Poverty Celibacy And Obedience A Radical Option For Life:

Poverty, Celibacy, and Obedience Diarmuid Ó Murchú, 1999 The author of Quantum Theory and Reclaiming Spirituality offers an original work that expands the meaning and potential for good of the three traditional religious vows Poverty, Celibacy and Obedience. A Radical Option for Life Diarmuid O'Murchu, Ecclesial Futures: Volume 2, Issue 2 Nigel Rooms, Steve Taylor, 2021-12-03 Ecclesial Futures publishes original research and theological reflection on the development and transformation of local Christian communities and the systems that support them as they join in the mission of God in the world We understand local Christian communities broadly to include traditional parish churches and independent local churches religious communities and congregations new church plants so called fresh expressions of church emergent churches and new monastic communities We are an international and ecumenical journal with an interdisciplinary understanding of our approach to theological research and reflection the core disciplines being theology missiology and ecclesiology Other social science and theological disciplines may be helpful in supporting the holistic nature of any research e g anthropology and ethnography sociology statistical research biblical studies leadership studies and adult learning The journal fills an important reflective space between the academy and on the ground practice within the field of mission studies ecclesiology and the so called missional church This opportunity for engagement has emerged in the last twenty or so years from a turn to the local and the local church and in the western world at least from the demise of Christendom and a rapidly changing world which also affects the church globally The audience for the journal is truly global wherever the local church and the systems that support them exists We expect to generate interest from readers in church judicatory bodies theological seminaries university theology departments and in local churches from all God's people and the leaders amongst them

African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology Catholic University of Eastern Africa Nairobi Kenya

Melodies of a New Monasticism Craig Gardiner, 2018-03-09 The New Monastic Movement is a vibrant source of renewal for the church's life and mission Many involved in this movement have quoted Dietrich Bonhoeffer's conviction that the church must recover ancient spiritual disciplines if it is to effectively engage the powers that be Melodies of a New Monasticism adopts a musical metaphor of polyphony the combination of two or more lines of music to articulate the way that these early Christian virtues can be woven together in community Creatively using this imagery this book draws on the theological vision of Bonhoeffer and the contemporary witness of George MacLeod and the Iona Community to explore the interplay between discipleship doctrine and ethics A recurring theme is the idea of Christ as the cantus firmus the fixed song around which people perform the diverse harmonies of God in church and world including worship ecumenism healing peace justice and ecology

Secular Monasticism Jane Fitz-Gibbon, Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2012-09 Like an underground river the monastic tradition keeps on resurging in a host of unexpected times and places Secular Monasticism A Journey describes one of its most recent incarnations The founders and members of the Lindisfarne Community share with us their bold attempt to be a secular monastic religious order open to the exigencies of the contemporary world Age old wisdom once again reveals its perennial relevance in helping us learn how to be followers of Christ in God's today Brother John Taiz In the first five pages I thought of ten people I know who should read this book young people old people all people tired of taken for granted spirituality Devour this book Let it help you dream up a way of joining or creating a micro community of prayer and action that frees you to experiment in following the ways of Christ That's what these folks have done This story helps us imagine ourselves out of the boxes and buildings Christianity has become The Rev Dr Dori Baker Scholar in Residence The Fund for Theological Education Lindisfarne Community has graciously accepted God's call to dance with the radical and sometimes wearying changes of our time Like the Celts they find meaning in their ongoing spiritual evolution through poetry and story through a willingness to navigate the waters of the soul while remaining fiercely loyal to the good earth that bore us and nurtures us Like the Celts this family of secular monastics hungers more for mystical union with the Divine Mystery than for any trappings of earthly renown or success Carl McColman author and blogger from the foreword

Religious Life Loan Le,2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live

Vocation to Virtue Kent J. Lasnoski,Kent Lasnoski,2022-08-05 Makes a distinctive contribution to the field of family ethics This clearly written and engaging text will provoke discussion in the classroom and among scholars of virtue ethics as it challenges widely held theological claims about marriage and understandings of the good life Theological Studies
