Raising Mama A Memoir:

Raising Mama Larry Michael Sullivan, 2006 This book has compiled all of the benefits of a high fiber low calorie nutritional plan It is a strategy of dietary choices for healthier living This is not a gimmick or a quick fix This book is also a resource because it includes the nutritional summaries of approximately 100 delicious fiber rich foods Raising Mama Larry Sullivan, 2006 This is the story of the music politics and culture during a seminal period of the baby boom 1958 1962 It is an often hilarious story told from a most unlikely point of view a precocious child born to a dirt poor Southern woman RAISING MAMA is a memoir The voice is from the point of view of a child who became virtually an adult at age ten RAISING MAMA is a road trip Larry Sullivan the voice and lead character attends eight schools in five states in five years 1958 1962 His mother's favorite husband is a career criminal and for Larry reality is one surreal situation after another RAISING MAMA is an American saga It is a love story rivaling ROMEO sometimes hilarious but frequently tragic The family is irrevocably affected by the Cold War as Larry's step dad tries to go straight for once There is even a brush with infamy as MAMA works for one night for one of Jack Ruby's businesses The narration describes the late 1950s as they were with their racial tensions anti Communism and the beginnings of Rock n Roll and the counter culture Mama's Memoir Rachelle Galipeau, 2021-07-22 Story I started this journey with faith and strength and love What a journey it has been Raising a hurt child can buckle your knees it can steal your breath and it will change you Denise is my daughter but the struggle is very real and there is always a looming question of Will I survive It is a spinning ride of misunderstanding and fear Then the question remains if I do survive will she The looking glass is filled with visual information but until you step inside for yourself you will not know the boundaries of your strength strength of mind strength of body strength of will to endure A win is attainable but the game spares no one I knew that I would one day tell this story What remains will tell itself but what has been shared here will hopefully serve as someone else's guide to survival in what could potentially become a tangled jungle of parental chaos We all need a plan That plan is likely to follow a very personal living and morphing timeline of circumstance This book may serve to offer some tangible tool of support during that struggle 4 Memoir: Moving in Poetry, Prose, and Photos Rachel Louise Clay Ph.D, 2025-02-10 This memoir is about moving from place to place 37 times in my lifetime My dad was a career soldier but only four moves were military connected I attended 14 primary and secondary schools before completing high school The constant moving resulted in me losing friends classmates playmates and family My memoir discusses a few experiences as I moved from place to place why I had so many addresses and how the moves impacted me It also discusses how I survived the loss and loneliness The story is written in poetry and prose and includes many photos I hope my story will help others who have moved constantly Coal to Diamonds: A Memoir Beth Ditto, Michelle Tea, 2012-10-09 A raw and surprisingly beautiful coming of age memoir Coal to Diamonds tells the story of Mary Beth Ditto a girl from rural Arkansas who found her voice Born and raised in Judsonia Arkansas a place where indoor plumbing was a luxury squirrel was a meal and sex ed was taught during senior year in high school long after many girls had gotten pregnant and dropped out Beth Ditto stood out Beth was a fat pro choice sexually confused choir nerd with a great voice an eighties perm and a Kool Aid dye job Her single mother worked overtime which meant Beth and her five siblings were often left to fend for themselves Beth spent much of her childhood as a transient shuttling between relatives caring for a sickly volatile aunt she nonetheless loved looking after sisters brothers and cousins and trying to steer clear of her mother's bad boyfriends Her punk education began in high school under the tutelage of a group of teens her second family who embraced their outsider status and introduced her to safety pinned clothing mail order tapes queer and fat positive zines and any shred of counterculture they could smuggle into Arkansas With their help Beth survived high school a tragic family scandal and a mental breakdown and then she got the hell out of Judsonia She decamped to Olympia Washington a late 1990s paradise for Riot Grrrls and punks and began to cultivate her glamorous queer fat femme image On a whim with longtime friends Nathan a guitarist and musical savant in a polyester suit and Kathy a quiet intellectual turned drummer she formed the band Gossip She gave up trying to remake her singing voice into the ethereal wisp she thought it should be and instead embraced its full soulful potential Gossip gave her that chance and the raw power of her voice won her and Gossip the attention they deserved Marked with the frankness humor and defiance that have made her an international icon Beth Ditto's unapologetic startlingly direct and poetic memoir is a hypnotic and inspiring account of a woman coming into her own

