Raising Our Future Families Schools And Communities Joining Together:

Home, School, and Community Partnerships Larry E. Decker, Virginia A. Decker, 2003 Many Americans worry about what they see as a growing gulf between the American public and its public schools Troubling trends seem to indicate a fraying relationship among families schools and communities Education reform has become the topic of many conversations as well as books and articles There is widespread agreement that schools and education curricula need to be fixed but there is no agreement on how this can be accomplished Educators across the nation are implementing ideas and strategies that are making a difference in children s lives and in the health and well being of our communities Structured in ten chapters this book will help educators weave some of the best ideas for creating and sustaining family and community engagement into a comprehensive home school community partnership program tailored to their own communities Website references and URLs for additional exploration are included For educational leaders teachers and family and community advocates interested in creating and maintaining home school community partnerships and collaborative initiatives Resources in Education ,2001-10 Raising Our Future ,1995 Family support programs have been attracting increased attention and are at the center of efforts to build systems of integrated comprehensive and preventive family focused services This handbook developed by the Harvard Family Research Project HFRP profiles 73 school affiliated family support and education programs in the United States to help principals policy makers program directors evaluators and teachers make decision regarding such programs The handbook serves as a national resource guide describing the scope of programs currently implemented in schools serving families with young children Following an overview that discusses major factors contributing to the success of these programs the program descriptions are divided into the following chapters 1 Preschool and Early Childhood Programs with Parent Involvement 2 Support for Special Needs Children and Their Parents 3 Parent School Partnerships for School Readiness and Enrichment 4 Home Visits for Parenting Support 5 School and Center Based Parenting Support 6 Teens Parenthood and Child Development 7 Family Literacy and Intergenerational Skill Development 8 Family Resource Centers and 9 Family School Community Partnerships Each of the case studies includes demographic information program philosophy features curriculum site information funding and staffing information and evaluation efforts Contains a listing and description of 109 resources for information advocacy and research for family support programs BGC Early Childhood Interventions, Public-private Partnerships United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform and Oversight. Subcommittee on Human Resources,1999 These hearings transcripts recount testimony before the U S House of Representatives concerning early childhood development programs Testimony addressed the questions of how public and private investments in early childhood programs contribute to successful outcomes for infants and mothers and how these successes can be measured and replicated as states implement welfare reforms and demand for quality child care grows The transcripts include statements and or testimony from Rob Reiner of the I Am Your Child campaign Lincoln C Almond

Governor of Rhode Island a representative of the RAND Corporation the director of program and policy analysis of the National Center for Children in Poverty a professor of pediatrics and preventive medicine a single mother Representative Christopher Shays Connecticut and Representative Edolphus Towns New York HTH Visions of Entitlement Mary A. Jensen, Stacie G. Goffin, 1993-10-12 As part of a re examination of our societal values and obligations this book focuses on illuminating the various meanings and issues of entitlement in relation to the basic needs of children in our society Drawing on the perspectives of philosophy law education sociology child development economics and public health the authors discuss the implications of their vision of entitlement for the well being of America s children The book also points out specific family and cultural contexts for the provision of entitlements for young children And finally it turns our attention to the moral commitments needed to effect changes in policies and programs In this way the book provides valuable information for all who are trying to improve the nurture and education of America s children International Handbook of Educational Change Andy Hargreaves, A. Lieberman, M. Fullan, D.W. Hopkins, 2014-11-14 The International Handbook of Educational Change is a state of the art collection of the most important ideas and evidence of educational change The book brings together some of the most influential thinkers and writers on educational change It deals with issues like educational innovation reform restructuring culture building inspection school review and change management It asks why some people resist change and what their resistance means It looks at how men and women older teachers and younger teachers experience change differently It looks at the positive aspects of change but does not hesitate to raise uncomfortable questions about many aspects of educational change either It looks critically and controversially at the social economic cultural and political forces that are driving educational change School leaders system administration teacher leaders consultants facilitators educational researchers staff developers and change agents of all kinds will find this book an indispensable resource for guiding them to both classic and cutting edge understandings of educational change no other work provides as comprehensive coverage of the field of educational change Altered Destinies Gene I.

Maeroff, 1999-04-15 How can America enrich the educational experience of children in need Maeroff builds a compelling case for how a system of social capital will make a difference in the effort to improve opportunities for disadvantaged children
