Rallying Cries:

Reinventing Strategic Planning Stephen G. Haines, Jim McKinlay, 2007 Rights as Weapons Clifford Bob, 2021-05-04
Bob looks at how political forces use rights as rallying cries naturalizing novel claims as rights inherent in humanity absolutizing them as trumps over rival interests or community concerns universalizing them as transcultural and transhistorical and depoliticizing them as concepts beyond debate He shows how powerful proponents employ rights as camouflage to cover ulterior motives as crowbars to break rival coalitions as blockades to suppress subordinate groups as spears to puncture discrete policies and as dynamite to explode whole societies And he demonstrates how the targets of rights campaigns repulse such assaults using their own rights like weapons denying the abuses they are accused of constructing rival rights to protect themselves portraying themselves as victims rather than violators and repudiating authoritative decisions against them Racial Formation in the United States Michael Omi, Howard Winant, 1994
Discusses racial formation theory the idea that race is a constructed identity dependent upon social economic and political factors Loveworks Brian Sheehan, 2013-05-28 In 2004 Kevin Roberts wrote Lovemarks the future beyond brands It was admired by many as a breakthrough in marketing thinking but was also controversial because of its surprisingly obvious thesis that emotional connections are at the heart of sustained relationships between producers retailers and consumers While many companies were using the language of war in their marketing target penetrate ambush Roberts was using the language of love mystery sensuality intimacy He explained in simple terms what people are often loath to admit we make decisions with our emotions over our reason Lovemarks described the journey by which brands could move from consumer respect based on intellect to consumer love based on emotion and in return gain loyalty beyond reason In 2010 Advertising Age magazine named Lovemarks one of their ideas of the decade while noting that the roadmap for brands to achieve Lovemark status was still not entirely clear Loveworks How the world s top marketers make emotional connections to win in the marketplace adds to the original Lovemarks by showcasing real world business examples and outlining the roadmaps followed by several world renowned brands to achieve Lovemark status Procter Gamble Toyota Visa General Mills Miller T Mobile and Lenovo are just a few examples of businesses winning in the marketplace through the application of the Lovemarks theory maintaining laser like focus on making and sustaining emotional connections with consumers Loveworks features 20 case stories from clients and markets worldwide in widely varying categories My book shows that Lovemarks thinking works anywhere anytime All it takes is having the brains to implement it the guts to see it through and an abiding faith in emotion as your compass says Brian Sheehan The Systems Thinking Approach to Strategic Planning and Management Stephen Haines, 2000-06-13 Easy to follow and understand The Systems Thinking Approach to Strategic Planning and Management presents the first practical application of systems thinking a concept first introduced by Peter Senge in the Fifth Discipline as a new better and elegantly simple A B C approach to strategic management planning and
