

Radical Monotheism and Western Culture by H. Richard Niebuhr

H. Richard Niebuhr, for many years Sterling Professor of Christian Ethics at Yale University Divinity School, was one of mid-century's most respected teachers and writers. This book presents in revised and expanded form the Montgomery Lectures on Contemporary Civilization which Dr. Niebuhr gave at the University of Nebraska in 1957. The six chapters were originally three lectures. To them are added four supplementary essays that expand and complement the ideas in the Lectures.

Published in Louisville, KY by Westminster/John Knox Press, 1993. Originally published, New York, Harper, 1960. This material prepared for Religion Online by Richard and Sue Kendall.

(ENTIRE BOOK) Niebuhr gives a thorough analysis of faith as confidence and loyalty, and the forms of faith as henotheism, polytheism and radical monotheism. He then analyzes the implications of radical monotheism for western religion, the political community, western science, and ethical value systems.

Forward by James M. Gustafson

Dr. Gustafson introduces Niebuhr's book as making theology and theological thinking intelligible by showing their continuities with other forms of thinking and activity, while at the same time reinterpreting other forms of activity in the light of theology.

I: Introduction: Theology and Faith

This introduction deals with the conflict of faiths in our Western Culture ...a conflict between radical monotheism and polytheism, or henotheism (a social faith which makes a finite cultural or religious society the object of trust and loyalty).

II. The Idea of Radical Monotheism

This chapter contrasts polytheism, social faith and radical faith in the One God.

III. Radical Faith - Incarnate and Revealed in History

This chapter focuses upon the persons and movements through whom radical monotheism finds expression in human history and in all of human life.

Transforming Faith Joshua Leonard Daniel,2015-09-09 In the face of apparently rampant individualism there has been a steady call for a return to community and tradition particularly in religious communities and in recent Christian theology and ethics The form of contemporary life upheld by modern ideals like freedom and universalism the story goes turns out to divide people from each other and from the communal sources of our traditionally moral values But the call to community too often confuses individualism with individuality assuming that any appeal to individuality as a value or ideal is a rejection of communal goods rather than a mode of promoting those goods What s necessary now is a recovery of the individual that understands individuality to serve community even in resistance to it In Transforming Faith Joshua Daniel offers a fresh reading of H Richard Niebuhr s theological ethics that provides an account of individuality and individual creativity as both the fruits and reformers of community What is theologically at stake in Daniel s reconstructive interpretation is the human s existentially resonant relation with God and the christological revitalization of our symbolic and virtuous activity The
