New Growth and Poverty Alleviation Strategies for Africa Karl Wohlmuth, 2008 Volume XIII analyses the New Growth and Poverty Alleviation Strategies for Africa International and Regional Perspectives Country cases in Africa for the integration of new growth and poverty alleviation policies are presented New international strategies in the context of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs the New Partnership for Africa's Development NEPAD and the EU Strategy for Africa that aim at promoting pro poor policies are discussed Regional aspects of new growth and poverty alleviation strategies are analysed with regard to the case of South Africa The South Africa of 2007 is a much different country from the South Africa of 1994 the year in which the country held its first democratic election The country returned to positive per capita growth in the period since 1994 However large challenges remain the most glaring being the high levels of poverty and unemployment Innovative strategies to address these challenges are discussed incentives for sub regional economic growth improving the relationship between growth and employment enhancing the role of education in the labour market promoting Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment and moving step by step towards a South African welfare state New researches initiatives and publications related to the theme are reviewed carefully in this Volume This Volume builds the foundation for a comprehensive strategy of policy reforms in Africa so as to integrate new growth and poverty alleviation strategies Complementary to Volume XIII is Volume XIV on New Growth and Poverty Alleviation Strategies for Africa Institutional and Local Perspectives Both Volumes are of importance for all those who work in African countries as officials executives managers researchers and policy makers but also for all those who actively support Africa s development concerns at the international regional country local and project levels They will experience this Volume XIII and also the complementary Volume XIV as indispensable sources of insight reference and inspiration The Universal Social Safety-Net and the Attack on World Poverty Anthony Clunies-Ross,Mozammel

Huq,2013-10-30 The book is concerned with strategy and tactics for directing that small slice of world income into filling the gap This must be done country by country on the initiative of each country s government with the maximum involvement of its own civil society and with the rich world also making a contribution To add momentum the international community needs to adopt targets far more specific than the fifty percent extreme poverty reduction of the first Millennium Development Goal

Development and Poverty Reduction Yongnian Zheng,Jiwei Qian,2019-10-28 Although the absolute number of poor people in the world has declined significantly in recent decades poverty reduction continues to be a very important issue There still are very large numbers of poor people relative poverty is an increasingly concerning problem and progress on poverty reduction varies enormously from one part of the world to another Factors contributing to poverty reduction include economic growth economic integration and specific poverty reduction programs which are often initiated by Western countries This book considers poverty reduction from a global perspective Development and Poverty Reduction looks at a wide range of specific subjects across all continents It highlights in particular how the issues are perceived from a non Western perspective and especially how the rise of China is both having a profound impact on poverty reduction globally and also changing the overall way in which development and poverty reduction are approached Comparative International

Perspectives on Education and Social Change in Developing Countries and Indigenous Peoples in Developed Countries Gaëtane Jean-Marie,Steve Sider,Charlene Desir,2015-07-01 Democratizing educational access and building capacity in developing countries and amongst indigenous peoples in developed countries may be elusive but are hopeful goals Many developing countries are striving to reengineer their incoherent education systems at a time when they are most vulnerable particularly with susceptibility to natural disasters political unrests and economic instabilities UNESCO 2007 Similarly indigenous peoples in developed countries are seeking more control over education as they consider the long term effects of educational policies that have been forced on them Research on education and social change in developing countries has a long history Glewwe 2002 Hanushek 1995 Sider 2011 However there is limited research on educational capacity building in developing countries such as Kenya Honduras Haiti Ghana Hong Kong India Peru China and Thailand Further the educational frameworks by which Indigenous peoples M ori Canada s First Nations and American Indian Alaska Natives have been educated have some significant similarities to those encountered in developing countries The compilation of chapters illuminates research and collaborative initiatives between the authors and local leaders in developing countries and Indigenous peoples in developed countries efforts to solve the complexity of social inequities through educational access and quality learning The authors draw on theoretical lens knowledge bases and strategies and identify trends and developments to provide the scope of educational improvement in a globalization context Brooks Jean Marie Normore Brooks 2009

