Power Across The Pacific:

Sea-power in the Pacific Hector Charles Bywater, 1921      Work, Class, and Power in the Borderlands of the Early American Pacific Evan Lampe, 2013-12-12 This book traces the history of working people who helped established the foundation of the American empire in the Pacific from its origins after the American Revolution to its coming of age in the 1840s and 1850s Beginning with the expeditions of the Columbia and the Lady Washington Lampe argues that the early American Pacific can best be considered through the interaction of four major locations connected through the networks of trade the merchant ship the Northwest Coast Honolulu and Canton Guangzhou In each of these locations the labors of a diverse population of working people was harnessed in the critical labors of empire building including the transportation of goods The central question that the consideration of working people in the Pacific economy during this period is Lampe argues the role of power applied on these laborers by an international capitalist class emerging alongside the Pacific commercial empires Lampe also finds that this power was not uncontested and emerged in response to the activities of labor Working people on the ship and in the port cities found ways to secure their piece of the profitable trade often through illicit means      Gender and Power in the Pacific Katarina Ferro, Margit Wolfsberger, 2003 Women from the Pacific Islands are often perceived by Europeans as passive beauties dancing the hula with a flower in their hair as docile companions of European or local men or as naive personalities surrounded by an endangered environment But far from that male Western reception of women s status which can be found in documentaries motion pictures as well as travel and adventure literature women are active and resolute agents who self confidently shape their societies through their courageous and determined acting in public as well as in their communities The current volume of Novara Contributions to Research on the Pacific wants to deliver insights into the lives of women from the Pacific Islands and shows how they deal with shifting gender relations in changing societies Traditions and adjustment processes to changing living conditions of women and men in Papua New Guinea Palau and New Zealand present fascinating research fields which open up the view to new living models apart from Western gender concepts      Rebuilding American Military Power in the Pacific Robbin F. Laird, Edward Timperlake, Richard Weitz, 2013-10-28 This volume examines how the U S military must rebuild in the wake of Iraq Afghanistan and refocus its power projection to face the new challenges emerging in the Pacific and with China Rebuilding American Military Power in the Pacific A 21st Century Strategy provides an all encompassing look at the challenges facing the United States in shaping a 21st century Pacific strategy dealing with the growing Chinese colossus the unpredictable nuclear challenge presented by North Korea the dynamic of the Arctic opening and maintaining the security of the conveyor belt of goods and services in the Pacific Can the United States successfully train and prepare for the 21st century and break free from the mindset that determined its strategies in the previous century The authors of the work explain why a carefully considered fully modernized Pacific strategy is a key element for the evolution of American military power and why shaping an effective air and maritime strategy in the Pacific as well as globally is the crucial challenge facing the U S military and the policy community Written by authors with significant access to the media think tanks and high level politicians the book provides an insider s look at how American military leaders are building out relevant capabilities in the Pacific to defend America and its allies and it contains extensive interviews with those leaders

Assessing Maritime Power in the Asia-Pacific Greg Kennedy,Harsh V. Pant,2016-03-09 Leading academics from around the world who specialize in analysing maritime strategic issues deliberate the impact of the American pivot or re balance strategy and the Air Sea Battle operational concept on the maritime power and posture of a number of selected states Intending to strengthen US economic diplomatic and security engagement throughout the Asia Pacific both bilaterally and multilaterally the re balance stands out as one of the Obama administration s most far sighted and ambitious foreign policy initiatives

A Pacific Power Matthew P. Fitzpatrick,2025-05-19 Before the First World War Germany was a global empire with colonies in Africa Asia and the Pacific Annexed to this empire in 1900 was Samoa a thriving Polynesian trading hub which had previously been the site of conflict between Britain Germany and the United States A Pacific Power brings to light an often overlooked history of German imperialism in the Pacific Focusing on Samoa it shows the tension between German rulers and Samoan subjects as well as the variety of ways the Germans sought to reshape the colony according to their own requirements It looks at how Samoa became a colonial site that brought Germany into conflict not only with Britain and the United States but also China New Zealand and the Vatican At the same time it uncovers the social and cultural experiments of a colony that treated matters of sexuality race and religion in often unexpected ways Through a study of colonial conflicts and crises A Pacific Power brings to light Germany's strategies of imperial rule and Samoan methods of resisting and co-opting German institutions It investigates how German rule transformed Samoa and altered German culture and politics It shows how Samoa brought Germany into conflict not only with Britain and the United States but also China New Zealand and the Vatican Laying bare the exploitative and racist nature of German colonial labour practices it also uncovers the surprising social and cultural experiments of a colony that treated matters of sexuality race and religion in often unexpected ways Through careful attention to archival sources and the personal recollections of those who colonised Samoa and those who were colonised Matthew P Fitzpatrick reorients German imperial history towards Polynesia emphasising the too often overlooked importance of the Pacific to German attempts to globalise their economy culture and military reach Water Power Engineering Harold Kilbrith Barrows,1927 Mid-Pacific Magazine Alexander Hume Ford,George Mellen,1914 Air Power in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific Howard M. Hensel,2020-06-04 This book examines the security dynamics of the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific concentrating upon an analysis and evaluation of the air power capabilities of the various powers active in the two regions The volume is designed to help improve understanding of the heritage and contemporary challenges confronting the global community in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific as well as to illuminate the policies of the various powers involved in the affairs of these regions and the military capabilities that are available in support of those policies The 16 individual chapters examine both the traditional and the non traditional threats that confront the various Indian Ocean and Western Pacific powers and assess the roles played by land based and naval fixed wing and rotary wing manned and unmanned aircraft as well as by offensively and defensively capable ballistic and cruise missiles in addressing these challenges In doing so the various chapters analyze and evaluate the air power doctrine capabilities deployment patterns and missions of the respective states In addition they assess the future issues challenges and responses involving air power as it acting in concert with other military instruments seeks to contribute to securing and promoting the interests of the state This book will be of much interest to students of air power strategic studies Asian and Middle Eastern politics and International Relations Commercial Survey of the Pacific Northwest Edwin Bates,1932 Pacific Ports ,1920 Pacific Municipalities ,1912