The Memoirs of Ceija Stojka, Child Survivor of the Romani Holocaust Ceija Stojka, 2022 First English translation of the memoirs of Austrian Romani Holocaust survivor writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933 2013 along with poems an interview historical photos and reproductions of her artworks Is this the whole world This question begins the first of three memoirs by Austrian Romani writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933 2013 told from her perspective as a child interned in three Nazi concentration camps from age nine to twelve Written by a child survivor much later in life the memoirs offer insights into the nexus of narrative and extreme trauma expressing the full spectrum of human emotions fear and sorrow at losing loved ones joy and relief when reconnecting with family and friends desire to preserve some memories while attempting to erase others horror at acts of genocide and hope arising from dreams of survival In addition to annotated translations of the three memoirs the book includes two of Stojka's poems and an interview by Karin Berger editor of the original editions of Stojka's memoirs as well as color reproductions of several of her artworks and historical photographs An introduction contextualizes her works within Romani history and culture and a glossary informs the reader about the concentrationary universe Because the memoirs show how Stojka navigated male dominated postwar Austrian culture generally discriminatory to Roma and the patriarchal aspects of Romani culture itself the book is a contribution not only to Holocaust Studies but also to Austrian Studies Romani Studies and Women's and Gender Studies

Memoirs of an Accidental Hustler J.M. Benjamin, 2017-02-28 Moving from a brownstone in Bed Stuy Brooklyn to a housing project in the small town of Plainfield

New Jersey young Kamil is exposed to another world and a different breed of people Bonded by the pain caused by their absentee fathers Kamil and his brother befriend a group of boys from the neighborhood forming an unbreakable connection The boys vow not to travel down the same road as their dads making a pact to stay in school and out of the streets When Kamil discovers the allure of the opposite sex a childhood crush develops into something much more Walk with Kamil as he transitions from childhood to young adulthood and struggles with the very things his mother tried so hard to prevent him and his brother from embracing What starts out as a game and a means of survival ultimately ends up serious and addictive This is Memoirs of an Accidental Hustler What did you want to be when you grew up Women's Rights in the United States Tiffany K. Wayne, 2014-12-09 A comprehensive encyclopedia tracing the history of the women's rights movement in the United States from the American Revolution to the present day Few realize that the origin of the discussion on women's rights emerged out of the anti slavery movement of the 19th century and that suffragists were active in the peace and labor movements long after the right to vote was granted Thus began the confluence of activism in our country where the rights of women both followed and led the social and political discourse in America Through 4 volumes and more than 800 entries editor Tiffany K Wayne with advising editor Lois Banner examine the issues people and events of women's activism from the early period of American history to the present time This comprehensive reference not only traces the historical evolution of the movement but also covers current issues affecting women such as reproductive freedom political participation pay equity violence against women and gay civil rights Motherhood Memoirs: Mothers Creating/Writing Lives Justine Dymond, 2013-07-01 The authors in this collection examine and critique motherhood memoir alongside the texts of their own lives while seeking to transform mothering practice highlighting revolutionary praxis within books or when none is available creating new visions for social change Many essays interrogate the tensions of maternal narrative the negotiation of the historical location of writer and readers narrative and linguistic constraints and the slippery ground of memory as well as the borders constructed between the objective scholar and the reader who engages with and identifies with texts through her intellect and her emotional being Me and My Shadows Lorna Luft, 2015-12-21 The question follows Lorna Luft to this day What's it like to be Dorothy's daughter Although by appearances glamorous and truly thrilling growing up as the daughter of Judy Garland was anything but a journey over the rainbow With unsparing candor Lorna Luft offers the first ever insider portrait of one of Hollywood's most celebrated families a rare story of a little girl her half sister Liza and her baby brother trying desperately to hang on to the mother whose life seemed destined to burn brightly but briefly Lorna makes an extraordinary journey back into the spiral of love addiction pain and loss that lurked behind a charmed facade Filled with behind the scenes dramas hilarious untold stories and little known details of Garland family life Me and My Shadows is a tribute to Lorna's victory over her own past a story of hope of love and its limitations and a deeply moving testament to the healing powers of embracing one's past and charting a course of self love and discovery A Memoir of Her Royal

Highness Princess Mary Adelaide, Duchess of Teck Clement Kinloch Cooke,1900 Wayward Alice

Greczyn,2021-02-02 The Glass Castle meets Educated When Alice Greczyn s parents felt called by God to exchange worldly employment for heavenly provision they followed their faith into homelessness with five children and a cat in tow Homeschooled and avowed never to kiss a man until her wedding day Alice had plans to escape the instability by becoming a missionary nurse plans that were put on hold with the opening of an unexpected door the opportunity to be an actress in Hollywood What followed was a test of faith unlike any she had prepared for an arranged betrothal she never saw coming and a psychological shattering that forced her to learn how to survive without the only framework for life she had ever known This unique coming of age story takes place within a Christian subculture that teaches children to be martyrs and women to be silent Revelatory vulnerable and offering catharsis for your own journey through faith and doubt Wayward is a deeply intelligent memoir of soul searching and finding the courage to live in your own truth A Memoir of ... Princess Mary

