A Deadly Breed Caroline Burnes,1988 With No Regrets Lisa Jackson,1990 As far as cynical attorney Jake McGowan was concerned he couldn t have much sympathy for a woman who d chosen to marry his filthy rich sworn enemy He would represent Kimberly Bennett in her desperate child custody battle and he would taste sweet revenge against her shady ex husband but he d steer clear of both her and her little girl s beseeching blue eyes Degree by slow degree Kim felt icy Jake warm toward her family s plight Yet shadows lingered in his eyes bleakness in his smile desperation in his hungry kisses What hardened his heart so and now that she loved him was she about to taste the bittersweetness of regret Page 2 of cover

Malek, 1989 Desperado Helen Conrad, 1988 Ranching under the Arch D. Larraine Andrews, 2019-05-21 A visually rich, historically epic tale of cattle ranching in southern Alberta focusing on multi-generational family-owned ranches that are still in existence today. In the 1880s a group of fledgling cattle ranchers descended on the plains of southern Alberta. They were drawn by the promise of the West where the grass seemed endless and they could ranch under the arch of the Chinook, the warm Pacific wind that swooped down the eastern slopes of the Rockies to melt the snow and clear the land for year-round grazing. They came with wild optimism but their ambition was soon tempered by the brutal reality of a frontier land. Ranching under the Arch is a tale of survival, perseverance, and prosperity in the face of struggle, loss, and loneliness. Following over a dozen ranches still in operation that have roots dating to the late nineteenth century, historian D. Larraine Andrews recounts the culture that developed around this unique vocation. These ranches have endured as vibrant enterprises, sometimes into the fifth generation of the same family, sometimes with new faces and dreams to change the focus of the narrative. Drawing from historical archives, diaries, and personal accounts and illustrated by informative maps, fascinating archival imagery, and stunning contemporary photography, Ranching under the Arch is an epic portrait of the Cattle Kingdom and its place in Alberta history. Selling Your Father's Bones Brian Schofield, 2009-02-03 Part historical narrative, part travelogue, and part environmental plea, Selling Your Father's Bones recounts one of the most astonishing journeys in the history of the American West. The year 1877 bore witness to a broken promise. Joseph, chief of the peaceable Nez Perce band who made their home in Oregon's Wallowa Valley, had long sworn to uphold the dying words of his father: "This country holds your father's body. Never sell the bones of your mother and your father." Yet as the U.S. government confined the tribe to ever smaller reservations in favor of miners and ranchers in their westward sprawl, the fateful decision of several young Nez Perce warriors to attack the settlers set in motion an exodus from Joseph's ancestral home. For the next eleven weeks, seven hundred Nez Perce men, women, and children traveled 1,700 miles across inhospitable wilderness, engaging the chasing army in six battles and many more skirmishes as they drove on in search of peace and freedom. Just forty miles from the Canadian border, the tribe survived a calamitous five-day siege until Joseph could no longer bear his people's suffering and surrendered. It is said that when he died in 1904 the cause was a broken heart Populated with the heroes and villains of a classic conflict Selling Your Father s Bones intercuts the Nez Perce s fight for survival with the author s own travels across this very same terrain the mountains forests badlands and prairies of modern day Oregon Idaho Wyoming and Montana The imposing Bitterroot Mountains the Lolo Pass then and now among the toughest mountain crossings on the North American continent and the great Montana buffalo plains retain their majesty Yet as Schofield reveals ecological vandalism unthinking corporate policies and dubious political leadership have wrought scarred landscapes battered communities and toxic environments whose realities must be borne by the living descendants of both the Nez Perce warriors and the European settlers As Schofield walks among the people who now occupy these sacred lands he sees in the values of the Native American West love for homeland for ancestry and for Mother Nature a route to their and our salvation Wild Horse Canyon Elizabeth August,1989 The Colberts and Randolphys had battled over Wild Horse Canyon for years Now Maggie Randolph had to marry to keep her inheritance and Joe Colbert was a willing groom as long as the canyon was her dowry Trapped in a loveless marriage the gap between them grew as wide as the canyon itself Still Maggie began to fall under the powerful spell of this rugged cowboy And every day it became harder and harder to keep battling her handsome enemy p 4 of cover Country Love Ava Catori,2014-04-23 Watching Laura get married would be the most painful thing Tom would ever see He d been in love with her for as long as he could remember When she gets stood up at the altar Tom hopes to convince her to give him a chance There s just one problem Laura s father doesn t like the one time trouble maker Can Tom convince Laura s father he s changed and would make a stand up husband for his daughter Set in a small Wyoming town Country Love is a friends to lovers story the second in the Country Brides series Each story can be read alone and in any order Country Brides shares stories of small town love Western Romance Contemporary Western Romance Sweet Romance Bittersweet DeLoras Scott,1995 Painted Sunsets Rebecca Flanders,2002 Cassie Grant wanted to get back to her roots but she didn t want to plan on stepping into the middle of a cattle roundup in charge of a bunch of surly cowboys She d always called the Circle P Ranch in Wyoming home but the state felt downright small when she shared it with a man named Logan Logan had never worked for a woman before but he didn t let it bother him He knew more about horses and more about love than she d ever dreamed Now it was just a matter of time before the lessons began Page 2 of cover Kids, Critters and Cupid Ruth Jean Dale,1996 The eldest Cameron son Ben is the one who s running the Straight Arrow these days Ben s the best damn cowboy in the county there s nothing he doesn t know about horses and cattle But understanding his family is a different matter especially Joe his four year old son And now there s a stranger in town She s young pretty as a picture and stubborn as a mule She also has a daughter just about Joey s age Problem is Betsy s from California of all the outlandish places Ben doesn t have a hope in hell of understanding anything about her except that he wants her Snow Bird Lass Small,1987 One Man's Folly Cathy Gillen Thacker,1989 Most folks thought wealthy Texas rancher Mike Harrigan was too idealistic for his own good But when he became Father to a corral full of boys the do gooder finally outraged his neighbors And the riled up town of normally quaint quiet Libertyville expected Judge Diana Tomlinson to do something about it What could she do Harrigan s foster ranch was completely legal She couldn t even reason with the man because the more time she spent with Mike the more she wanted a place of her own in Mike s big heart of gold p 4 of cover Sagebrush and Sunshine Margot Dalton,1990 Rodeo champion Gray Lyndon woos Joanna McLean by playing daddy to her thirteen year old son
