

A man and a young child are walking away from the camera on a sandy beach. The man is wearing a red t-shirt and dark shorts, and the child is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and patterned pants. They are holding hands and walking towards the ocean under a bright, hazy sunset sky. The text 'Raising Champions' is overlaid in large white letters with a drop shadow.

Raising Champions:

Raising Champions Ntsarane Nelson Molapo, 2021 Raising Champions Michael Sayler, Texas Association for the Gifted and Talented, 2002 Educational title for gifted and advanced learners A Year with Andrew White Andrew White, 2019-10-17 52 readings each with a scripture passage and prayer from one of our most loved and respected Christian leaders and speakers Each reading contains a story often startling and arresting from Andrew's astonishingly eventful ministry blended with his reflections on life and faith Raising Champions Bernie Schock, 2014-09-16 American families have doubled down on their commitment to kids sports More children are competing nearly 50% more than 25 years ago and a tenfold increase in high school girls participation between 1970-2000 More children start earlier More kids focus year round on one sport More is demanded of these athletes more practices more games more travel More is required of their parents more money more support more time Many parents feel like they're trapped in extra innings and wonder what to do about this flood of more Bernie Schock has written this book to help parents raise kids whose passion and priority is to be God's champions in this world of more The apostle Paul reminds us that physical training is of some value but godliness has value for all things Children's athletics provide many rich opportunities to help kids grow into men and women who love God whole heartedly and others selflessly This book isn't simply Monday morning quarterbacking Bernie Schock has lived this as a father a fan a coach an athlete a referee He admits that at times his involvement in sports interfered with his own love for God and others Thus this book seeks to direct both children's and parents' hearts Parents will not be able to help their kids grow through sports until they understand why sports have such a powerful grip on many of them Children's sports can be a source of great delight or great pain But what makes for good and bad experiences This book seeks to answer that question so that sports can provide rich blessings to children's development physically psychologically socially and spiritually Play ball

X-Parenting Nicole Anderson, 2016-03-24 My personal parenting style can best be described as Extreme Intentional Parenting where every plan is purposeful every experience is calculated and every interaction is meaningful all working towards the attainment of the stated goals There are a handful of Fundamental Principles that form the basis of my beliefs about parenting and then numerous uncommon Laws that guide the implementation of those philosophies These Principles and Laws create the framework for my parenting system This book is a collection of those very actionable Principles and Laws supported with details and facts and validated by real life observations and the incredible stories experienced by my five children I most certainly have had very definite ideas around parenting for most of my life and that factored heavily in the development of my own parenting style Some of my parenting philosophies align with the knowledge of many experts in the field both degreed professionals who have studied this subject extensively and the numerous parents with invaluable first hand experiences My other philosophies were born of my own visions and a desire to reach a specific outcome Regardless of how you might feel about my parenting style I offer this uninhibited look into my parenting journey with my own children in the hope that the concepts introduced in this book offer alternative thinking and stimulate diverse conversation on the subject of parenting

A History of the Present Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2019-09-12 Through the long 20th century Indian South Africans lived under the whip of settler colonialism and white minority rule which saw the passing of a slew of legislation that circumscribed their freedom of movement threatened repatriation and denied them citizenship all the while herding them into racially segregated townships This volume chronicles the broad outlines of this history Taking the story into the present it provides an analysis of how Indian South Africans have responded to changes wrought by the remarkable collapse of apartheid and the holding of the first democratic elections in 1994 Drawing upon archival records in depth interviews and ethnography this study examines the ways in which Indian South Africans define themselves and the world around them and how they are defined by others It tells of the incredible journey of Indian South Africans many of whom are fourth and fifth generation towards being recognized as citizens in the land of their birth and how while often attracted by and seeking to explore their roots in India they continue to dig deeper roots in African soil

Justice Matters Kyungsig Samuel Lee, Danjuma G. Gibson, 2022-09-29 The nine chapters in this book along with a critical introduction address complex theological issues relating to structural inequalities of our society exacerbated by the experience of the COVID 19 pandemic Pastoral theology as an academic discipline is not a value free enterprise This book strives to speak against all forms of injustice and to advocate for those who suffer under existing structural inequalities because such a liberative and social transformative task constitutes the fundamental work of pastoral theology Each chapter in this book analyses how private problems of individuals are occurring within the immediate world of experience with public issues historically socially and politically As a whole this book addresses racial injustice ableism foster family care and issues faced by Christian churches during the COVID 19 pandemic The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Pastoral Theology

Artistry in Bronze Jens M Daehner, Kenneth Lapatin, Ambra Spinelli, 2017-11-21 The papers in this volume derive from the proceedings of the nineteenth International Bronze Congress held at the Getty Center and Villa in October 2015 in connection with the exhibition Power and Pathos Bronze Sculpture of the Hellenistic World The study of large scale ancient bronzes has long focused on aspects of technology and production Analytical work of materials processes and techniques has significantly enriched our understanding of the medium Most recently the restoration history of bronzes has established itself as a distinct area of investigation How does this scholarship bear on the understanding of bronzes within the wider history of ancient art How do these technical data relate to our ideas of styles and development How has the material itself affected ancient and modern perceptions of form value and status of works of art www.getty.edu/publications/artistryinbronze