Poverty and Policy in Latin America and the Caribbean Quentin Wodon, Robert L. Ayres, 2000 Although the progress toward poverty reduction remains sluggish other dimensions of social welfare in the Latin American and Caribbean LAC region show signs of improvement Adult literacy and school enrollment rates life expectancy at birth and the amount of access to safe water are increasing Nutrition indicators are also improving However other factors demonstrate that many problems persist especially the inequality between rich and poor This report analyzes the evolution of poverty and inequality in the LAC region from 1986 to 1996 with projections to 1998 It reviews the policies which have been advocated or implemented to reduce poverty The report combines the results of new empirical work using household surveys from 12 countries short theoretical developments and a review of the literature on issues related to poverty inequality and social policy in LAC Some of the theoretical developments introduce new research techniques Chapters three to six follow the framework proposed in the forthcoming World Development Report 2000 2001 The framework identifies three essential elements for poverty reduction Those elements include opportunities for the poor and investments in the human capital of the poor security through social safety nets and empowerment Regional Dimensions of Human Development in India and South Africa Utsav Kumar Singh, 2024-07-29 This book offers a comparative study of the progress made by two regional economies with many similarities India and South Africa in pursuit of human development by applying Sustainable Development Goals SDGs In this effort book traverses the stages in public policy from planning to implementation and from reach to range in pursuit of inclusive growth and well being for all The book includes cross national qualitative as well as quantitative studies and deeper analyses of India and South Africa in respect of long term development goals This book attempted to solve the following puzzle despite the stupendous growth rate why is India s performance lower than South Africa s in terms of human development indicators This book addresses this puzzle by drawing attention to welfare approaches These two countries have unique federal structures that uphold the unbalanced states together and this book argues that uneven development challenges need asymmetric strategies contrary to the axiom that the SDGs are indivisible Further advancement of India and South Africa depends on transforming their quantity large youth population into quality human capital Both countries are also striving to create platforms to unleash human potential which is critically examined Comparative Public Budgeting George M. Guess, James D. Savage, 2021-01-07 Every government engages in budgeting and public financial management to run the affairs of state Effective budgeting empowers states to prioritize policies allocate resources and discipline bureaucracies and it contributes to efficacious fiscal and macroeconomic policies Budgeting can be transparent participatory and promote democratic decision making or it can be opaque hierarchical and encourage authoritarian rule This book compares budgetary systems around the world by examining the economic political cultural and institutional contexts in which they are formulated adopted and executed The second edition has been updated with new data to offer a more expansive set of national case studies with examples of budgeting in China India Indonesia Iraq and Nigeria Chapters also discuss Brexit and the European Union's struggle to require balanced budgets during the Euro Debt Crisis Additionally the authors provide a deeper analysis of developments in US budgetary policies from the Revolutionary War through the Trump presidency

Asian Profile, 2007 The Comparative Political Economy of Development Barbara Harriss-White, Judith Heyer, 2009-12-21 This book illustrates the enduring relevance and vitality of the comparative political economy of development approach promoted among others by a group of social scientists in Oxford in the 1980s and 1990s Contributors demonstrate the viability of this approach as researchers and academics become more convinced of the inadequacies of orthodox approaches to the understanding of development Detailed case material obtained from comparative field research in Africa and South Asia informs analyses of exploitation in agriculture the dynamics of rural poverty seasonality the non farm economy class formation labour and unfreedom the gendering of the labour force small scale production and contract farming social networks in industrial clusters stigma and discrimination in the rural and urban economy and its politics Reasoned policy suggestions are made and an analysis of the comparative political economy of development approach is applied to the situation of Africa and South Asia Aptly presenting the relation between theory and empirical material in a dynamic and interactive way the book offers meaningful and powerful explanations of what is happening in the continent of Africa and the sub continent of South Asia today It will be of interest to researchers in the fields of development studies rural sociology political economy policy and practice of development and Indian and African studies

Building resilience of city region food systems: a comparative study of eleven city perspectives FAO; CIRAD; RUAF, 2024-11-06 In recent years local governments have increasingly focused on food security and sustainability due to the recognized unsustainability of current food systems Support from city networks academics and international organizations has led to numerous projects and initiatives aimed at raising awareness and promoting concrete actions The COVID 19 pandemic highlighted the need for resilient food systems prompting more cities to develop response strategies This study investigates how food system actors perceive recent shocks identifies collective actions and public policies and offers insights for enhancing food system resilience It presents findings on shocks and impacts public policies and recommended next steps concluding with key questions and hypotheses for future research on resilient city region food systems

Growth, Poverty, and Inequality Quentin Wodon, 1999 World Development Report 2006 Francisco H. G. Ferreira, Michael Walton, 2005-01-01 Inequality of opportunity both within and among nations sustains extreme deprivation results in wasted human potential and often weakens prospects for overall prosperity and economic growth concludes the 2006 World Development Report To correct this situation and reduce poverty more effectively Equity and Development recommends ensuring more equitable access by the poor to health care education jobs capital and secure land rights among others It also calls for greater equality of access to political freedoms and political power breaking down stereotyping and discrimination and improving access by the poor to justice systems and infrastructure To level the playing field among countries and thereby reduce global inequities that hurt the poor in developing countries the report calls for removal of trade barriers in rich countries flexibility to allow greater in migration of lower skilled people from developing countries and increased and more effective development assistance
