Rani Gaidinliu:

Nagalim Suvo Moitro, 2012-04-25 ALICIA SEMA understood little about the insurgent movement even after the Naga rebels came to her school to recruit comrades. But now sitting on a cliff facing the immense expanse far below she listened with great interest the virile voice of her school mate KAITO KEVI his fervid description of the movement his dreams of a free nation a free Nagalim. Years later a mystic phone call makes her to wonder did she bury her sweetheart Kaito's bullet ridden body. Then she had no time to think she had strangled her baby image killed her innocence and then gunned down the responsible army officers. Drawn up against the backdrop of Naga freedom struggle in which thousands sacrificed their lives wives became widows and children became orphans NAGALIM the Smoldering slopes Manipur in Flames: Conspiracy of The Cross Jagdamba Mall, 2025-03-12 This book is a compelling analysis of the causes behind the unrest in Manipur since 3rd May 2023. It examines the factors consequences and involvement of national and international organisations including Church bodies like AMCO CBCNEI BWA and WCC along with global players like USA UK China and UNO. The book narrates the history of Manipur. The contribution of Meitei community in nation building is highlighted. It explores the immigration of Kuki population from Myanmar encouraged by British Political Agent Major W McCulloch 1844-67 with ulterior motives the separation of Hills administration and the Church's conspiracy to convert Kukis to Christianity to create a rift with Meitei Hindus and India. This is a must read for historians sociologists political activists social workers and research scholars.

Confessing Christ in the Naga Context Bendangjungshi, 2011 In this book author Bendangjungshi brings into dialogue the three leading Northeast Indian tribal theologians Renty Keitzar K Thanzauva and Wati Longchar with the Western theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer who suffered martyrdom under the Nazi dictatorship in Germany. Negotiating between Bonhoeffer's political approach and Naga cultural identity Bendangjungshi develops a liberating ecclesiology for Naga Christians who have been suffering under Indian military occupation since the withdrawal of the British colonizers from Nagaland. Series ContactZone Explorations in Intercultural Theology Vol 8 Reform, Identity and Narratives of Belonging Arkotong Longkumer, 2011-11-03 Reform Identity and Narratives of Belonging focuses on the Heraka a religious reform movement and its impact on the Zeme a Naga tribe in the North Cachar Hills of Assam India. Drawing upon critical studies of religion cultural ethnic identity and nationalism archival research in both India and Britain and fieldwork in Assam the book initiates new grounds for understanding the evolving notions of reform and identity in the emergence of a Heraka religion. Arkotong Longkumer argues that reform and identity are dynamically inter related and linked to the revitalisation and negotiation of both tradition legitimising indigeneity and change legitimising reform. The results have deepened yet challenged not only prevailing views of the Western construction of the category religion but also understandings of how marginalised communities use collective historical imagination to inspire self identification through the discourse of religion. In conclusion this book argues for a re evaluation of the way in which multi religious traditions interact to reshape identities and belongings The Resilience of Indigenous Religion Samson Kamei, 2022-12-22 This book is a sociological study of the resilience of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak one of the indigenous religions of the Rongmei people of Manipur. It examines the underlying factors contributing towards the ability of the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak to continue with their religion despite stigmatisation, conversion and persecution by sections of Christians. This book reflects the contemporary relevance of the legacies of the religious movements under Jadonang, Malangmei and Rani Gaidinliu. Thus the book also examines the continuity between the past and the present religious movements with complex underlying factors contributing to the resilience of an indigenous religion. The Rongmei people following Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak, a reformed religion, are seen to be not shying away from changes in their religious beliefs and practices. Interestingly, however, despite all the reformation, consciously heralded the idea of primordiality in the sense of unchanging is a sincere atavism among the adherents of Tingkao Ragwang Chapriak. Methodologically speaking, the emphasis of the book is on theoretical and methodological triangulation. Both social change theory and social identity theory are used to understand the resilience of the indigenous faith of the Rongmei people amidst dominant Hindus and tribal Christians. It is observed that the idea of change is indispensable in understanding the resilience of an indigenous faith despite the commonly held belief in the essentiality of primordiality in a religion. The book is intended to serve the academic interests of researchers working on indigenous religions. Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print version of this book in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka. , The Northeastern Dictionary of Women's Biography Jennifer S. Uglow, 1999 The most comprehensive reference book of its kind with more than 60 new entries in this third edition. The Greater India Experiment Arkotong Longkumer, 2020-12-01 The assertion that even institutions often viewed as abhorrent should be dispassionately understood motivates Arkotong Longkumer's pathbreaking ethnography of the Sangh Parivar, a family of organizations comprising the Hindu right. The Greater India Experiment counters the urge to explain away their ideas and actions as inconsequential by demonstrating their efforts to influence local politics and culture in Northeast India. Longkumer constructs a comprehensive understanding of Hindutva, an idea central to the establishment of a Hindu nation state, by focusing on the Sangh Parivar's engagement with indigenous peoples in a region that has long resisted the idea of India. Contextualizing their activities as a Hindutva experiment within the broader Indian political and cultural landscape, he ultimately paints a unique picture of the country today. Mula Gabharu Hiranya Borah, 2021-10-13 The novel is based on an Assamese legend. Princess Mula Gabharu, the younger sister of the Greatest Ahom King Swargadeo Suhungmung Dihingia Raja, who became a martyr while defending the border against the fifth attempt out of 17 unsuccessful attempts in 158 years from 1527 to 1685 by the Mighty Mughals to subjugate Assam in 1533. She took a decision to face the invading army after her husband Frasingmung Borgohain became a martyr fighting with the same invaders. Her participation galvanized the Assamese Army to defeat the Mughals, and the leader of the invaders, Turbak Khan, was killed by her stepbrother Konseng Borpatra Gohain. Her son Ton
