Rape Defense A Non Confrontational Appro:

Rape Defense Robert O. Wright, 1999-11      A New Approach to the History of Violence Francisca Loetz, 2015-06-02

Up to now historical research has treated violence mainly with reference to war murder or massacre Francisca Loetz argues for a new complementary approach to history of violence as an interpersonal form of social action experienced as unacceptable behavior and aiming to subjugate the victim in everyday life Analyzing cases of what the sources call sexual assault and sexual abuse in the city state of Zurich between 1500 and 1850 Loetz discusses fundamental methodological problems such as how can violence be defined as a concept What makes violence what it is in a given society Why is early modern sexual assault and sexual abuse not equivalent to modern rape and abuse How does Zurich compare with pre modern Europe

Handbook of Injury and Violence Prevention Lynda Doll, E. N. Haas, Sandra Bonzo, David Sleet, James Mercy, 2007-03-20 Injuries kill and maim millions each year and seriously impact the lives of countless loved ones Yet until recently they have been considered a random normal part of life Preventing injuries on the other hand requires not only effective communication with the public but also a reliable framework for creating and evaluating suitable interventions The Handbook of Injury and Violence Prevention is the first book to address both halves of this challenge reviewing evidence based intervention programs in depth so professionals can identify successful promising and ineffective and potentially harmful prevention strategies Over fifty experts present the current landscape of intervention methods from risk reduction to rethinking social norms as they address some of the most prevalent forms of accidental and violent injury as well as emerging areas Overview chapters examine the social and economic scope of unintentional and violent injury today Extensive literature review of specific intervention programs to prevent violence and injury Special chapters on childhood injuries alcohol related accidents and disasters Interventions in the Field section offers solid guidelines for implementing and improving existing programs Critical analysis of issues involved in delivering programs to wider audiences Helpful appendices list relevant agencies and professional resources This dual focus on intervention and application makes the Handbook a bedrock text for professionals involved in delivering or managing prevention programs Its what works now approach gives it particular utility in the graduate classroom and researchers will benefit from the critical attention paid to knowledge gaps in the field It is a major resource for any reader committed to reducing the number of incidents just waiting to happen

Encyclopedia of Interpersonal Violence Claire M. Renzetti, Jeffrey L. Edleson, 2008-06-19 This Encyclopedia is the definitive resource for students researchers and practitioners needing further information on various aspects of interpersonal violence including different forms of interpersonal violence incidence and prevalence theoretical explanations public policies and prevention and intervention strategies

Investigating Gender Martha E. Thompson, Michael Armato, 2012-01-10 A fresh and exciting new textbook that will be an indispensable and dynamic entry point for students of gender Pays full attention to the recent move towards recognizing intersectionality and the way gender interacts with other forms of privilege and oppression

Remaking Relapse Prevention with Sex Offenders D. Richard Laws, Stephen M. Hudson, Tony Ward, 2000-04-19 This book is a rich source of information on the application of relapse prevention with sex offenders It presents readers promising directions for change and areas that need revision based on new research findings and the integration of emerging theoretical models that show considerable promise in this field The material in this book should help us construct a better safer vehicle for the treatment of sex offenders in the new millennium from the Foreword by G Alan Marlatt University of Washington It is estimated that relapse prevention methods are employed in more than 90% of all North American sex offender treatment programs of which there are more than 2 000 Comparable statistics are true in most industrialized countries around the world Over the last decade a great deal has been learned about the treatment of sexual offenders and particularly about relapse prevention This sourcebook provides clinicians with the most current practical information about working with sex offenders to prevent relapse It reflects the advances and insights of the past decade since the publication of Relapse Prevention with Sex Offenders focusing on the major reconceptualizations revisions and innovations that will chart treatment programs for the first decade of the new millennium Social Psychology Stephen L. Franzoi, 2003

Theorizing Sexual Violence Renée J. Heberle, Victoria Grace, 2009-09-11 Examining sexual violence the authors of this volume take up questions about the relationship between sex sexuality and violence to better understand the terms on which women s sexual suffering is perpetuated thereby undermining their capacity for personhood and autonomy Foreign

Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Related Agencies (1968?-1978), 1977 Foreign Assistance and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1978 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Related Agencies, 1977 Black Belt, 1984-10 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known marital arts figure in the world The Verdict of the Court Jenny McEwan, 2003-10-02 Courts are constantly required to know how people think They may have to decide what a specific person was thinking on a past occasion how others would have reacted to a particular situation or whether a witness is telling the truth Be they judges jurors or magistrates the law demands they penetrate human consciousness This book questions whether the arm chair psychology operated by fact finders and indeed the law itself in its treatment of the fact finders bears any resemblance to the knowledge derived from psychological research Comparing psychological theory with court verdicts in both civil and criminal contexts it assesses where the separation between law and science is most acute and most dangerous Responsibilities and Dispensations Carl N. Edwards, 2001 Foreign Assistance and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1978: Special hearings.

