Raising My Best Friends Luther Brown, 2006-01-15 Luther Brown and his wife divorced when their children Nikki and Marshall were four and five I read every book I could find about the process of child rearing about my own psychological fitness for parenting alone he writes In all that I read I never once encountered a story by an African American father Now the Washington DC based black television newscaster writes about the lessons and cherished moments surrounding a divorced father raising his two children Will they handle the trauma of having divorced parents How does he equip them with the essentials for becoming contributing members of society Scene after scene Luther Browns personal narrative weaves the reader through an inspiring series of challenges he faces Theres no preaching And Brown hasnt written a how to He merely retells the scenes They are laughable disturbing but mostly tender all leading to the portrait of a fathers raising his best friends