Adelaide, Duchess of Teck Clement Kinloch Cooke,1900 Memoirs George E. Eaton CD PhD LLD,2021-02-17 The value of this Memoir lies in the objective presentation of several key historical events in specific countries where the author lived and worked ranging from Canada through Africa and Europe to the Caribbean George Eaton Ph D was a founding faculty member of York University Toronto and at his retirement was Professor Emeritus Senior Scholar He was a man known for his clear objective perspective and his unshakeable sense of integrity and honour This Memoir offers extraordinary insights into the inner workings and behind the scene activities of post colonial African and Caribbean economies and their emerging national identities Eaton s seminal works entitled The Development of Political Unionism 1961 and Alexander Bustamante Modern Jamaica 1975 have both been critically acclaimed Conclusion of the Memoirs of Miss Sidney Bidulph

Frances Sheridan,2013-09-23 In 1761 Frances Sheridan published her novel The Memoirs of Miss Sidney Bidulph which became a popular and widely praised example of the sentimental novel The Conclusion that novel s sequel is set eight years later after Sidney Bidulph s marriage and motherhood Psychologically subtle and emotionally immediate the novel is told almost entirely in the form of letters Many of the letters are between the scheming Sophy and Edward Audley who are trying to trick Sidney s daughter into marriage with Edward these letters provide a startlingly realistic portrayal of villainy anticipating such later works as Les Liaisons Dangereuses The historical appendices include documents on the education of young adults in the eighteenth century and contemporary reviews of the novel The Faces Behind the Chains:

Memoirs of a High School Counselor Jim Mancke, 2018-02-02
Imagine beginning your thirty six year high school counseling career by returning to your former high school your alma mater still being remembered for better or for worse by many of your past teachers and some staff members That is where Jim Mancke found himself in the fall of 1975 With his undergraduate degree in psychology a three year stint in the Military Police Corps and a masters degree in secondary school counseling he felt relatively well prepared for the task ahead Little did he know how little he did know While his heart was open to serving the adolescent community he quickly discovered he had much yet to learn Interestingly it would be his students and their parents who would prove to be his teachers and he their pupil The lessons he learned are what this book is about His first nineteen years of service he preferred to call this his ministry were at Spartanburg High School in Spartanburg South Carolina He then answered a call to serve in a private independent school setting in Chattanooga Tennessee at the McCallie School which offered both day and boarding options The boarding component of McCallie added a new dimension to his counseling model He served there for seventeen years Both schools proved to be fertile ground for the lessons he learned While Jim was honored to be the recipient of numerous awards and recognitions throughout his counseling ministry two proved to be extra special In 1991 he received the distinguished Lewis Hine Award from the National Child Labor Committee in New York presented for unparalleled

achievement in service to children and youth In 1993 Governor Carroll Campbell of South Carolina presented Jim the states highest civilian honor the Order of the Palmetto for his interest in and friendship to the state of South Carolina and her people As his memoirs attest Jims greatest honor was that of serving his students and their parents Eudora Welty: Stories, Essays, & Memoirs (LOA #102) Eudora Welty, 1998-08 A selection of nine literary and personal essays includes evocations of the Jackson of her youth that is essential to her work and cogent discussions of literary form Fractured Rachelle Galipeau, 2022-08-01 Sometimes our journey is depicted by footprints in the sand But it is the handprints that tell the true story of affliction and survival We continue to walk We continue to stumble Through both we find life lessons and the journey continues for us all This is mine Memoirs of a Porcupine Alain Mabanckou, 2012-04-01 All human beings says an African legend have an animal double Some doubles are benign others wicked This legend comes to life in Alain Mabanckou s outlandish surreal and charmingly nonchalant Memoirs of a Porcupine When Kibandi a boy living in a Congolese village reaches the age of 11 his father takes him out into the night and forces him to drink a vile liquid from a jar that has been hidden for years in the earth This is his initiation From now on he and his double a porcupine become accomplices in murder They attack neighbors fellow villagers and people who simply cross their path for reasons so slight that it is virtually impossible to establish connection between the killings As he grows older Kibandi relies on his double to act out his grizzly compulsions until one day even the porcupine balks and turns instead to literary confession Winner of the Prix Renaudot France s equal to the National Book Award Alain Mabanckou is considered one of the most talented writers today He was selected by the French journal Lire as one of fifty writers to watch this coming century And as Peter Carey suggests he positions himself at the margins tapping the tradition founded by Celine Genet and other subversive writers In this superb and striking story Mabanckou brings new power to magical realism and is sure to excite American audiences nationwide

Adopting the Track of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within Raising Mama A Memoir

In a global used by displays and the ceaseless chatter of quick transmission, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony produced by the published word frequently diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and disturbances that permeate our lives.
