators throughout the region It will also provide the basic statement on Asian urbanisation that will be relevant and in demand for the near future The book is sponsored by the Asian Urban Information Center of Kobe AUICK which has sponsored comparative research and training on Asian urban issues since 1989 Asian Journal of Women's Studies , 2003 Index Islamicus , 1999 Empowerment , 2004 Abortion in Asia Andrea M. Whittaker, 2010 Based on extensive original field research this provocative collection presents case studies from Thailand Cambodia Burma Vietnam Bangladesh Indonesia and India It includes an insight into the conditions and hard choices faced by women and the circumstances surrounding unplanned pregnancies Microcredit and Microentrepreneurship Wali Islam Mondal, 2002 Dhaka's Changing Landscape Rita Afsar, Mahabub Hossain, 2019-11-05 Between 1991 and 2010 Dhaka s population more than doubled to 15 million Simultaneously the city s contribution to the national economy almost trebled Clearly population growth was accompanied by an unmistakable trend of economic growth and a significant decline in urban poverty and income inequality On the other hand Dhaka s high population density exacerbated serious environmental challenges and it was soon ranked as one of the world s least livable cities In the context of these contradictory signals of rapid urbanization Dhaka's Changing Landscape sets to answer three most intriguing questions Are the poorer segments of urban population which migrate with dreams for better lives benefitting from positive economic trends Are these benefits sustainable Are these benefits creating scope for this group to have a stake in the city's growing prosperity By studying 600 households and applying comparative analysis over a span of 20 years the authors examine demographic and economic trends to understand the patterns scale and complexity of urban poverty income inequality and rural urban migration Going beyond the space and poverty debate they enlighten the readers about the quality of life questions sustainability matters and gender and generational roles and relations necessary to understand qualitative transformation and migrants prospects for a better future

From Sustainable to Resilient Cities William G. Holt, 2014-11-28 This edited volume addresses sustainability efforts in cities and metropolitan regions around the world focusing on four key areas environment economic sociopolitical and cultural sustainability It includes chapters about applications to urban regions focusing on the movement from sustainable development to resilient urban centers

Sustainability in South Asian Cities Subhash Anand, Rituparna Bhattacharyya, Madhushree Das, Tulshi Kumar Das, Pushkar K. Pradhan, 2025-03-03 This book explores some of the common socio economic and environmental challenges faced by the cities of South Asia which remain highly under researched South Asia comprises eight nations India Bangladesh Nepal Sri Lanka Bhutan Maldives Pakistan and Afghanistan consisting of a total population of 1.92 billion in 2022 The majority of the cities in these countries are characterized by haphazard urbanization and multi dimensional poverty alongside its associated ingredients floods water scarcity food crises poor sanitation slums and squatter settlements and pollution among others This comprehensive book is contributed by interdisciplinary scholars and includes 25 case studies The volume brings these socio economic and environmental challenges to the fore for a better and more nuanced understanding The book helps policymakers to mitigate the challenges and build sustainable cities South Asia is perhaps one of the most populous areas on the planet with nearly one third of its population with over ten cities larger than 10 million and maybe home to four of the largest cities of the world's largest ten The rights to the city and the right to breathe bread and work are as significant to South Asians The current volume is a timely addition to perhaps aiming for sustainable cities with many case studies on initiatives towards that end The canvas is vast and the coverage is daunting However the editors have a challenging task to balance out keeping the integrity of the theme in focus Professor Avaya Mohapatra Former Head and Professor now retired North Eastern Hill University Meghalaya It would be fair to say that while the fascinating scientific works inquired into by the authors through several chapters the very book is useful as a reference for readers and researchers regarding urban sustainability in South Asian developing countries including Nepal Keep up the good work Professor Vidhya Bir Singh Kansakar a veteran geographer of Nepal This book should become a companion reader for scholars and students studying sustainability It looks comprehensive admirably clear in its objectives and intellectually lively Professor Suman Singh
