artists including mosaic paint and stone over a 2 000 year period to portray their search for spirituality Senses of Touch: Human Dignity and Deformity from Michelangelo to Calvin Marjorie O'Rourke Boyle, 2021-10-11 Senses of Touch anatomizes the uniquely human hand as a rhetorical figure for dignity and deformity in early modern culture It concerns a valuational shift from the contemplative ideal as signified by the sense of sight to an active reality as signified by the sense of touch From posture to piety from manicure to magic the book discovers touch in a critical period of its historical development in anatomy and society It features new interpretations of two landmarks of western civilization Michelangelo's fresco of the Creation of Adam and Calvin's doctrine of election It also accords special attention to the typing of women as sensual creatures by using their hands as a heuristic Its alternative interpretations explore in theory and in practice the sensuality the creativity and the plain utility of hands thus integrating biology and culture

Apostolic Iconography and Florentine Confraternities in the Age of Reform Douglas N. Dow, 2017-07-05 Focusing on artists and architectural complexes which until now have eluded scholarly attention in English language publications Apostolic Iconography and Florentine Confraternities in the Age of Reform examines through their art programs three different confraternal organizations in Florence at a crucial moment in their histories Each of the organizations that forms the basis for this study oversaw renovations that included decorative programs centered on the apostles At the complex of Ges Pellegrino a fresco cycle represents the apostles in their roles as Christ's disciples and proselytizers At the oratory of the company of Santissima Annunziata a series of frescoes shows their martyrdoms the terrible price the apostles paid for their mission and their faith At the oratory of San Giovanni Battista detta dello Scalzo a sculptural program of the apostles stood as an example to each confratello of how Christian piety had its roots in collective effort Douglas Dow shows that the emphasis on the apostles within these corporate groups demonstrates how the organizations adapted existing iconography to their own purposes He argues that their willful engagement with apostolic themes reveals the complex interaction between these organizations and the church's program of reform

The Literate Eye Rachel Teukolsky, 2009-07-30 Rather than focusing on German philosophy or the French avant gardes as many books on the history of aesthetics do Teukolsky takes up British responses to modern art controversies thus providing a unique view on the development of artistic forms and art history She considers the canonical writing of authors like John Ruskin Walter Pater and Oscar Wilde alongside texts belonging to the rich field of Victorian print culture gallery reviews scientific treatises satirical cartoons advertisements and early photography monographs among them Spanning the years 1840 to 1910 her argument also adds substance to our understanding of the transition from Victorianism to modernism a period of especially lively exchange between artists and intellectuals here narrated with careful attention given to the historical particularities and real events that stamped their imprint on such interactions
