Senghor, 2017-11-22 Africa still finds itself in the clutches of poverty and underdevelopment The expected benefits from economic restructuring have not been realized and the debt burden continues to weigh heavily on African economies constraining the possibilities of growth Problems that have existed since the 1960s remain and links with the global economy continue to increase but fall short of requirements Against this background it is not surprising that the vast majority of African states will not meet the Millennium Development Goals The search for political systems that can deliver development have been categorized by cynics as old wine in old bottles with new stickers As the dividends from globalization elude Africa in the 21st century it becomes clear that it is a series of failed states rogue states and even stateless states This volume brings together leading researchers and analysts to examine issues and identify policy options which can lead to renewal in Africa It provides an opportunity to reflect and offers a critical multidisciplinary appraisal of the future challenges facing Africa Globalization of Financial Institutions Hasan Dincer, Ümit Hacıoğlu, 2013-11-23 This peer reviewed volume from the Society for the Study of Business and Finance discusses current issues in globalization and financial system from an international political and economic perspective Contemporary instruments and actors in the global financial system are specially analyzed and the discussion of managerial and financial issues of the global financial strategies offers novelty to readers and researchers in the field Global China: Internal And External Reaches Bryan Pak Nung Wong, Joseph Yu-shek Cheng, 2015-03-26 After two decades since the disintegration of Soviet Union in 1991 the largest and the most populist socialist state the People's Republic of China does not only manage to stay intact but has also emerged as the second largest economy in the world Moreover its political diplomatic military and cultural reaches have been extended to various parts of the world There have been many factual and fictional discussions and debates in the public domains on China's apparent rise either as a threat or an opportunity This book will take on these discussions and debates to provide theory informed empirical studies regarding a few research questions We consider that the idea and concept of Global China is perhaps the most viable analytical instrument to capture such increasingly complex phenomena in association with the rise of China Africa's Experience with Structural Adjustment Kapil Kapoor, 1995-01-01 Annotation World Bank Discussion Paper No 288 Summarizes the proceedings of a

Knowledge Matters Diana Rhoten, Craig Calhoun, 2011-02-22 Universities Are Changing Around The World In China and Africa there is massive expansion while many of America s

greatest public universities are experiencing major budget cuts In Latin America universities have been affected by dictatorships and privatization but are now growing in ways central to economic development In Europe universities built as state institutions are being told to raise more money from private sources and are being reorganized so they will compete better in global rankings In this context clarity about the public mission of universities is vital yet it is lacking both outside and inside academia When universities educate students is this simply a private benefit because it advances their careers Or is it a public good because informed citizens are integral to democracy and essential for national economic development How important is equal opportunity What are the effects of hierarchy Who pays now and who will pay tomorrow Should the results of academic research be private property for sale or openly available for public use Who sets the university research agendas What kinds of scholarship flourish and what kinds suffer Should producing competitive research take priority over educating competent students Do international rankings distort these and other university priorities or provide needed objective assessments What are the university's roles and responsibilities in terms of knowledge creation and dissemination today And tomorrow In this collection scholars report from Asia Africa Europe Latin America and North America They confront the realities and challenges of higher education as it is torn between multiple public and private agendas This comparative perspective illuminates both the continuing importance of the university's public mission and the pressing need to clarify it Diana Rhoten is the founder and director of the Knowledge Institutions Program and the Digital Media and Learning Project at the Social Science Research Council She has published in a range of academic journals and advises cultural scientific and educational institutions on issues of organizational design creative collaboration and adaptive change Craig Calhoun is president of the Social Science Research Council and University Professor of the Social Sciences at New York University He has served in a variety of academic leadership positions including as a dean and has conducted research in many international settings His most recent book is an edited collection Robert K Merton Sociology of Science and Sociology as Science Columbia

Nationalism and National Projects in Southern Africa Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sabelo J., Ndhlovu, Finex, 2013 Despite the fact that nationalism and its national projects have in recent years been severely criticised by postcolonial theorists for being fundamentalist and essentialist by feminists for being patriarchal and exclusive by global financial institutions for being antagonistic to development and globalisation by Pan Africanists for being anticontinental unity and by those Africans born after decolonisation for being irrelevant Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni and Finex Ndhlovu's book convincingly argues that nationalism has defied its death and displayed remarkable resilience and resonance Since the end of the Cold War what has been poignant has been the enduring contest tensions and contradictions between the growth of various forms of transnationalism on the one hand and a resurgence of territorial as well as other narrow and xenophobic forms of nationalism on the other In this important book Ndlovu Gatsheni and Ndhlovu provide new critical reflections on nationalism and its national projects in southern Africa covering South Africa Zimbabwe and the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC a member of SADC The national question is interrogated from different disciplinary vantage points to reveal how it impinges on contemporary challenges of nation building development devolution of power language questions and citizenship on the one hand and ethnicity nativism and xenophobia on the other