Testimony of public witnesses United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Related Agencies, United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Related Agencies Appropriations, 1977      A Modern Approach to Evidence Richard O. Lempert, Stephen A. Saltzburg, 1982      Adolescent Dating Violence David Wolfe, Jeff R. Temple, 2018-06-14 Adolescent Dating Violence Theory Research and Prevention summarizes the course risk protective factors consequences and treatment prevention of adolescent dating violence Dating violence is defined as physical sexual psychological and cyber behavior meant to cause emotional physical or social harm to a current or former intimate partner The book discusses research design and measurement in the field focuses on the recent influx of longitudinal studies and examines prevention and intervention initiatives Divided into five sections the book begins by reviewing theory on and consequences of dating violence Section II discusses risk factors and protective factors such as peer influences substance use and past exposure to violence in the family of origin Section III discusses how social and cultural factors can influence teen dating violence addressing the prevalence of dating violence among different ethnicities and among LGBTQ teens and the influence of social media Section IV discusses recent research priorities including gender inequality measurement psychological abuse and the dual nature of dating violence during adolescence Section V reviews evidence based practice for treatment and prevention across various age groups and settings Encompasses physical sexual psychological and cyber violence Introduces theory on dating violence Emphasizes results from longitudinal studies and intervention initiatives Highlights the influence of social media and technology on dating violence Discusses ethnic gender and other social and cultural differences in prevalence Examines evidence based practice in treatment and prevention      Sexing the Look in Popular Visual Culture Kathy Justice Gentile, 2020-05-15 With dramatic advances in media technology the practice of sexing or erotically enhancing images has become an increasingly widespread phenomenon The eroticized look as both noun and verb the thing or image that draws our look and the look that we bestow on images that elicit our visual physiological and emotional attention is the focus of the essays in this volume Every day whether we are out in the world or in the workplace or in the privacy of our homes we enter visual fields that heighten and distort reality distortions that often emphasize sexuality and erotic promise The contributors for this collection look at the sexualization of visual culture from a range of disciplinary perspectives including literature film studies history philosophy art history and media studies with gender and sexuality studies providing the encompassing critical framework that binds these essays into a coherent analytical project The essays in this collection offer new theoretical conceptions of perception and representation as well as rigorous reconsiderations of the polarized feminist debates over pornographic images Essays on literature and film range from an interrogation of Baudrillard's theory of seduction that posits femininity as a strategy of illusion and subversion to Bridget Jones's challenge to the prevailing disciplinary regime that prescribes rigid standards for feminine beauty to a reevaluation of the subversive potential of sexy

female robots Other contributors consider the history of nudist images in US periodicals the proliferation of eroticized images of girls in new digital technologies gentlemanly masculinity in men s fashion in late Victorian England and a rape prevention campaign s unintentional reinforcement of persistent heterosexist misconceptions about rape Sexual Offenses in Armed Conflict and International Law Noëlle Quénivet, 2021-10-01 No lle N R Qu nivet has constructed a valuable tool for navigating the morass of sexual offences and international law Using Bosnia Herzegovina a jumping off point she proceeds to show how over the last two decades the Western world has been swept up by a wave of feminist scholars writing about international law and more particularly humanitarian and human rights law Although these articles books and statements have covered a broad range of issues the focus has been on sexual offences and more specifically on rape in times of conflict These authors as well as NGOs supporting their ideas have made a series of assumptions concerning sexual offences in times of armed conflict On the basis of these presumptions they have claimed inter alia that international law does not adequately prohibit sexual offences and that prosecution is scarce This timely work examines whether the assumptions made by feminist scholars are solidly grounded in international law and whether their claims are still valid regarding the latest legal developments A thorough examination of the laws and the jurisprudence relating to sexual offences demonstrates that whereas before the creation of the ad hoc international criminal tribunals some of their claims were founded these claims are now partially ill founded Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint West's federal reporter : cases argued and determined in the United States courts of appeals and Temporary Emergency Court of Appeals ,1993 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin ,1978
