

Beauty

You looked for beauty everywhere,
So you adored the plants and their flowers,
And how the curtain of darkness
Hid the way to the stars.

You searched for the secrets
Which made the moon shine so bright,
And spread it's beauty all over,
When calmness has taken over the night.

You were always curious about the beauty
Possessed by everything you've known,
But while admiring the beauty of others,
You forgot to see your own.

Davis, 2021-08-20 Understanding Alice Walker serves both as an introduction to the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winner s large body of work and as a critical analysis of her multifaceted canon Thadious M Davis begins with Walker s biography and her formative experiences in the South and then presents ways of accessing and reading Walker s complex interconnected and sociopolitically invested career in writing fiction poetry critical essays and meditations Although best known for her novel The Color Purple and her landmark essays In Search of Our Mothers Gardens Womanist Prose Walker began her career with Once Poems The Third Life of Grange Copeland and In Love and Trouble Stories of Black Women She has remained committed not merely to writing in multiple genres but also to conveying narratives of the hope and transformation possible within the human condition and as visualized through the lens of race and gender Davis traces Walker s literary voice as it emerges from the civil rights and feminist movements to encourage an individual and collective search for justice and joy and then evolves into forceful advocacy for world peace spiritual liberation and environmental conservancy Her writing a rich amalgamation of the cutting edge and popular the new age and difficult continues to be paradigm shifting and among the most important produced in the American Poetry of the Twentieth Century Richard Gray,1976-06-10 Southscapes Thadious M. Davis,2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region Banished Immortal Paul S.
