Poverty Transitions Among Elderly Widows Garland Studies On The Elderly In America:

Poverty Transitions Among Elderly Widows Hiroko H. Dodge,1996 Research shows that among the aged in the US the risk of falling into poverty is highest following the husband's death but that poverty is not a permanent condition among many widows This work inquires into the mechanisms that cause a devastating economic outcome for the survivors of husbands deaths but not for the survivors of wives deaths the means by which elderly widows exit from poverty despite their fixed income and the size of their income at the time of exit A revised version of the author's Ph D dissertation Penn State U 1992 with new preface and index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus,Susan G. Fowler,2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing,1999-03

Old Souls Helen K. Black,Robert L. Rubinstein, This volume presents an intimate and compassionate portrait of elderly black and white women who speak in their own voices of the domestic and social abuses that led to their financial and emotional impoverishment and of the transcendent effect of their relationship with God Drawn from extensive qualitative interviews over a four year period the stories reveal women not impoverished by poverty but amazingly resilient and resourceful in confronting adversity Handbook on Women and Aging Jean M. Coyle,2001-08-30 Expert contributors summarize current research on women and aging The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996

Manual of Gerontologic Nursing Charlotte Eliopoulos,1999 A practical accessible reference now brought completely up to date This bestselling manual covers all problems related to gerontologic nursing care within the nursing diagnosis framework Social Security Bulletin ,1995 Therapeutic Interventions with Ethnic Elders Sara Aleman,Tanya Fitzpatrick,Thanh V Tran,Elizabeth Gonzalez,2014-02-04 Provide effective services to ethnic elders with culturally competent training Therapeutic Interventions with Ethnic Elders Health and Social Issues provides culture specific information to health and social work professionals You will explore distinctive qualities that are found in ten different ethnic groups to help you better serve these populations The historical events that have shaped these elders often adverse reactions to mainstream providers are also included Ideas on how to effectively approach these situations are included to improve your skills with a diverse population of clients The information in Therapeutic Interventions with Ethnic Elders is invaluable to health care administrators who plan services and hire personnel to work with various ethnic groups The book also functions as a training tool to increase the awareness of staff members who currently work with ethnically diverse populations You will learn to recognize culturally driven behaviors in ethnic elders and how to make appropriate interventions Some of the general and culture specific issues that Therapeutic Interventions with Ethnic Elders addresses are helping ethnic elders to feel comfortable utilizing your services appropriately modifying therapy to meet the individual's cultural background reinforcing a new sense of independence for these elders by helping them understand available services understanding cultural inhibitions in Japan that hide deny or ignore mental illness realizing that traditional Euro American psychotherapy techniques cannot be readily transplanted and applied to all other cultures addressing depression anxiety increased illness intergenerational conflict and even marital conflict combined with the stress of assimilation and acculturation among Russian emigrants understanding folk beliefs and the importance of the role of the church for many elder African Americans Therapeutic Interventions with Ethnic Elders addresses the need for practitioners agencies and institutions to understand and respect the different characteristics of each elderly minority population You will examine the unique historical contexts of Vietnamese Japanese Chinese African Russian Navajo Yaqui Mexican Cuban and Puerto Rican elders and explore the stress factors that come with immigrating such as finding a peaceful place to live and being confronted by age discrimination and racism This important book explains cultural behaviors to provide you with effective suggestions for providing optimum care to the ethnic elders in your life     AAGE Newsletter ,1992     Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997     Bibliographic Index ,1998     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1998     New Books on Women and Feminism ,1996     Learning to Be Old Margaret Cruikshank,2013-02-14 This work examines what it means to grow old in America today The book questions social myths and fears about aging sickness and the other social roles of the elderly the over medicalization of many older people and ageism Here the author proposes alternatives to the ways aging is usually understood in both popular culture and mainstream gerontology She does not propose the ideas of successful aging or productive aging but more the idea of learning how to age Featuring new research and analysis the third edition of this text demonstrates more thoroughly than the previous editions that aging is socially constructed The book focuses on the differences in aging for women and men as well as for people in different socioeconomic groups The author is able to put aging in a broad context that not only focuses on how aging affects women but men as well Key updates in the third edition include changes in the health care system changes in how long older Americans are working especially given the impact of the recession and new material on the brain and mind body interconnections The author challenges conventional ideas about aging and brings forth some new ideas surrounding aging in America today Journal of the American Dietetic Association ,2000 The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of books in the English language Older Women in 20th-century America Audrey Borenstein,1982

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Gary W. Peterson, Kevin R. Bush, 2012-09-14 The third edition of Handbook of Marriage and the Family describes, analyzes, synthesizes, and critiques the current research and theory about family relationships, family structural variations, and the role of families in society. This updated Handbook provides the most comprehensive state-of-the-art assessment of the existing knowledge of family life with particular attention to variations due to gender, socioeconomic race, ethnic, cultural, and life style diversity. The Handbook also aims to provide the best synthesis of our existing scholarship on families that will be a primary source for scholars and professionals but also serve as the primary graduate text for graduate courses on family relationships and the roles of families in society. In addition, the involvement of chapter authors from a variety of fields including family psychology, family sociology, child development, family studies, public health, and family therapy gives the Handbook a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary framework.
